Huskers to End Cage Season Next Saturday

Nebraska Team and Iowa State Will Play at Lincoln -Busy Week for Cornhusker Athletes.

Lincoln, March 3. (Special.) -Nebraska university's athletic program for this week is a busy one It includes a pair of basket ball games here with Ames, Friday and Saturday evening; a dual wrestling meet with Iowa university at Iowa City, Friday evening, and participa-tion in the Illinois relays at Urbana,

Saturday. Coach Schissler is getting his men fit for the last series of games of the season with Ames this week. Although the Cornhuskers have lost hopes of bidding for the Missouri Valley cage title, because of the per-tect record of the Missouri Tigers, Nebraska hopes to strengthen its position in second place.

In a series of contests at Amesia couple of weeks ago. Nebraska and Ames won one game each, Ames took the first game, 38 to 30, while Nebraska annexed the second by a count of 32-23.

Nebraska's wrestlers leave Thursday for Iowa City, where they will engage the lowa university team Friday evening. lowa in the past two weeks has defeated Illinois and Minnesota in duel meets by decisive Nebraska has won meets from the Lincoln and Omaha Y. M. C. A. teams and Oklahoma A. & M. and have lost to Ames.
