Sudden Drive for Ratification Of Treaty Sponsored by Petroleum Interests in the U. S. and Canada.

By ARTHUR SEARS HENNING. Chicago Tribune-Omaha Bee Leased Wire. Washington, March 14 .- A strong odor of crude petroleum emanates from the sudden drive for the ratification of the $25,006,000 Colombian treaty, in the opinion of Senator Borah and other senators who have been digging in the scheme. They are preparing to air their discoveries when the senate resumes consideration of the treaty in the forthcoming extra session of the 67th congress. They will show that powerful American oil companies, including the Standard Oil company and Sinclair, stand to benefit from any placation of Colombia resultng from the payment of $25,000,000 y the United States to the Southern American republic, which once mover to annul their oil consessions

"Some of the concessions," said Senator Borah," are absolutely contingent on the ratification of this treaty and the payment of $25,000,-000.
