

Servant Maids Of Pittsburgh Must Obey Rules

Housekeepers of City Organize and Put Homes on Pre-War Basis—Wages Cut, Hours Set.

Pittsburgh, March 5.—Maggie has got to mend her ways. She has forced a lot of self-made rules on the "missus" from time to time and got away with it, but now the "missus" has made a lot of new rules and Maggie has got to reform or get a new job—and if she gets smart about it, she is liable to be blacklisted by a lot of women in Pittsburgh.

At a recent meeting of the Housekeepers' club of Pittsburgh, at the Hotel Chatham, the members unanimously agreed upon the new rules and further agreed to enforce them rigidly.

Servants must be on the job at 8 o'clock sharp, and what is more, the domestic help must stick around till 5 o'clock in the afternoon.

After that time the wage is the stipend instead of $3.50, which has prevailed during war times and up to now.

Pay Their Carfare. And Maggie and Bridget and the rest of the help have got to pay their own carfare—three tickets for a quarter—and from work.

The laundry has got to be cleaned up by the woman in charge and these are some of the many new rules that the housekeepers have laid down for their servants by the day. A resolution providing for the changes was passed unanimously at the meeting. Mrs. J. C. Heckman, who presided, called for the vote.

Another thing that Maggie and the other servants are going to bump up against is the further furnishing of laundresses with fur coats. A strong protest against this performance was made at the meeting, and members agreed to induce their non-member friends to enforce the rule. Servants must provide their own coats in the future.

Band Together. Some time ago the housekeepers of Pittsburgh banded themselves against practices of their domestic help. The chief kicks then were that the washerwoman wandered into the laundry whenever they felt like it, demanded their breakfast "on the house," and insisted upon playing the victrola instead of the washing machine. Some of them wouldn't ride home in anything less than the family limousine. Not only that, but they ordered the car for 4 o'clock.

In order to curb the tyranny of the servants, the housekeepers created somewhat of a sensation among the help by announcing that they would hang up the wash themselves. Some did.

Times have changed from the war period. Work isn't as plentiful as it used to be and the domestics will have to forgo their haughty and domineering ways and demands for munition workers' wages.

Wife Might Put Up With Officer, But Not Private. Denver, Colo., March 5.—The day when the "buck" private shone in the eyes of the fair maiden apparently is on the wane, or long since passed into the historical group, if a recent occurrence at Denver is any indication of the state of affairs today.

Henry B. Taylor, a housekeeper, recently instituted a suit for divorce from his wife, Minnie, alleging that she had "put him out" when he enlisted in the army as a private.

"If you can't be an officer in the army, I don't want you around," is what Taylor alleges his better half had to say when he informed her of his intention.

"I could stand an officer around the house, but I don't need a plain man or a private," she concluded, according to Taylor's complaint.

And when Taylor returned from the offices of the local recruiting officer he found his trunk standing in the hall of his home all ready for removal.

Lincoln's Yarns Inspired Minister's Sermon-Dramas

Baptist Pastor Finds This Medium of Spreading the Gospel Effective.

REV. JOHN L. BARTON

Spreading the gospel of righteous living through the medium of sermon-dramas is the new idea brought into Omaha pulpits by the Rev. John L. Barton, pastor of the Immanuel Baptist church, Twenty-fourth and Pinkney streets.

The Rev. Mr. Barton started his new manner of delivering sermons in drama form seven years ago, while pastor of the First Baptist church at North Platte.

"I knew that the modern congregation must be entertained as well as instructed when it attended church. How to make a sermon entertaining but still keeping it dignified and instructive was the question.

"I remembered that Christ and Lincoln had taught through the medium of parables and stories. I thought of this idea, writing sermons in story form. Then the happy thought struck me, why not write a story, but instead of telling it, put it in action. Consequently I wrote 'The Man and the Church.' The little drama had three characters carrying a plot whose moral I wanted particularly to leave with my congregation.

Follows With Another. "I went to work on the play and the Sunday morning I was to give it I must confess I was quite nervous as to just how it would be received. I gave the play, taking the three parts and acted them. It must have been successful as my congregation did not walk out on me.

"I followed the first play with another more pretentious, 'The Modern Prodigal,' with six characters. This was a modernized version of the prodigal son. Then followed 'The Other Side of the Hill,' 'A Victim of Circumstances,' and then what I term my greatest effort, 'A Persecuted Church in a Polluted Land.'

"This play, with 10 characters, portrayed the persecution of the Christians during the time of Nero.

"This effort was very well received and has proven a favorite.

Not His Idea. The Rev. Mr. Barton is now reciting this drama-sermon and will make it one of his feature sermon-dramas.

"The idea of sermon-dramatizing does not originate with the Rev. Mr. Barton.

"Soon after I started doing this, I learned that the Rev. M. A. Kemp-ton, Cambridge, Mass., was doing the same thing. Recently I heard of the Rev. Mr. Barton's work and was glad to find that I was not alone in this line.

"I could stand an officer around the house, but I don't need a plain man or a private," she concluded, according to Taylor's complaint.

And when Taylor returned from the offices of the local recruiting officer he found his trunk standing in the hall of his home all ready for removal.

Spirits Are Going On Jags All Over World, Says Seer

Sit Alone and Relax and Your Spirit Will Go Jazzing Around, Frisco Medium Avers.

San Francisco, March 5.—What is a "spirit jag?" Although a spiritualist for 27 years, Mrs. C. T. Martin, 215 Shotwell street, says she does not know.

"Jags," to Mrs. Martin, means "something associated with jazz." "The spirit wave that is sweeping the nation's capital," says Mrs. Martin, "is not exactly a jag. I'd never thought of it in that way. It makes people forget their troubles, lifts them into halcyon realms, hasn't any bad effects, and it costs nothing. You simply drink your fill of spirit—with satisfying results.

"Washington, D. C., isn't the only city where the people are daily going on 'spirit jags,' you call them. San Franciscans live by it. This is the greatest spiritual center in the world. The spirit wave is sweeping every country. I have letters from China, Australia, Brazil, France—everywhere, and they are on the same line."

Society women in large numbers, ministers, educators, business men and all people who are seeking happiness and a solution of problems find their way to Mrs. Martin's door.

27 Years a Medium. She lives in a shabby, unpainted house in the Mission. She has lived in the same place for 35 years and for 27 years she has been a medium.

The gray-haired, gentle-faced little woman looks out at you from clear, psychic eyes.

"The formula given by Mrs. Jane B. Coats of Washington is correct," she says.

"Sit alone and relax. Put the feet flat on the floor. Then raise the hands over the head slowly, with palms upward. Give yourself completely up to it. In this way you can flood yourself with spirit and wash away all your cares.

"It is disgraceful to compare the effects with intoxication or drugging a spiritual bath is uplifting, lasting and produces powerful results. Some of the leading men and women of this city come to my humble home—I live like this because I am so interested in my work I haven't time for anything else.

Has Many Visitors. "As far as the soul leaving the body is concerned, many people right here in this city," continued Mrs. Martin, "go on adventures into the spirit world. The spirit steps out of the body and naturally it has a carefree, happy feeling, but I do not teach that. Through my psychic powers I simply try to help people solve their problems, and you can see for yourself there are many demands on my time."

Nabbed Belgian Uses Gun He Had in Wooden Leg. Paris, March 5.—Two Belgian youths arrested in Brussels recently were thoroughly searched before being put in charge of a policeman to be taken to jail.

Hardly out of the station, however, when one of them produced a gun out of apparently thin air and killed the policeman.

After eluding the police for some months the two were finally arrested in Paris, where Provost, the elder of the two, showed the police that he had a wooden leg.

In acutely contrived pocket near the knee was the revolver.

Wife Supported Family, Says Mate of Accident Victim. San Francisco, March 5.—C. L. Wilkinson loved his wife—she loved her so much that he valued her at $100,000.

This is the amount that the husband is asking of the United Railroads of San Francisco because his wife was killed by a train at a crossing. Wilkinson asserts in his suit that his wife was the chief support of his family and that he has suffered a financial loss of $100,000 because of her death.

ADVERTISMENT MOTHER! YOU HAVE ONLY ONE MOTHER— Today She May Be Weak and Nervous

Overwork, worry and the duties of Motherhood may have sapped the iron from her blood and robbed her of her bodily and mental vigor—HOW TO HELP HER.

IT WAS YOUR MOTHER WHO MADE THE FIRST SACRIFICE THAT YOU MIGHT LIVE. WHEN ALL OTHER FRIENDS TURN AWAY FROM YOU, YOUR MOTHER YET REMAINS. If you are ill, it is her tender hand that strokes your feverish brow. If financial disaster overtakes you and you lose your hard earnings of years and all others forsake you, THERE WILL STILL BE YOUR MOTHER with words of comfort and cheer, ready to offer any sacrifice that may help you.

TODAY MAY BE YOUR OPPORTUNITY TO HELP YOUR MOTHER

She may be suffering from iron starvation of the blood—THOUSANDS OF WOMEN SUFFER FROM THE GREAT DEVILIZING WEAKNESS AND NERVOUSNESS caused by iron starvation without ever suspecting the real cause of their trouble.

They think that they are weak and nervous because of age, worry or overwork or they think that their disturbed digestion, headaches, heart palpitation, shortness of breath, pains across the back, etc., are due to some serious disease, which is often not the case at all—their blood has simply thinned out and become pale, thin and watery and is starving for iron. This is proven by the fact that when many of these same women take organic iron for a while their alarming symptoms quickly disappear and they become strong, robust and healthy. You must have iron to enable your blood to change the food you eat into living cells and tissue. Without iron this change cannot be made and as a consequence, nothing you eat does you the proper amount of good—you do not get the full strength out of it. Women especially need iron more than men as their indoor life and the strain they are under, renders them more anemic.

It is astonishing how few very women after thirty years of age, have sufficient iron in their blood, and it is almost equally surprising how many girls are afflicted in the same way. Lack of iron not only brings on a devastating weakness but it makes a woman look old very quickly as it takes away the youthful freshness from her lips and cheeks and the sparkle and life from her eyes and even gives her face a haggard and "drawn" look.

IF YOU WISH TO RENDER YOUR MOTHER A REAL SERVICE, take her to a medical laboratory and have a "blood-count" made of her red blood corpuscles and see just how anemic she may be—even if you do not want to do this, insist that she eat more spinach and other iron containing vegetables and take organic iron with them for a month and see what a difference it makes.

Thousands of women have surprisingly increased their strength, energy and endurance in two weeks time by this simple exercise. But in making this test be sure that the iron you take is organic iron and not metallic take.

Organic iron is like the iron in your food and like the iron in spinach, lentils and apples, while metallic iron is iron just as it comes from the action of strong acids on small pieces of iron. Organic iron may be had from your druggist under the name of Nuxated Iron. Nuxated Iron represents organic iron in such a highly concentrated form that one dose is estimated to be approximately equivalent (in organic iron content) to eating half a quart of green vegetables.

It is like taking extract of beef instead of eating pounds of meat. Nuxated Iron also contains a remarkable product, brought to the attention of the French Academy of Medicine by the celebrated Dr. Robin, which represents the principal chemical constituent of the living nerve force, FOR FEEDING THE NERVES, so that NUXATED IRON may be said to be both a BLOOD and a NERVE FOOD.

Nuxated Iron comes in tablet form only. Look for the letters N. I. on every tablet.

Your money will be refunded by the manufacturer if your mother does not obtain perfectly satisfactory results.

Take a package of Nuxated Iron home to her tonight.

ADVERTISMENT Careless Shampooing Spoils the Hair

Soap should be used very carefully if you want to keep your hair looking its best. Most soaps and prepared shampoos contain too much alkali. This dries the scalp, makes the hair brittle and ruins it.

The best thing for steady use is Multisided coconut oil shampoo (which is pure and greaseless) and is better than anything else you can use.

One or two teaspoonful of Multisided will cleanse the hair and scalp thoroughly. Simply moisten the hair with water and rub it in. It makes an abundance of rich, creamy lather, which rinses out easily, removing every particle of dirt, dandruff and excessive oil. The hair dries quickly and evenly, and it leaves the scalp soft and the hair fine and silky, bright, lustrous, fluffy and easy to manage.

You can get Multisided coconut oil shampoo at any pharmacy, it's very cheap and a few ounces will supply every member of the family for months. Be sure your druggist gives you Multisided.

ADVERTISMENT BEAUTY SPECIALIST TELLS SECRET

A Beauty Specialist Gives Home-Made Recipe to Darken Gray Hair.

Mrs. M. D. Gillespie, a well-known beauty specialist of Kansas City, recently gave out the following statement regarding gray hair:

"Anyone can prepare a simple mixture at home that will darken gray hair, and make it soft and glossy. To a half-pint of water add 1 ounce of bay rum, a small box of Bar's Compound and 3/4 ounce of glycerine.

These ingredients can be purchased at any drug store at a very little cost. Apply to the hair twice a week until the desired shade is obtained. This will make a gray-haired person look twenty years younger. It does not color the scalp, is not sticky or greasy and does not rub off."

Jad Salts is inexpensive, harmless and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia. Here you have a pleasant, effervescent drink which usually makes pimples disappear, cleanses the blood and is excellent for the kidneys as well.
