

Council Bluffs Society

Mrs. Quinn Improving.
The condition of Mrs. H. A. Quinn is so favorable that in the very near future she will be able to return to her home after a stay of several weeks in an Omaha hospital.

Western Visitor.
Mr. and Mrs. William Coppock had as their guest last week Estes Snedecor of Portland, Ore., who is president of the International Rotary society.

Friday Bridge Club.
Mrs. Glenn Reed entertained the Friday Bridge club at her home last week.

Returns to Ottumwa.
Mrs. Wallace Graham left Wednesday evening for her home in Ottumwa, Ia., but will return to Council Bluffs again with her husband for the Kreisler concert in Omaha March 11.

Orpheum Party.
Messdames John P. Organ, Robert Peregoy, George Damon, James Hunter and M. B. Snyder were hostesses at an Orpheum party last Tuesday to which the members of the Ideal club were invited.

D. A. R.
The D. A. R. met with Mrs. W. S. Stillman last Thursday afternoon for a brief program and social hour.

Spring Vacation.
Miss Ruth Cooper, a student at the National Kindergarten school in Chicago, will arrive in the city March 19 to spend the spring vacation with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. W. S. Cooper.

Klatter Club.
The Klatter club will not hold its regular meeting this week, but on Friday, March 18, will be entertained at luncheon by Mrs. W. J. Heiser.

Quiet Wedding.
A wedding of interest to many Council Bluffs people occurred in Lincoln, Neb., last Monday, when Miss Neva Beatty and John Wagner, both of this city, were united in marriage.

Mr. Wagner was one of the Company L boys who was wounded in overseas service. He and his bride have a wide circle of friends here. They will make their home at 19 North First street.

Auto Show.
Every night was society night at the Auto show held last week at the Council Bluffs auditorium, where an orchestra, local singers and beautiful floral decorations were added features to the very attractive display of the various models of machines.

The next event of interest at the auditorium will be on March 8, when the Physical Education department of the Y. W. C. A. will present 300 girls in a very delightful program. Then on March 10 there will be the opportunity to see the "Winter Circus" which the Chamber of Commerce assures us will be very unique and well worth while.

Interpretative Dancer

MISS MARY AID
A great many favorable criticisms have been made on the work of a former Council Bluffs girl, Miss Mary Aid, who is now meeting with marked success in the Gruesel school at Detroit, Mich., where she teaches interpretative dancing to enthusiastic classes of children.
The art of teaching to interpret music with motion is play to the youngsters, but the educators who have investigated are firmly convinced that it is of inestimable benefit to them, and that the spirit of the dancing reflects in the whole school. Eventually, they say, every school building in the city will have a gymnasium and dancing instructor.
Miss Aid was graduated from the Council Bluffs High school and also the University of Wisconsin. She is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Aid of this city.

To Get Rid of Moths.
Sprinkle furniture and cushions with benzine. It will not spot or injure the most delicate fabric, but it is sure death to moths. The work must be done in a place where there is neither a fire nor a lighted lamp, for benzine is highly explosive.

Premier Cabinet Hostess

MRS. CHARLES E. HUGHES

Mrs. Charles Evans Hughes, wife of the new secretary of state, is returning to a large circle of old friends made during Mr. Hughes' regime as an associate justice of the supreme court of the United States.
The family of Mr. and Mrs. Hughes will consist of their two younger daughters, Catherine, who has recently completed her college course at her mother's alma mater, Wellesley, and Elizabeth, who will enter the Cathedral school here, where her elder sister, Helen, who died two years ago, and her other sister, Catherine, also were students during their previous residence here.
The only son of Mr. and Mrs. Hughes, Charles E., Jr., is a lawyer in New York and has a charming home and family. His wife formerly was Miss Marjorie B. Stuart. They live at 450 Riverside Drive, Young Mr. Hughes was in training at Plattsburg, N. Y., and served in the late war. He graduated from Harvard in 1912.

The Hughes family are but emerging from mourning for Miss Helen Hughes, whose life was sacrificed in the days of the flu. She was a girl with a brilliant mind, more fond of the serious things of life than of society and left a splendid record behind her for one so young. At an early age she began to be interested in Y. W. C. A. work and when living here was an able aide to her elders in that work. She took charge of the Y. W. C. A. country house, Friendship lodge at Cherrydale, Va., twice a year. She taught a class in the Calvary Baptist Sunday school. The family are Baptists, like the president-elect and Mrs. Harding and like the last named they attended Calvary Baptist church while in Washington, though they were much more regular attendants and took more active interest in the church work than the Hardings. During their former life here Elizabeth was the baby sister of Helen and Catherine and a great pet of the family.

Mrs. Hughes will come into the cabinet circle—in fact, will be the "premier" of the hostesses of that circle—with the poise and the grace which are essentials and with the added advantage of knowing what her social duties are and how to discharge them. Mrs. Hughes is the distinctly conservative type. She dislikes glitter and show and seeks the shade rather than the limelight. Mrs. Hughes was, before her marriage, Miss Antonette Carter, a daughter of Judge Carter. She was born in Milwaukee and was quite a small child when her parents removed to New York. She is one of the graduates of Wellesley, of whom that college is justly proud. One of her schoolmates there was Miss Frances Polson of Buffalo, afterwards Mrs. Grover Cleveland, and now Mrs. Thomas Preston of New York.

Mrs. Hughes will be one of the youngest chaperones of the State department. She has had a remarkably thorough training for the position so near the highest in the land. Mr. Hughes was the junior member of her father's law firm, and their marriage was one which pleased the family of one quite as much as that of the other. She has always discharged with dignity and grace the duties of the various homes to which Mr. Hughes' different official duties called him, especially in the gubernatorial mansion at Albany when he was governor of New York state. She made many warm friends for herself then, and happily has retained them, while making fresh ones all the time. Her hair was quite dark when she was formerly known in society here, but the last few years it has grown a little frosty, but is most

Nebraskans Visit the Capital

Bureau of the Bee Washington, D. C.

The Governor of Nebraska and Mrs. Samuel R. McKelvie, accompanied by the adjutant general of the state, H. J. Paul, arrived at the Powhatan on Thursday morning. They attended the inaugural ceremony at the capitol and were guests at the ball last night. Lieutenant Commander and Mrs. Stanley entertained for them during their stay. Mrs. Stanley and Mrs. McKelvie were schoolmates and had a charming visit together after many years of separation. Mrs. McKelvie was formerly Miss "Flossie" de Arnold of Table Rock, Neb., a gifted musician and pianist. She and Mrs. Stanley were chums when Mrs. Stanley was a student at the University of Nebraska and Mrs. McKelvie was a student in the Lincoln conservatory of music.

Senator and Mrs. George Norris have as their guests Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Harrington and their two daughters. They are not entertaining in their honor because of Senator Norris' health which is not good this spring. His family are trying to get him off to Battle Creek sanitarium for a complete rest which he needs.

Representative and Mrs. C. Frank Reavis entertained a company of young people at dinner tonight for their son, Jack, a senior at Cornell, and their niece, Miss Bobbie Gist of Falls City. Mrs. Reavis also had Mrs. McKelvie for luncheon.

Mr. and Mrs. G. L. Cooper of Humboldt, Neb., will spend the month of April with Lieutenant Commander and Mrs. Stanley, having postponed their visit from inaugurating time to a later date when Washington is more beautiful. Mr. Cooper is Mrs. Stanley's brother.

Mr. and Mrs. Adair Galusak of McCook are visiting the latter's brother at the Dresden, coming on in time for inauguration.

Mrs. Harry A. Williams, jr., of becoming, adding distinction to her appearance. In figure she is of medium height, quite slender and erect. She is a very "plain dresser."

The secretary of state and Mrs. Hughes have leased the house at 1529 Eighteenth street built by Mrs. Chisholm and occupied some years ago as the Cuban legation.

Norfolk, is visiting in Washington. She came up for inauguration and to be the guest of her cousin, Miss Katharine Brooks, and of Miss Adrienne Lowe. Miss Brooks and Miss May Kearney spent the week-end as guests of Mr. and Mrs. Williams in their suburban home in Larchmont, a pretty suburb of Norfolk. Mrs. Williams is expecting a visit from her mother and grandmother, Mrs. Russell Harrison and Mrs. Alvin Saunders, of Omaha, this month. They will stop in Washington for a short time enroute.

Washington is bristling with interest in the new cabinet. While there are several members in the list who are well known in Washington society, there are more who are not known at all. Society's first thought in these inauguration periods is for the women members of the incoming official families. What sort of women they are, are they wealthy, fond of society. Have they young people in the family and will they maintain an establishment here during their regime, or will they be content with hotel life. The new cabinet, as announced, promises well from a social standpoint. Mrs. Hughes, Mrs. Weeks, Mrs. Fall and Mrs. Hoover are well known. The other hostesses, Mrs. Daugherty, Mrs. Denby and Mrs. Wallace will come as strangers, although Mrs. Daugherty will not come at all, being almost a confirmed invalid. Mrs. Mellon has lived in New York, Palm Beach and her childhood's home in Hertfordshire, England, since her divorce from Mr. Mellon some years ago.

Omaha Chapter D. A. R.

Omaha Chapter D. A. R. will hold its regular chapter meeting with Mrs. Homer C. Stuntz, 3169 Farnam street, Tuesday, March 8, at 2:30 p. m.

A feature of the program will be an address by Rev. L. E. Townsend of the McCabe M. E. church entitled "The Flower of Our Land."

Musical program, in charge of Mrs. Charles G. McDonald, chairman, includes vocal numbers by Mrs. Timothy Dinan and piano solo by Mr. Richard Bender. Mr. Bender is a young Omaha musician, pupil of Mr. A. Borglum.

Miss Ethelda Bleibrey, whose sensational performances during the year stand out among the most spectacular accomplishments in the history of women's swimming, is an applicant for 11 marks from the National Amateur Athletic union.

Member of the New Cabinet Circle

Mrs. Herbert Hoover

Mrs. Herbert Clark Hoover, who takes her place in the new cabinet circle as the wife of the secretary of commerce in the Harding cabinet. During the world war Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Hoover had a home at 1701 Massachusetts avenue, Washington, and entertained frequently but quietly as Mrs. Hoover is opposed to social display. She did a great deal for the women employees of the food administration, aiding them to establish a club, and also entertaining numbers of them over

Here It Is The Perfect Lillibridge Oil Burner

For Furnaces and Boilers Use Type 38D.

This Is Our Proposition:

We will install at our expense a Lillibridge Oil Burner and will not disturb your present burner, and you can use this burner for 30 days, and if you are not satisfied we will remove same at our expense.

Safety and Efficiency Important Features

Facts Proven By Rigid Tests

- 1st—Type-38-D is in a class by itself.
- 2nd—Having been tested against the best burners was equal by none.
- 3rd—Produced from 20 to 40% more heat with equal amount of oil.
- 4th—Keeps a low fire three to eight hours longer on one gallon of oil.
- 5th—Gives more perfect control of high medium and low fire.
- 6th—Safer, the automatic safety shuts off the oil in case of overflowing.
- 7th—One to three hours less time required to make installation.
- 8th—A change from burning oil to coal or wood made in five minutes, and changed back in same length of time. Made a saving of one to three hours time over other types of burners.
- 9th—No removing grates or changing of furnace parts required where type 38-D is used.
- 10th—Saves enough oil over other burners to pay a good interest on your investment.

Let Type 38-D prove it in your furnace.
