

Maj. Gen. Wood to Be New Governor Of Philippines

Disposition of Post Means Affairs of Island Americanized and Independence Dream Postponed.

By PHILIP KINSLEY.
Chicago Tribune-Omaha Bee Leased Wire.
St. Augustine, Fla., Feb. 16.—Maj. Gen. Leonard Wood will be appointed governor general of the Philippines to succeed Frederick Burton Harrison; it was learned today.

President-elect Harding's disposition of this post indicates that the defense of the island outpost will be perfected, that its affairs will be more Americanized and that there is little likelihood of the realization of the Filipinos' dream of early independence.

Appointment Fortunate.

The appointment is considered a happy one, as General Wood's qualifications as a colonial administrator long have been recognized. Under Mr. Harrison, it is reported to Mr. Harding, the islands rapidly have been going "American" and America has lost much prestige.

For another important far Eastern post, that of ambassador to Japan, Mr. Harding is expected to appoint Albert Fletcher, former minister to Mexico, a republican, and one of the Roosevelt rough riders. Mr. Fletcher has been on the Florida houseboat trip with Mr. Harding.

Hays Confers Again.

Will H. Hays, chairman of the national committee, spent hours with Mr. Harding in going over party affairs, cabinet and policies today. The financial condition of the national committee is good, Mr. Hays said. Mr. Harding was not worried at all at the $1,200,000 deficit, according to Mr. Hays. This has been portioned out among the states and no attempt will be made, Mr. Hays said, to dictate to the states as to the limit of subscriptions, though he thought precedent would operate to hold it to $1,000.

He still is an advocate of decentralized giving and pointed out that while in 1916 there were 760 subscribers to the fund, in 1920 there were 57,000.

Mr. Harding saw Col. Arthur Woods, former police commissioner of New York City, William Boyce Thompson, of New York; John C. Ferguson, adviser to the president of China and Thomas W. Lamont, New York banker.

Dismissal of Hearst Injunction Is Asked

Washington, Feb. 16.—Dismissal of the injunction proceedings brought by William Randolph Hearst to restrain Secretary Houston from making any further loans to foreign governments was asked in a motion filed in the District of Columbia supreme court by District Attorney Laskey.

District Attorney Laskey, who acted for Secretary Houston, asked dismissal of the suit on eight grounds. These included the contention that the plaintiff has not shown sufficient pecuniary interest, that the plaintiff has no legal or equitable status, that the suit in reality is against the government which has not consented to the proceedings, and that the defendant has no right or power to raise the extension of loans, as that is a matter for congress to decide.

Mexican Cabinet Refuses Oregon's Banking Plans

Mexico City, Feb. 16.—President Obregon's project for a new banking law which would create eight banks for the issuance of currency was rejected by the banking committee of the Chamber of Deputies yesterday. When he learned of this action, the president asked congress not to consider the project further and asserted he intended to submit an early date another bill providing for one central bank of emission. This was a plan ardently supported by Luis Cabrera, secretary of the treasury during the administration of President Carranza.

Our Money Nomenclature.
Copyright, 1920, by the Wheeler Syndicate.
The dollar, our unit, takes its name from the North-of-Europe Thaler, which has about the same value. The cent comes from the Latin "centum," meaning 100, or the 100th part. The word "dime" is also derived from the Latin "decimus," or one-tenth part. The quarter and half, of course, explain themselves. The eagle, or $10 gold piece, is so called because of the eagle that adorned the first design. The double eagle has twice its value.

By ARTHUR SCOTT BAILEY

CHAPTER XXII

Two Famous Diggers.

Billy Woodchuck had decided to move into new quarters before cold weather set in. Old dog Spot had learned where he lived; and to Billy's dismay Spot was spending altogether too much of his time watching Billy's front door.

There was only one reason why Billy Woodchuck didn't exactly care to dig a new home for himself in the pasture just then. The fall crop of clover was about to head out. And, being very fond of clover blossoms, Billy hated to spend his time digging.

He was telling his troubles one day to old Mr. Crow. And, as usual, Mr. Crow had an idea.

Mr. Crow agreed that Billy Woodchuck knew what he was talking about.

Mr. Crow had been thinking rapidly—for he was a quick-witted old scamp.

Wetly Told to Get Evidence Ready for Immediate Hearing Before House Judiciary Committee.

Washington, Feb. 16.—Wishing to avoid delay in consideration of the impeachment charges against Judge K. M. Landis of Chicago, Chairman Volstead of the house judiciary committee, gave notice to Representative Wetly to get together his evidence and call his witnesses for an immediate hearing.

The judiciary committee will meet tomorrow on general legislative matters pending before it. While some discussion of the charges against Judge Landis may take place at that time, it is not anticipated that the formal hearings on the charges can begin until later.

Kenyon Takes Lead.

Senator Kenyon of Iowa and Senator Hiram Johnson of California have taken the lead. Senator Kenyon planned to speak in the judge's behalf today but decided at the last minute to put it off until tomorrow.

There were no new outbursts against the judge in the senate today. Senator Dial said he expected to cooperate with his friends in the house who are behind the Wetly impeachment motion. He has not yet received a reply to his letter to Chicago requesting full details of the case. When he does he expects to lay them before the house committee which has charge of the impeachment motion.

Dial's Mail Heavy.

Senator Dial has been receiving more mail in the last day or two than he ever before received in his life. He gets numerous letters and telegrams, most of them anonymous, praising and condemning his action. He declined to make any of them public at this time.

In the house Representative Wetly was busy preparing his evidence against the judge to recover a mandamus in office sufficient to warrant impeachment proceedings because of the judge's connection with national base ball and his acceptance of a salary from the base ball league and association to act as arbiter in the settlement of disputes between them.
