Butcher Workmen Prepare

For Big Conference Here

of activity among members of the local union of the Amalgamated Meat Cutters and Butcher Workmen of America was noted following the Friday mass meeting at which it was announced proposed cuts in wages would be fought to the last

Committees and subcommittees were active Sunday preparing for the international conference of 200,-

Already is Turning Green

Paul Thiel of Cody, Neb., was a vistor at the stock yards yesterday, bringing in a shipment of cows. He said that the range in many places

"No cattle are being pastured, as there is a bountiful supply of hay at $3 a ton," Mr. Thiel said. "There is a shortage of cattle all over the

Ranchmen Ask Rounding Up of Wild Antelope

Herd, Believed Only one at Large in United States, Causing Trouble in Holt County.

O'Neill, Neb. March 7.—(Special.)
-A roundup of what is probably the only herd of wild antelope now at large in the United States may be theld in Holt county this spring by the state and federal game depart-ments, and the antelope removed to the federal game preserve at Val-

The herd, which is wintering in the hills and around the lakes of southern Holt county, about 20 miles below Atkinson, is the cause of much trouble to the ranchmen of that vicinity. Occasionally a lone member of the herd on a scouting tour will hop over a range fence and attempt to mingle with the range cattle, resulting in a stampede of the frightened cattle and broken fences. The antelope herd numbers 18 or 20 and is thought to be the last of the thousands of antelope which once roamed the prairies of Nebras-ka, Kansas and Colorado. Some ranchers are of the opinion that it strayed in from the Black Hills several years ago, others that it is but the natural increase of several pairs of antelope which escaped from the Valentine preserve, while many oldtimers insist that antelope never have been exterminated entirely in the sandhill regions and that this is but one of several herds reported as being seen in Survey valley in Cherry county last winter.

Ranchmen do not want the ante-Tope killed, and neither do they care to have their cattle stampeded, so the attention of the state and federal authorities probably will be called to the herd. Just how the antelope can be rounded up is a problem yet unsolved, as they are the fleetest of animals and easily jump a 12 or 15-foot barricade.

Saturday's highly favorable showing of the New York Reserve bank and the reserve system as a whole elicited no response in the money market, and none was expected. The burden which the reserve banks were carrying last season as their share in the deadlocked interior indebtedness incurred for account of unlucky borrowers at the high prices of a year ago, has been partly relieved by liquidation on the part of borrowers. But a good part of it has also been shifted back upon the shoulders of private banks, and that has meant a continuing drain on the New York institutions which hold accounts for southern and wester istitutions. Even with the reserve banks it is somewhat noteworthy that while the system's average reserve ratio is 8.14 per cent above this date last year, the percentage of the banks at Dallas, Atlanta and Minneapolis is lower than in 1920.

heavy receipts at Chicago. Unfavorable

New York Quotations

Chicago Tribune-Omaha Rec Leased Wire.

New York, March 7.—There was more disposition on the stock exchange today to observe the course of events of the London conference than had been during the preceding week. Such movement of prices as occurred was upward during the earlier hours, when dispatches forshadowing Germany's acceptance of the allied premiers' terms were circulated, and down-ward in the final hour of business when the press cables reported rejection of the terms and predicted an immediate advance by Marshal Foch into hitherto unoc-Marshal Foch into hitherto unoc-

Marshal Foch into hitherto unoccupied German territory. A number of the more active stocks rose 1 to 2 points during the general advance of the forenoon and declined 1 to 3 or 4 points in the later reaction, and this double movement affected both railway and industrial shares. But the resultant change in prices for the day was extremely irregular.

Although nearly all stocks closed below the day's highest, the closing prices showed almost as many net declines. Futhermore, business was again very light and one fourth of the total transactions were in half a dozen industrial shares.

Interest in Germany.

The market's closing left Wall street in a mood of unquestionably greater in-
