Nebraska Will Stage Big High School Meet

First Annual Pentathlon for State Athletes Scheduled For Week of April 23 To May 1.

Lincoln, Neb., March 25.—(Special.)—Nebraska's first annual pentathlon meet for high school athletes will be held during the week of April 23 to May 1. The affair will be a selective interscholastic meet in which all accredited high schools in the state may compete.

The records of only four men will be sent in. Records will be compiled and medals awarded to the 10 highest men. A banner will be given to the high school which shows the best team of four men.

Allowed Four Men.
The events in the 1921 pentathlon by groups are: first group, running high jump, running broad jump, pole vault; second group, 12-pound shot, discus; third group, 220-yard dash, 880-yard run, 120-yard high hurdles. Each athlete must compete in at least one event in each group and a total of five events to be eligible for the state competition.

To Keep Complete Record.
A complete report of the meet will be mailed to each high school participating, before May 7. Medals for the winners will be enclosed at this time. The winner will receive a medal having the following inscription: "All-around Nebraska interscholastic champion, 1921." The winners of second prizes will receive bronze medals.

Wrestle to Draw
Kensington, Kan., March 25.—(Special Telegram.)—Owen Daley of Minden, Neb., claimant of the welterweight championship, and "Bill" Chance of this city, wrestled two hours and 20 minutes to a draw here last night in one of the best matches ever staged here. The local grappler proved to local fans that he is making great strides toward the top of the ladder.

Geneva High School Completes Grid Card
Geneva, Neb., March 26.—(Special.)—Geneva High school announces the following foot ball schedule for 1921:

Shenandoah High School Defeats Tabor Quintet
Shenandoah, Ia., March 26.—(Special.)—Shenandoah High closed its basket ball season by getting revenge on Tabor, Ia. The score was 38 to 20 in favor of Shenandoah. McFarland and Captain Martin, who played the last 10 minutes of the game, were the stars of the contest.

Omaha Batter Wins K. O. In Two Rounds in Chicago
Chicago, Ill., March 25.—(Special.)—Moris Schlaifer, Omaha batter, knocked out "Kid" Carlson here last night in two rounds. Schlaifer, with his manager, Ike Bernstein, will arrive in Omaha Sunday morning.

JUST the BEST of SPORTS

AL PLATTE and "Billy" Lee, last season's garden performers for the Omaha club, joined the team yesterday at the Fort Smith, (Ark.) training camp and when these two veterans donned their uniforms the stock of the local club took a jump.

With Platte and Lee in the fold and such fielders as "Pug" Griffin and Hazen to complete the outfield, it is wondered the stock in the Omaha club's pennant race jumped. Griffin, Lee, Hazen and Platte swing a wicked bat and when it comes to grabbing the apples out in the garden we doubt if any other club in the Western circuit can boast of an outfield any better than this tribe of Buffaloes who will take care of the outfield for Manager Leivelt.

Manager Leivelt will cover first—that's already decided upon. "Whit" Gislason will be seen again this summer protecting the second bag and with the scrappy little Gislason tagging 'em at second, Owners Burch and Finn have a play to be proud of.

Day's Claire, who was purchased outright from Ty Cobb of Detroit, will play short. The Tiger boss informed Secretary Finn when the sale was completed that Claire was one of the most promising of all young talent the Detroit Americans were able to sign up at the close of the 1920 season.

Fred Haney, who held down the third sack last season, has as yet failed to make an appearance at the camp of the Buffaloes. Whether Haney reports or not, Manager Leivelt has a bird by the name of Clayton who seems to handle himself well around the third bag.

Up to last night not more than a dozen contracts were filed. These were filed by several of the managers in the City, Class A league.

Teams of the Commercial, Class A league, Greater Omaha and Church, Class B leagues, will start their spring training Saturday afternoon, if weather conditions permit, and Sunday afternoon several practice games will be played by the teams of the City, American and Gate City leagues.

More Truth Than Poetry

THE POINT OF VIEW.
An optimist and pessimist Strolled 'neath the balmy sky; 'Tis spring," observed the optimist, "The robins homeward fly."
"My wife," replied the pessimist, "Is making rhubarb pie."
"Spring flowers," said the optimist, "Of red and gold and blue, The soil the gentle sun has warmed Will soon be sprouting through."
"Yes, yes," replied the pessimist, "And poison ivy, too!"
"The rabbits," said the optimist, "Are leaping in the glen. Last night, beside my door I heard The warbling of a wren."
"The flies," remarked the pessimist, "Are swarming 'round again."
"The boys," announced the optimist, "Continuing the chat, 'Till dusk are gathered in the streets."
"My wife," returned the pessimist, "Will want a new spring hat."

Managers Slow Filing Players' Contracts in Amateur Association

Although it is a well-known fact that the managers of practically every team in the various leagues of the Amateur Base Ball association have signed at least a dozen players, the managers are slow in filing their players' contracts with Secretary J. J. Isaacson.

Up to last night not more than a dozen contracts were filed. These were filed by several of the managers in the City, Class A league.

Teams of the Commercial, Class A league, Greater Omaha and Church, Class B leagues, will start their spring training Saturday afternoon, if weather conditions permit, and Sunday afternoon several practice games will be played by the teams of the City, American and Gate City leagues.

Red Sox Will Be Under A Dual Management

Boston, Mass., March 25.—The Boston American league base ball club will be under a dual management this year, with the whole team acting as a supplemental board of strategy.

Hughie Duffy, the manager in name, in a statement made at the spring camp at Hot Springs, published today, said that he and Jimmy Burke, the coach, would share the management in fact. Burke was manager of the St. Louis Browns last year.

"We are veterans of the game and neither of us seeks any individual glory. All we want to do is win ball games. That will be glory enough," Duffy said.

Former Senator Of Kansas Scores Governor Allen

Salina, Kan., March 25.—"Would you go to hell to prosecute an imp, with satan presiding on the bench?" Such was the interrogative made in an address here last night by Former United States Senator Burton, who was forced to leave Barton county recently by opponents of the Nonpartisan league who also tarred two other men who had appeared with Burton at meetings.

The address was a reply to Attorney General Hopkins' statements that Burton and the others should return to Barton county if they wanted prosecution of their assaults.

He declared that the attorney general, the judge of the Barton county district and the county attorney there had all the evidence they needed and charged that they endeavored to force him to go back to Barton county into hostile territory.

"For" he said, "Governor Allen is a mob governor. Richard Hopkins is a mob attorney, general and Judge D. A. Banta, of Barton county, is a mob judge."

Mr. Burton reiterated his former charge that the leader of the Barton county mob conferred with Judge Banta and Sheriff Sam Hill on the Saturday afternoon prior to the trouble and that they knew his identity.
