Fremont Politicans At Work Quietly in Campaign

Ertmont, Neb., March 10.—(Special.)—City election is approaching and politicians are silently making plans for strong campaigns. No candidates have been announced, although Mayor Guy Hinman will accept the nomination for re-election. Three parties, republican, democrat and independent voters league, expect to place candidates in the field. Dan V. Stephens, ex-congressman and president of the Fremont State bank, refused the nomination if offered under any circumstances. The republican caucuses are to be held March 15 and the convention on the 16th. The democrats will hold | their meetings on the same days. Others mentioned for the mayorship are John Hein, republican, and W.

Romance in Origin Of Superstitions

By H. I. KING.

Baby's Tooth. All oldtime nurses and mothers in the rural districts were very careful when a child lost its first milk tooth that the tooth should be burned in the fire; for if it were thrown away and a dog happened to get hold of it the child would have a "dog's tooth" grow in its place when the new teeth came. Inquiry reveals this superstition to still be surprisingly common -even among people who ought to know better. But its absurdity is conaled by its antiquity and our barparian ancestors regarded it as a perfeetly reasonable proposition. It works by "contagious magic"
