Concerning Frances Earenfight. Miss Frances Earenfight, a former

Council Bluffs girl, now with the Pavley Oukrainsky ballet, is quickly winning success as a dancer in the east. She is the daughter of Mrs. R. H. Earenfight of Council Bluffs but is known as Mile. Dagmara in her profession.

At present she is taking part Lakme in New York City. Galli Curci sings the leading role in this opera. In the New York Globe of February 16 Pitts Sanborn write:

And the sight of the Pavley-Oukrainsky nymphs, recumbent, executing a sacred snake dance of all their arms was calculated to thrill mightily the oldest operagoer. Only one thing more was needed, and that proved to be the Dance of the One Black Veil as done by Miss Dagmara; then the cup of joy ran over! It was a vibrant quarter hour, and the house rose to its rapture with re-joicing and applause."
