Railroad Pamphlets _ Oppose Switch Lights

Lincoln, Feb. 16.—(Special.)— The railroads are using new methods to protect themselves against alleged unfair laws and today members of the lower house found printed pamphlets on their desks containing Proposed Law Will Affect a big red streamer at the top reading: "In compliance with the lobby act we cannot personally interview you."

The pamphlet contained figures to prove that House Roll No. 74, a bill proposing to force standard switch lights on all switch stands, is expensive and that there has been no personal injury case in the state due to the fact that such switch lights have administration from the affairs of not been installed on all switch the state of Nebraska itself down to
