Four House Bills Reported Out on General File— City Manager Bill is Released.

Lincoln, March 17.—(Special).—The senate spent its time today in clearing up its calendar on third reading by passing six senate bills and 10 house bills. This included the state of senate bills advanced in the committee of the whole.

Committees reported out four house bills for the general file, including H. R. 204, permitting mayors in cities of 5,000 to 25,000 to elect their managers, and H. R. 282, to prevent paid employees of fraternal societies from serving on governing boards.

The Lincoln consolidation bill, H. R. 411, to permit Lincoln to annex its suburbs as fast as they vote for amalgamation, was reported out without amendments.

The fees and salaries committee, by a vote of 3 to 2, changed the proposed salaries of secretaries of state board and the governor, and deputy state officers, from $2,500 to $2,750. The original bill called for $3,000 a year. The committee reported the bill out as amended.

House Kills Measure to Sell State School Land

Lincoln, March 17.—(Special Telegram).—The lower house killed the bill providing for the sale of 1,596,392 acres of state school lands now under lease by a vote of 53 to 32. Representative Snow in support of the bill stated that this land was leased at an average rental of 21 1/4 cents per acre per year.

"If this land were sold at an average of $15 an acre it would amount to $23,945,893," Snow said, "and interest on it at 5 per cent would amount to $1,197,294 a year. Under our lease system the state derives a revenue of only $675,806 a year."

Tuberculin Test Bill
Is Approved by House

Lincoln, March 17.—(Special).—The lower house in committee of the whole approved the new tuberculin test bill. It provides for state inspection of herds and is so drawn as to meet the government requirements which, if carried out, will insure federal money for death cattle in accredited herds equivalent to the money paid by the state.

The co-operative bank bill also received approval of the committee of the whole.

Omaha Charter Hearing
Delayed by Senate Action

Lincoln, March 17.—(Special).—Lack of speed in getting the Omaha charter bill through the senate on third reading will delay a hearing on the bill before the house committee on cities and towns until a week from Thursday, according to announcement tonight by Representative Drusedow, chairman.

Senate Approves Plan for State to Bond Officials

Lincoln, March 17.—(Special).—Senator Cronin's bill, S. F. 318, creating machinery for a state bonding department, whereby the state will insure all of its own officials, received the approval of the senate committee of the whole and has been advanced to third reading. There were only a few votes in opposition.

Industrial Commission
Bill Reported Out in House

Lincoln, March 17.—(Special Telegram).—The Epworth, creating a state industrial commission to settle labor disputes and fix prices when profiteering is proved, was reported out of the house judiciary committee tonight with a favorable recommendation.

Senate Votes to Postpone Bills Held by Committee

Lincoln, March 17.—(Special).—The senate followed the example of the house in deciding to postpone all bills in the hands of committees after March 23. The rule applies only to senate bills still remaining in the committee's hands.

Alleged Bread Bill Joker is Killed By Senate Without Fight

Lincoln, March 17.—(Special).—The alleged joker in the Smith standardized bread bill, which appeared in the form of an amendment permitting bakers to make three-quarter pound loaves, was killed by the senate.

The motion to kill was made by Senator Cronin of Holt, who led the fight to put the bill through the senate. The bill is now up for third reading again.

Senator Davis of Omaha, who injected the amendment to the bill, didn't object to the introduction of the Cronin motion to kill the amendment.

"I was surprised to learn how interested the people of Omaha are in this bill," Senator Davis said. "A letter from a number of labor unions convinced me there was interest in it and I understood politicians in the city election at Omaha are aligning themselves behind this bill to a certain extent."

Senator Davis also informed the senate he was not cognizant of the fact that Senator Cronin and other friends of the bill were not present when he introduced the amendment and did not hear the speakers say that it would be well to hold the amendment until the senators who fathered the bill were present.

Robertson Leads Fight For Waterway Project

Lincoln, March 17.—(Special).—Representative M. Robertson of Omaha, a member of the sifting committee, is insisting that S. F. No. 23, which memorializes congress to push the St. Lawrence waterway project, be placed before the lower house for consideration.

"If the members really want to take steps to get cheaper grain they should do everything in their power to push this waterway project, which will make an outlet for grain that will cut the freight rates down," Robertson said.

The bill, introduced by Senator Dutton, passed the senate. The St. Lawrence waterway project was endorsed by Governor McKelvie in his message to the legislature.

School Bond Bill Held Up in House For Legal Probe

Charge Made That Amend- ment Would Allow Issu- ance of $5,000,000 in Bonds Every 2 Years.

Lincoln, March 17.—(Special).—Omaha's bill, which would increase the interest on the $5,000,000 bond issue for the High School of Commerce, House Roll No. 104, was held up in the lower house of the legislature today to permit legal investigation into accusations made against an amendment added to the bill while in the senate.

The accusations were made by Representative Snow of Chadron, and charged that one of the amendments would permit the Omaha board of education to issue bonds not to exceed $5,000,000 every two years without submitting the proposition to a vote of the people.

Leap to Feet.

Another amendment, Snow charged, would permit the sale of the bonds below par—which he said would be a feast for bond sharks.

At this juncture, Representatives Harry Foster, Robert Drusedow and Robertson of Omaha leaped to their feet and asked to have the amendments held up until legal opinions could be secured to ascertain if Representative Snow's suspicions are true.

Representative Mellor of Lincoln made such a motion, but Speaker Anderson merely indicated to the house the measure should be delayed and examined.

Amendments Tacked On.

House Roll No. 104 was first introduced into the lower house by the Omaha delegation early in the session of the legislature. It was presented because no sale had been made for the school bonds and Omaha Board of Education asked an increased interest not to exceed 6 per cent be granted to expedite the sale.

The bill passed the house and was given to the senate for action. In the senate these amendments were tacked on and the bill was returned to the house for action on the amendments.

This bill was drawn by F. H.

Woodland, attorney for the Board of Education, with the advice of John P. Brecken, R. A. Van Orsdel, chairman of the judiciary committee of the school board, is looking after the interests of the bill.

Mr. Van Orsdel stated he will go to Lincoln tonight and will confer with Representative Snow and others of the house, expecting to straighten out the situation.

"Literally, it would be true that if the bill should be passed as amended by the educational committee of the senate, it would give the Omaha school board authority to sell $5,000,000 school district bonds every two years without submission to a vote of the people," said Mr. Brecken, "but that does not tell all of the story."

Little Progress Made in Senate On Primary Bill

Adjourn Until Monday When Discussion Will Be Re- sumed—Starts Non- partisan Row.

Lincoln, March 17.—(Special).—The senate tackled today the problem of amending the primary election law, but did not get very far in the discussion in committee of the whole.

Whether to modify it to permit political parties to make nominations for the primary election was the question embraced in S. F. 289, considered in the committee of the whole.

This bill, by Senators Brown and Harris, gives the parties opportunity to make one nomination for each state office, without interfering with the present law permitting the filing of a petition and by personal application.

Senator Headland, spokesman for the bill on the floor, argued that the present primary law is left undisturbed and provision is only made to allow the parties to draft a candidate and submit his name to the party voters for consideration, together with the self-submitted candidates.

No Action Taken on Napeone Request for Grain Service

Lincoln, March 17.—(Special).—Answering arguments raised by 275 petitioners of Napeone, who are demanding that fast trains stop there, because they stop at Riverton, Bloomington and Franklin, Superintendent Ed Flynn of the Burlington presented figures showing the aggregate ticket sales at Napeone for 1920 was only $4,262, as against $7,780 from Riverton, $11,250 from Bloomington and $23,577 from Franklin. He argues that the town is served amply by two local trains. The railway commission took no action.

Those companies whose valuation falls below this capital, surplus and undivided profits, are to be taxed 4 mills on the difference between the two figures. Under the amendment, the company pays this tax instead of the individual owner of the stock. The committee will make an ex-
