New Faces In Buffalo Lineup This Season

Claire, Clayton and Griffin Among Late Additions to Omaha Club's 1920 Roster.

Fort Smith, Ark., March 26 .- (Special.)-When Jack Lelivelt and his Omaha club starts into the Western league pennant chase next month, base ball fans around the circuit are day w'en 'e 'nnounced 'e's gonna try going to find several new faces in the lineup they are unacquainted the lineup they are unacquainted the lineup they are unacquainted with, and too, they will find several new players in Omaha suits who will

At second base little Gislilason will again be on the job. He is perfectly able to uphold his part of the infield, both in fielding and hitting. "Gis" has been hitting hard during the exbition games here and hopes to inrease his average over last summer's Claire at Short.

A stranger will be found in little Dave Claire, who comes to the club from Detroit. Dave hit over .300 with Ludington in the Mich-Ontario league last season and stung the ball hard while with the Tigers, but Cobb figured a season in the minors would fix him up "jake" for the big league campaign. Dave covers lots of ground and is a dandy little hitter. Also a popular boy.

Over at third base another stranger in Schley Clayton will be seen in action. Clayton hasn't set the world afire with his hitting yet, but more than makes up for it by his flashy, reliable fielding. The youngster dashes to either side and gets the sphere away while in the air. He is sure of bunts and death faces all trying to bunt his direction. Nice little fielder but rather weak with the stick. Lelivelt has been working on his batting position and may work wonders with the Kid at that before the season gets well along.

In the outfield the Buffalo herd will be stronger than it was last summer through the addition of "Pug" Griffin, the hard slugging center fielder who are stronger fielder fielder fielder fielder fielder f ter fielder who was secured from the Southern league. Lingle is a regular from last season. Ryan and Brown, both with Omaha a while in 1920, were sccured from Huron last summer and although they have shown good signs of improvement it is barely possible they will be retained.

Need Good Pitchers.

In the pitching staff things are far from being good as they should be. Kopp and Ragan are the only two egulars from last season's camp, if one doesn't consider Manaske a regular. These three, however, are sure of their jobs at this date, leaving the army of bushers and rookies to fight it out amongst themselves At present the Omaha management is dickering for pitchers from both Detroit and Chicago Cubs, but what luck will result isn't known this ear-"Hub" Glaser and Harry Baumgartner are the only two youngsters camp who look like they might develop into winning pitchers this season. Both have had experience and look ready for steady jobs.

Four Pennant Winners

New York.-Eight managers have but 'ere write this back t' 'im: won four or more pennants in the major circuits. Anson boasted of five and Comiskey four as a paying leader and one as a benchman with the White Sox in 1900. Selee landed five, Hanlon five, Clarke four, Mack six, McGraw six and Chance four. Mc-Graw wants to land another pennant so as to head the list, and also to win another world's series, which he hasn't done since 1905.
