

Lord Talbot to Follow French in British Cabinet

Field Marshal Gives Up Place As Governor General of Ireland—Other Changes Made.

By The Associated Press.
London, April 2.—Field Marshal Viscount French of Ypres will be succeeded as lord lieutenant and governor general of Ireland by Lord Edmund Bernard Talbot, who has held the post of joint parliamentary secretary for the treasury.

Sir Robert S. Horne, president of the board of trade, has been appointed chancellor of the exchequer in succession to J. Austin Chamberlain. Stanley Baldwin, parliamentary secretary to the treasury, will become the new president of the board of trade.

Viscount French was appointed lord lieutenant of Ireland in 1918. At the outbreak of the world war he was in command of the British forces in France and Flanders, a position he held until he was relieved by Field Marshal Sir Douglas Haig in December, 1915. One of his greatest achievements was the famous "Battle of Ypres," the winning of which barred the channel ports from a German invasion and saved England from invasion.

The appointment of Lord Edmund was due to the necessity under the same rule act of appointing a civilian vicerey.

Wanderer Drilling "Awkward Squad" in "Murderers' Row"

Chicago Tribune—Omaha Bee Local Wire.
Chicago, April 1.—Seven men condemned to hang for murder are being drilled daily in "murderers' row" at the county jail by Carl Wanderer, triple murderer, the date of whose execution has not yet been set.

Wanderer, who was formerly a lieutenant in the expeditionary army, grew tired of the monotony in jail and asked permission to drill the inmates of the "bull pen" in military formation. This request was granted and the squad appears daily with broomsticks for arms.

The personnel of Wanderer's "army" includes Gene Geary, murderer of three men, the date of whose execution remains to be set; Harry E. Ward, sentenced to hang April 22; Sam Cardinella, Sam Ferrar, Joe Costanzo and Antonio Lopez, members of the notorious Carlinella murder gang, who are sentenced to hang April 15.

The gunmen take readily to the military training. Wanderer strides auntily at the side of his straggling squad, his voice echoing from court floor to the roof as he bawls and nurses his recruits. They have taken to private practice of the manual of arms in their cells.

Passion Play to Be Enacted at Oberammergau in 1922

Oberammergau, Bavaria, April 2.—The village elders of Oberammergau voted to enact the Passion play in 1922. The last presentation was given in 1910.

The peasants who portray the sufferings and death of Jesus Christ in fulfillment of a vow made in 1634 to present the Passion play every 10 years as an expression of gratitude or having been spared from a plague, were unable to enact it in 1920, because of unsettled conditions and the havoc which the war wrought among the performers and musicians.

Woman Is Assaulted as She Leaves Rooming House Door

As she came downstairs from her apartment at 906 North Sixteenth Street Friday night Jessie Neal was assaulted by a strange man at the door, she told police, when surgeons attended her fractured nose and lacerations of the face. Jessie said she could not give police a description of her attacker.

Pup Perishes Seeking Little Girl in Fire

An explosion of a tank of gasoline during a fire of undetermined origin yesterday afternoon at 3 wrecked the Hamilton street garage, Fortieth and Hamilton streets, and caused damages of $75,000, partially covered by insurance.

Elmer Croft, mechanic, 3825 Charles street, and Joe Stuhldrier, 4031 Lafayette street, were severely burned. The families of Jack Gilpatrick, Police Officer Earl Sherwood, and C. C. Emory, living in apartments above the garage, were rendered homeless.

Burning brands flying in the high wind threatened the homes next door of L. F. Eden, 3874 Hamilton street, and David E. Clark, 1403 North Fortieth street. Six automobiles were totally destroyed by the flames. The garage is operated by Jack Gilpatrick and Lawrence Friis. The building is owned by Peter Skriver.

Russell Snygg, grocer across the street, and Gilpatrick aided the women of the three families upstairs to escape. Gilpatrick donned his army gas mask of wartime as he aided the firemen in the dense smoke.

"Jiggs," pet bull pup of the Sherwood family, rushed to safety from the fire, but returned later, believed to be seeking his little mistress, the daughter of Sherwood, and perished in the flames.

Croft was working underneath a car in the garage when a bucket of gasoline nearby suddenly burst into flames. He seized it and ran toward the street.

Pedestrians, led by John Popish, 314 Woolworth avenue, who was at work grinding valves in the garage and saw Croft flee, smothered the flames on the two burning men. Both were taken to the Methodist hospital, where their burns were treated. Croft was later discharged from the hospital. Stuhldrier suffered severe burns of the legs and arms and body. Gilpatrick summoned the fire department and police.

Chicago Tenants On Rent Strike

Scores of Flat Dwellers Refuse to Move or Pay Increased Rates.

Chicago, April 2.—Scores of tenants Friday inaugurated the "strike" against landlords by refusing to move. Their leases expired Thursday, but they held the fort and locked out the landlord and the prospective new tenants who were willing to pay the rentals.

Briday's action is simply a forerunner of a gigantic tenants' strike scheduled for May 1, when practically all the leases expire. Recent legal decisions have had it that it is lawful for the tenants to expose in their windows placards telling the world how much their rent has been raised and announcing their intention of staying right there. The new move undoubtedly has the landlords guessing. So far they have made no move toward evicting the present tenants. The tenants are banded together in a compact fighting force, all for one and one for all, with abundant funds to fight their case and they also have the support of the press, of public opinion, the courts and the legislature, so the landlords are facing a serious problem. Attempts to evict a tenant would bring down the wrath of the entire Tenants Protective league.

The courts are still clogged with eviction cases dragging over from last fall and if a new war is started many additional judges will have to be assigned to care for fresh cases.

Of Belgian invention is a rifle which shoots seven bullets at once through parallel barrels.

Parents Must Lose Kiddies or Boarder

If Probable Juvenile Court Order Carried Out Against Couple Having Roomer.

Boarder or children, which? Mr. and Mrs. Stanley Zorak, 3926 South Thirty-fifth street, may have to choose, say juvenile court officers. One Bednarz, three times arrested for bootlegging and possession of stolen property, is the boarder.

Irene and Edward, 5 and 3, are the children. Neighbors charge Bednarz is an "improper person" to be in the same house with the children. The Zoraks maintain that he is a perfectly good boarder. They told Mrs. Alice Hopkins, the juvenile officer, they will build a nine-foot wall between their house and that of Mr. and Mrs. Tom Widener, so the Widener's can't see what's going on in their house. The case was set for juvenile court yesterday. A number of witnesses were present but the Zoraks did not appear. The sheriff will be asked to produce them in court next Saturday. ### Ray J. Madden

For Commissioner Club

Neither affiliated nor connected with any factional or political group, Judge Madden stands on his record as Police Judge of this city from the year 1916 until he resigned and entered the service of his country. This record demonstrates that he stands for law and order without fanatical invasion of private rights and for impartial recognition of the rights of all, irrespective of class.

We believe that the recent increases in taxation have been brought about by extravagant expenditure of public funds in our city. Our candidate stands for economy and efficiency in the administration of civic affairs, and his special knowledge of taxation matters, with his proven executive ability and sound judgment, will enable him to give us a conservative as well as progressive administration.

A vote for Madden is a vote for good government.

What Do You Suppose Red Could Have Done?

Tom "Red" Crawford, patrolman, was suspended from the police department yesterday.

Commissioner Ringer—"He violated one of the rules of the police department. The chief has all the information."

Chief Eberstein—"He was suspended for the good of the service. I am making a careful inquiry into his actions."

Inspector Pattullo—"He was suspended for conduct unbecoming an officer."

Ringer and Eberstein denied knowledge of a report that Crawford has been working against Ringer in the city campaign.

Angry Spouse Appears Not, So Court Keeps 15 Koeps

"Oh, yes, I'll be down early in the morning to appear against him."

So quoth the spouse of one Jack Wilson, painter, 5220 South Twenty-fourth street, late Friday night, according to police.

Said spouse had summoned the police with the report hubby had rolled into home with a large cargo on a heavy sea and forthwith began to beat his mate without provocation.

So Jack went down to South Side station. But they let him out on $15 cash bond.

Yesterday morning, neither hubby nor friend wife showed up, and all the court had to show for the little entertainment of the evening before was the cash bond. They kept it.

Autoist Wrecks Car, Suffers Hurts in Avoiding Hitting Dog

To avoid hitting a dog which ran in front of his automobile at Twenty-seventh and California streets, M. Teplitsky, 702 North Twenty-seventh street, swerved his car to the side and it crashed into a tree.

Teplitsky was picked up by P. L. Monical, who took him to Central police station, where police surgeons dressed his bruised chest and nose and took him home. The car was wrecked.

Price of Diamonds Drops to $25 a Carat in Southern Africa

Chicago Tribune—Omaha Bee Foreign News Service.
Johannesburg, April 2.—The great diamond slump has brought in its train appalling conditions in the western Transvaal, where starvation is rampant.

Moneyless diggers are unable to purchase goods. Stones formerly worth $150 a carat are gladly sold for $25. Tiny stones are being "swapped" for a bucket of corn or meal.

Some of the diamond diggings are deserted, since the inhabitants have gone to the towns, where they are overcrowding the slums.

The Omaha Bee

THE PAPER FOR ALL THE PEOPLE

Square Deal To Everybody

To the Voters of Omaha:
Without egotism I think I can say I owe it to my fellow citizens to offer my services as a City Commissioner. They have honored me with municipal and county offices for a good many years and in my efforts to serve them the details of city government have come to be almost routine in their familiarity. By their oft expressed confidence my fellow citizens have made this possible, and I owe it to them to avail themselves of such knowledge and experience, as they have enabled me to acquire. The powers, duties, responsibilities and methods of the various city officials are all matters of intimate knowledge to me and if I can serve you and make your city government more efficient, more harmonious, I am at your service and I will appreciate your vote.

I represent no faction, no group, no slate and no private interest. I am unpledged save that I am pledged to the promotion of the public welfare and a square deal to everybody. I deeply enjoy the work, and sincerely appreciate the honor. If chosen will regard it as a call to honest service for the good of all.

Thomas Hactor

W. J. HISLOP

For City Commissioner

Was Endorsed by the NORTH SIDE CLUB

I am taking this way of telling my friends and taxpayers that I am not only for the North Side of this city, but for the whole city—a bigger, better and cleaner city with less taxes.

It is needless to tell you about my qualifications or ability to fill that important office. Anyone in doubt of that can find out by asking the officers of the McCague Investment company, with whom I have worked for over thirty years as Building Superintendent and, if elected, I will work as faithfully for the taxpayers of this city as I have for that company.

I have made no political pledges to anyone and if elected will assume the office and discharge the duties without fear or favor of anyone. I am taking this way to let the public know that I am in the field for the office and ask for their support, as it will be impossible for me to see everybody personally.

Respectfully,
W. J. HISLOP.

Law and Order Candidate

Opposed to return of old Third ward gang to control of city.

Favors city employing idle men of Omaha by immediate public improvements.

Favors city establishing community centers to entertain and teach ideals of Government.

Favors establishing more branch libraries in Omaha.

I would enjoy the opportunity to help the fathers, mothers and school teachers to encourage the children of Omaha to more fully appreciate their parents and teachers. I call the attention of the voters of Omaha to my record as District Judge, especially my work among the children during the ten years I served on the bench.

ABRAHAM L. SUTTON

Shall Omaha go forward or turn back to the old Third ward rule? I have an abiding faith the women voters will join the men to keep Omaha from being turned back to the old Third ward gang.

Another man by the name of Sutton is also a candidate and if you wish to vote for me, place a cross after the name of Abraham L. Sutton.
