Keeping the Home Clean
Just now it is rather between seasons. The holidays have passed and the springtime is not yet quite with us. Can you imagine the far-reaching influence along health lines in every household in the entire country gave her home a thorough and severe cleaning right now?

The right way to clean a house is simple and time-saving. The wrong way of cleaning a house merely moves the dirt and dust from one part of the house to another, as dusting with a feather duster. A scrubbing pail and brush, a good broom, soap, clean water, and a good mop are all that are required to clean up a house. The right way to clean a house is simple and time-saving. It is not too often to open up the closet and remove everything it contains. Scrub it out thoroughly with soap and warm water. Let it dry and air thoroughly. Before putting back any of the contents, decide whether it is a usable article. In the case of clothing, if the garment can be repaired or remade, it deserves storage space. If not get rid of it. It is surprising how reckless many unthinking folks are about harboring germs and pests for use. Once a month go over the pots and pans. If you find bits of food sticking on to the pots, remove these by boiling in water to which has been added a little baking soda or washing soda. The washboiler will be found convenient for boiling pots and pans. Burnt-on food, harbors bacteria or germs which cause decay, and a few of these mixed into the next food cooked may cause illness. Garbage pails, sinks, toilets and cellars offer ideal places for breeding germs. A daily cleaning with boiling hot soapsuds will go a long way toward keeping them germless. A neglected pail should be filled with water to which soda has been added and boiled again and again until no garbage adheres. For a cheap, effective disinfectant sprinkle occasionally with chloride of lime. Germs cannot live in its presence. All dish cloths, cleaning cloths, mop and the like should not be put away full of grease and dirt. Each should be thoroughly cleaned with boiling water and soap and soda if necessary and dried in the fresh air before being stored away.

ONCE upon a time it might have been a wondrously lovely "dream hat," and it may become beautiful again if you'll take it up to the Kruger Hat Shop, 303 Barker block, Fifteenth and Farnam, where they reblock, refit and retrim hats to new effectiveness. They also remake furs and marabout and hemstitch the edges of countless frills.

Those Well-Versed in Stylish Declaration Show a Decided Interest in Straight Lines.

SUCH slenderized gracefulness will the stout woman enjoy if she lets Dorothy Hill, the corset specialist, second floor, Nevill, Lock, Sixteenth at Harney, lay the foundation for Easter frocks and suits!

A new angora sports sweater-cape is striped in fetching fashion, bronze and white stripes a contrast to the Roman striped neck scarf and pocket banding.

Original Designing Characterizes the Work of the Clever Modiste.

LULU Hampton, modiste, 336 Securities building, Sixteenth and Farnam, is responsible for a chic little navy and gray three-piece suit. Navy blue is the skirt, the scalloped lined back with gray Canton crepe. Gray is the little blouse, the wide sash which extends below the hem ending in blue and gray ribbon-braid fringe. Gray and navy embroidery adorn the coat. Smart is it not?

Gray is favored for street and indoor wear.

A Burst of Brilliant Coloring Characterizes the Spring Garments.

NOWHERE more apparent are the brilliant colors of spring styles 1921 than in the work rooms of the Ideal Button & Pleating company, third floor Brown block, Sixteenth and Douglas. A Russian peasant suggestion in a blouse of heavy silk crepe with round neckline, yoke sleeves and front panels, bandings of contrasting shades were being solidly embroidered in pepper green, tomato red, dandelion yellow and generous splashes of gold and silver, unique is it not?

This great button, brodering and pleating company is doing the most fascinating kinds of things at this time of the year. Molding hundreds of thousands of buttons for frocks in many states; pleating, fascinating negligees for the first days of sultry spring weather; weaving intricate traceries for the embellishment of formal evening gowns; frilly bits of frivolity (wide picoté and fringed sashes, etc.) for school girls; dashing smart street tailcoats for the trim person demurely pleated, decorated in tailored arrows, or well-pressed flat braiddings and embroideries.

They will be glad to send you one of their catalogs upon request.

Smart little turbans are hung with tassels.

Let's Go Shopping with Polly

Seeing, it is a gladdening thing:
White birds against a morning sky.
Blowing poppies, nodding grasses.
Light that grows and fades and passes,
Young-leaved poplars shining high.
And God be thanked that gave us hearing
For children's laughter, sweet and bold,
For winds that whisper old hills round,

For every intimate sweet sound
The quiet golden evenings hold.
But oh, 'tis scent that makes immortal
The little lives of mortal men!
Roses with haunting sweetness riven,
Increase, to lift men's hearts to heaven,
Lilacs, to draw them home again.

Spring Housecleaning Up-to-date
Has Lost Its Terrors.
SINCE Mrs. Housewife, 1921 fashion, has learned the value of owning a Hoover Suction Sweeper. The Nebraska Power company, Fifteenth and Farnam, will gladly send one of their demonstrators to your home with one of these sweepers which you may make your own for $15 down and $5 a month. The sweeper lifts the rug from the floor, gently beats and cleans it at the same time, leaving absolutely no dust in the air, bringing new health and happiness to the home. You'll marvel at the efficiency of this wonder cleaner!

If One Waits Until Vacation Time
FOR the selection of leather luggage one is apt to feel that something cheap will have to "do," but it won't, I assure you. The best is none too good for the rough-tumble wear your bags are going to receive during the trip. Nothing is more troublesome than for the handle to come off a cheaply made little bag, or the locks to break or refuse to fasten on a poorly mounted case.

The Omaha Trunking company, Thirtieth and Farnam, are having a one-third sale on all of their high-class luggage now, a good time to buy before the expenses attendant on a trip. Luggage offered at the prices quoted on much more ordinary pieces elsewhere. Particularly wide is the selection offered; graceful lines of suitcases varying but slightly in size and shape. Gladstone bags in a variety of sizes, those great roomy bags of unusual convenience; collapsible English kit bags, great double stitching and reinforced corners. The women of the family will find truly delightful the fitted bags, ideal gift offerings for the June bride or sweet and graduate. Make your selection now at the special one-third off pricing, delivery to be made when you wish. Heavy thermos bottle containers, picnic hampers, perfectly appointed, Boston bags, reasonably priced, infinitely convenient on all kinds of occasions, substantial brief cases for the professional man, music holders, rolls and bags for the musician.

The batik blouse is having a successful vogue.

Casement Curtains of Natural Tinted Silk Draw Over Themselves Side Drapes of Brocade Damask
WHEN the shades of night begin to fall. An altogether fascinating new window treatment is offered on the main floor of the H. R. Brown Furniture company in the drapery department, Sixteenth and Howard. Hung on ivory rings by wittily arranged little pleatings are the casement curtains of natural tinted silks, dull gold or pongee rings which are operated by transverse cords which hang at the side of the windows. Over these delicate sheer curtains are hung by the same cord arrangement, heavy night curtains of brocade damask bound round the edges by gold threaded braid, these to be drawn closely for evening privacy. It is suggested by the clever decorators of this department that one might use soft taffeta in one's bedroom, the same fabric repeated in one of the new bedspreads, heavy tasseled, which they make up for milady's boudoir. You'll find a splendid workroom at your service in connection with this decorating department where for small sums they will redecorate your home or apartment, make new lace shades, reupholster your wicker or rare wood furniture. Visitors are cordially welcomed, suggestions as to decorative problems generously offered.

Spring Corseting.
THE silhouette in vogue for spring continues to be slender with low bust and long hips, lines to be attained only by careful corseting. Mrs. L. E. Wilson, 2168 J. South Side, is an experienced fitter for the Barclay corsets, the well-known flexibly boned corsets. Phone South 2042 for a fitting demonstration in your home.

Ribbon and braid hats will be seen in March.

Sunny Easter Greetings, Quaintly Original Card Conceptions.
THE Brandeis stationery department, main floor, have a most delightful showing of Easter cards. Whimsically sketched and tinted little "jollies," a dainty little glorie with watercolor, can would love to keep alive the flowers of happiness in your heart, ducks, bunnies and hats, all find a place of importance in the designing of these cards, hats with really decorative bits of feather and ribbon on them. Then there are those exquisitely wrought landscape and flower cards, hand-tinted in delicate shades. Fragrant sachet envelopes, each with hand-lettered verse, the envelope in separate boxes, greeting offerings ranging in price from 5 cents to 75 cents. In this same department are Rosary beads at 69 cents, in red, amethyst, blue, green and white, this price including a copy of "The Way of the Cross." A department to fill every Easter gift need.

EASTER FASHION NOTES.
Coat dresses continue to be worn. Double-faced ribbon is used for girdles.

Many frocks feature the normal waistline.
Fabrics such as faille silk, crepe de chine and canton crepe predominate in the early showing of millinery.
Long sleeves are bell-shaped at the hand.
Round necks are finished with tiny ruffles.
Cired satin is a favored fabric for spring.
The slip-over dress is a favorite this spring.

New dotted Swisses in coral, jade, bronze and blue offer fascinating possibilities in summer frockings. Specially when the very next window is filled with hand-wrought laces.

With spring holding the center of the stage, one must, of course, have a bit to match each new costume and each occasion.

A compliment true as gold is the gift of artistic book ends. To know that one reads and loves books as friends and appreciates art as well, is to know what is best in a personality worth knowing.
