

What Will Women Do, Is Question

Filings in City Race Indicate That Fair Sex Interested, But Not Anxious to Hold Office.

Campaign On In Earnest

What are the women going to do in this city campaign, the first in which they will have participated as voters? This is a question which is frequently heard by the political eavesdropper, as he fits his ear and thither in quest of public sentiment.

Only two women have filed for nominations on April 5, which some observers believe is conclusive evidence that the rank and file of women are not eager to hold public office, but are intensely interested in the kind of men who shall be entrusted with the responsibility of directing the municipal affairs for the next three years.

Women Take Interest. Any way, the women are beginning to look up the "Who's Who," of the candidates whose names will appear on the primary ballots a week from Tuesday.

Open Opposition Seen. Mr. Dahlman asserts that he expects his candidacy will be contested, and he even understands that there is an organized effort to nominate and elect a group of candidates who are not in sympathy with his views of city government.

Situation In Mexico Surveyed

Secretary of State Hughes Preparing Reports Looking To Recognition by U. S. Government.

Fall Recommends Terms

By ARTHUR SEARS HENNING. Chicago Tribune-Omaha Bee Leased Wire. Washington, March 26.—The Harding administration, it developed today, has begun a survey of the Mexican situation, with a view to formulating the terms on which recognition will be accorded to the Obregon government. Secretary of State Hughes is preparing a number of special reports on conditions in Mexico, and the attitude of President Obregon in regard to co-operation with the United States, settlement of American claims and guaranty of American property right, and is expected to lay his conclusions before the president at an early date.

Terms Urged by Fall

The secretary of the interior is of the opinion that the administration should take as the basis of a settlement with Mexico, the terms proposed by the senate investigating committee of which he was chairman. These terms are: 1. That an agreement should be reached for the appointment of a commission to ascertain the damage, if any, done to Americans or to American property in Mexico, and to Mexican or Mexican property in the United States.
