Drawn for The Bre by McManus Kiddies of Six Schools Attend Entertainment

Program Given for Children To Impress Citizenship Duties by Women Sponsoring Recreational Work.

Kiddies of six Omaha public schools taxed the capacity of Lincoln school auditorium yesterday aiternoon at an entertainment put on after school hours by a group of women who sponsor recreational class work.

"The Toy Shop," a playlet coached by Mrs. Carl Furth, was staged by a group of Temple Israel children. The children, 500 strong, were marshalled to the Lincoln building by their respective directors: Mrs. S. H. Schaefer at Kellom; Mrs. M. When Auto Turns Turtle S. Classes in Useful Arts.

Classes in millinery, dancing, sewng, elocution, darning, embroidery and other useful arts are held each week in the six schools, with the endorsement of the Board of Education. A staff of 40 volunteer teachers already has been enrolled. Miss Laura Goetz sang a group of songs and Mrs. F. W. Shotwell gave readings for the children, yesterday. Miss Pearl McComber, principal, made the address of welcome.

Jewel, Flower, Color Symbols for Today

By MILDRED MARSHALL. The ancients believed that one tho wore crystal at this time was blessed by the gods, since it is the day's talismanic stone. They claimed that this gem would protect its wearers from criticism, and free them from their enemies.

The jasper is the day's natal stone, and is symbolic of vanished love returned. In its green depths is saidto lie the secret of lasting happiness those born on an anniversary of this day. Today's color is rose, symbolic of generosity and warm friendship. The primrose is today's flower, lopyright, 1921. By The Wheeler Syndi-cate, Inc.
