

—© by Underwood & Underwood
MISS ROSALINE KONDALL of Louisville, Ky., and Chicago, in one of the most fascinating bathing suits seen at Palm Beach this season.

MRS. CLARE SHERIDAN, at left, cousin of Winston Churchill, has arrived in America safely from Russia, with a trunk-load of busts of the Bolshevist leaders. She is the first and only sculptress to obtain sittings from Lenin, Trotzky and the other leaders. Her son is also shown in the photograph. At the right are the busts of Lenin, Trotzky, Zinoviev and Deirynsky, left to right, beginning at the top.

—© by Underwood & Underwood
NOTED FOLK AT PALM BEACH—(Left to right) Mrs. Charles Cushing of Chicago, Mrs. Howard Linn of Chicago, Mrs. Stuart A. Stickney of St. Louis and Mrs. David N. Bigelow of Chicago.

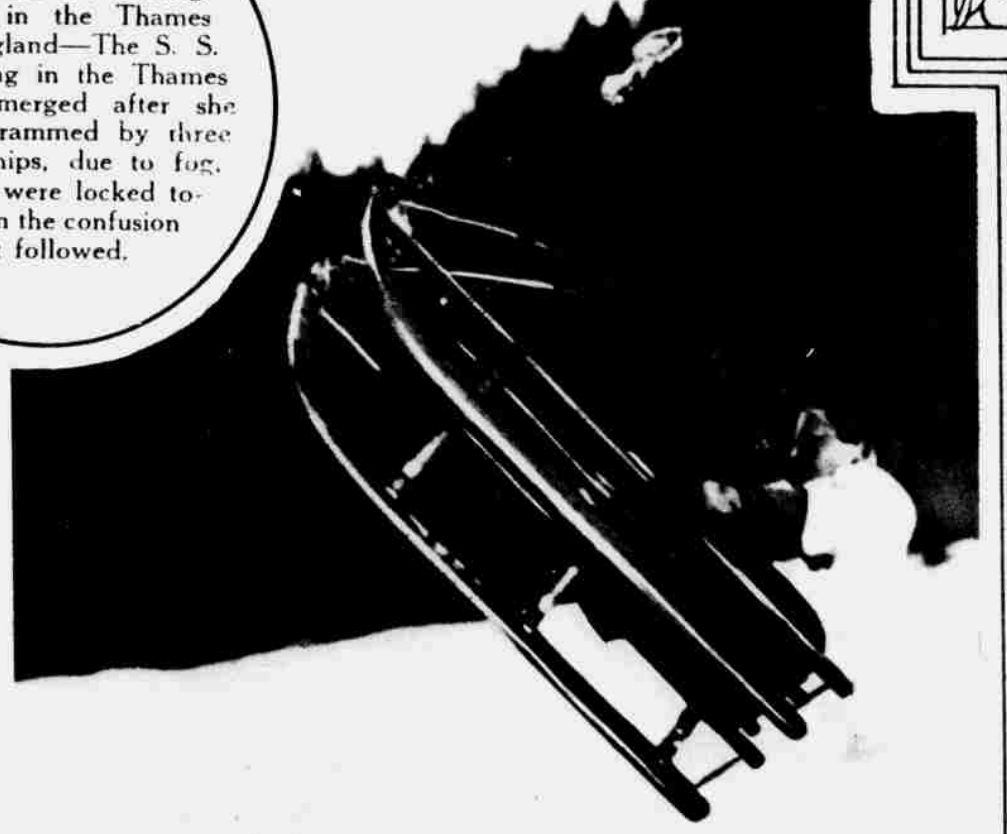

—Wide World Photo
MISS ASHLEY, granddaughter of Sir Ernest Cassel, noted European financier, enjoying a game of golf on the course at Mont Agel Unic, the most wonderful golf course laid out on a mountain top, forty minutes' climb by a motor. The photo shows Miss Ashley driving from the first green.

—© by Underwood & Underwood
MISS RACHAEL DIERKS of Kansas City and New York, at Palm Beach, where she is one of the most popular members of the younger set.

—© by Kodel & Herbert
SIX SHIPS WRECKED TOGETHER in Amazing collisions in the Thames River, England—The S. S. Horley lying in the Thames almost submerged after she had been rammed by three different ships, due to fog. Six ships were locked together in the confusion that followed.

—Wide World Photo
CAUGHT IN MID-AIR by the camera at Davos, Switzerland, at an angle which promises a perilous landing. It is just such thrills and spills as this which add to the joys of the sport.