

Briand Pledges Firm Hand Will Enforce Treaty

Senator Jouvanel Says United States and France Agree On Future of Russia.

By HENRY WALES.
Paris, April 6.—In the most solemn tone Premier Briand last evening in the French senate pledged himself to apply the strictest coercion upon Germany after May 1 unless the Teutons had satisfied the treaty provisions concerning disarmament, punishment of the war guilty and reparations. With outstretched hand, as if he were taking an oath, M. Briand stated: "Unless Germany gives satisfaction on these three counts you may rely upon me that the heaviest hand will see Germany by the scruff of the neck." The senate cheered his statement approvingly.

Pact to Divide Allies.

The French premier said that Germany had attempted to divide the allies at the London conference but failed. Germany had attempted to separate the United States from the allies but the American reply to Dr. Simons in the recent note handed him showed that "Germany has failed in this last desperate attempt before May 1."

Franco-American Co-operation in the Treatment of the Russian Question.

The treatment of the Russian question was urged by Senator Henry Jouvanel, editor of Le Matin. M. Jouvanel pointed out the recent Russian-British agreement and also Lenin's sensational speeches of February 28 and March 15, whereby he threw overboard Marxism in order to keep his power.

Agrees on Russia.

The United States' answer to the soviet's offer to resume trade demanded guarantees for the safety of persons and property which M. Jouvanel thinks it possible that Russia will grant for the sake of trade with the United States. The French view of the Russian problem is exactly the same as America's.

M. Jouvanel argued that the greatest mistake on the reparations question was in making it Franco-German instead of international.

He said a serious mistake would be made if the Russian problem was treated piecemeal. He demanded that France instruct M. Viviani to ask the United States to unite with France in not allowing concession hunters to secure Russian property which was really France's security. The senator declared that if French security in Russia was disposed of, France should not be asked to pay her foreign indebtedness.

M. Jouvanel referred to America in the friendliest of terms.

He aroused tremendous cheering when he said "America unfortunately sent millions to wage war alongside of us, but sent only one to make peace."

Charles Nervous When He Departed

Ex-Ruler Went to Steinamanger Station on Foot, Says Report.

Budapest, April 6.—(By The Associated Press.)—Former Emperor Charles went to the Steinamanger station on foot yesterday, being accompanied by Bishop Mikes and a group of officers, according to a telephone message received here from that city. The former monarch was nervous and haggard. A local military band played the Hungarian national anthem and the crowd uncovered and sang the hymn with faltering voices. While the hymn was being sung Charles descended from his train and stood, moist-eyed, among the people he claims as subjects. When the guards on board the special train gave the signal for starting Charles re-entered his car, waving farewell, calling out, "Au revoir, my faithful!" The message received here states the crowd shouted back: "Your majesty, come back as soon as possible."

Workmen Hold Up Train.

Vienna, April 6.—(By The Associated Press.)—Five hours' delay in the journey of former Emperor Charles to Switzerland from Hungary after his futile attempt to regain the Hungarian throne was caused by the holding up of his train last night at Frohneiten, just to the south of Bruck, in lower Austria, because of threatened demonstrations against the ex-monarch by the workmen of Bruck. Several thousand men from the industrial towns in the region gathered at Bruck in the evening and declared they would not let the emperor pass until they had told him what they thought about him and his adventure. The workers resisted all pleas of the authorities for several hours, but the crowd was finally dispersed at 1 o'clock this morning.

Dudley Back on Job; 'Watch Me in 1924'

"Strong in defeat," said J. J. Dudley, the "human semaphore," when he resumed work yesterday as director of traffic at Sixteenth and Farnam streets. "Am I downhearted in defeat?" he asked. "Not for this bird. I was encouraged to know that 1984 voters wanted me to be city commissioner. I believe my constituency will grow. Just wait until three years hence and I will show something wicked in the way of speed at the primary. I am just getting into form. It is a great lie if you don't weaken. Do I look weak?" Mr. Dudley returned to his traffic work yesterday after an absence of 30 days, during which he went through a strenuous political campaign, being his first experience in an adventure of this kind.

British Reply To Mandate Note Sharply Worded

Hold Colby's Stand on Mesopotamia "Scarcely Consistent" With Attitude On Mexican Oil Interests

London, April 6.—American contentions for equality of treatment for the citizens of all nations in mandated territory are held by the British government to be "scarcely consistent" with the attitude of the United States toward American oil interests in Mexico. The British view is expressed in a long reply to Secretary Colby's note of last November 20, which was made public here today.

Pioneer Nebraska Woman Dies at Home in Brownville

At home in Brownville
Mary Jane Marsh, 80, resident of Nebraska since 1856, died at her home in Brownville. She was the mother of Cassius Marsh, one of the best known printers of the state, and daughter of Capt. and Mrs. J. D. N. Thompson, among the first settlers of Brownville. She was born in Missouri and came to Nebraska in 1856 with her parents.

to oil concessions in the vilayets of Bagdad and Mosul granted to British interests before the war and not to be treated "merely as a matter of abstract principle" without reference to prewar negotiations. Rights acquired in Palestine by the Standard Oil company "are no stronger" than these British rights, the note added.

Request of the American government that British rights thus acquired be disregarded, Lord Curzon added, was "scarcely consistent" with the attitude "adopted by the United States in regard to similar United States interests in Mexico." The British note expresses agreement with the American argument that the world's oil resources should be open for development without reference to nationality, but notes that an act of the Philippine legislature in 1920 reserves development of the public mineral lands there to citizens of the United States or the Philippines. Such legislation can not be regarded "as in contradiction of the general principle enunciated by the United States," it continued.

Aerial Strap-Hanger Makes Appearance on London-Paris Plane

London, April 6.—London has long known the strap hanger in subway, street car and omnibus, but only recently the first instance of aerial strap-hanging was recorded. On the second day of the resumed British air service to Paris, it was found that one of the departing planes had no seats for three of its passengers. They made the journey standing in the passageway holding on to the luggage racks.

It is expected the Greeks will be forced to abandon the entire section of the Bagdad railway occupied during the drive. It is reported from Athens that several Greek generals, commanding units of the northern army, have been relieved of their commands and that General Papoulas has been superseded. King Constantine has summoned two new classes to the colors, but reports from points throughout Greece state that the reservists are failing to heed the mobilization order, less than 50 per cent enrolling.
