

Howell Water Power Bill on Third Reading

House Spends Little Time in Discussion Although Opposition is Made to Bill.

Lincoln, April 7.—(Special.)—The water power bill, substituted for H. R. 2, which R. B. Howell prepared and had introduced in the house, was sent to third reading today. There was some opposition to the substitute bill but the house was not inclined to spend much time in discussion. Chairman Harboure of the house committee explained the provisions of the bill and urged its advancement. After a short discussion the bill was sent ahead without opposition. Other bills advanced were: H. R. 225—Railroad required to contract annually with each shipper of 10 carloads or more per year for payment of reciprocal demurrage; rates not fixed. H. R. 477—Additional penalty of one to three years in the penitentiary or six months in jail for breaking out of confinement while under sentence. H. R. 241—Jewelers lien for work, repairs, parts, etc., done or furnished by them. H. R. 597—Appropriation of $1,500 for relief of Everett Sellers because of alleged improper medical treatment at state orthopedic hospital, which left his feet permanently crippled; the money to be used solely for his education.

Senate Favors Light Plant Bill

Practical Duplicate of House Roll No. 1 Recommended For Passage.

Lincoln, April 7.—(Special.)—The state senate today recommended for passage Senate File No. 249, Omaha's electric light plant measure, practically a duplicate of House Roll No. 1. A substitute by Senator Charles Saunders of Omaha was accepted by the senate however, and recommended for passage by the committee of the whole. Senator Saunders' substitute reads: "Any metropolitan utilities district now operating an electric plant is hereby authorized to supply electric energy throughout said district for public and private use; provided, however, that the said electric plant shall not be enlarged or extended for such purpose, unless said district shall vote bonds therefor as provided by law." Saunders explained that this substitute does away with the objectionable feature of House Roll No. 1, which provided that the city should take the street lighting contract without giving the Nebraska Power company an opportunity to submit a competing bid. House Roll No. 1 provided that 60 per cent vote was necessary to vote bonds, while this bill requires but 50 per cent. The Metropolitan Water district of Omaha is now known as the Metropolitan Utilities district by virtue of a bill passed by both senate and lower house of the legislature.

Annexation Measure Is Killed in House; Continue Road Fight

Lincoln, April 7.—(Special.)—The easiest and cheapest way for Nebraska to maintain Fort Crook as an important military post was turned down by the lower house by defeating the Sarpy county annexation bill. There were 53 votes against the annexation plan. The bill was killed in a standing committee months ago and was revived and put on general file when it was learned that a $300,000 appropriation was necessary to build a modern road from the Sarpy county line to Fort Crook. Douglas county was willing to pay the cost if it could do so lawfully and with annexation of Sarpy county Douglas county would have been enabled to build the road. Now the members are faced with H. R. No. 578 which calls for a $300,000 state appropriation to build the road. The bill came up for consideration, but on motion of Douglas county members it was placed at the foot of the sitting committee files.

Highway Measure Killed By Vote of Lower House

Lincoln, April 7.—(Special.)—The lower house today knocked out another salaried office proposed by the children's code commission, when, during consideration of H. R. No. 112, it placed the duties of a proposed county superintendent of child welfare on the shoulders of county superintendents, without extra compensation. House Roll No. 112 provides for the appointment of a child welfare bureau which has power to appoint a salaried superintendent of public welfare. This officer, under terms of the bill, will act as county juvenile officer, outside cities and towns, and will have jurisdiction over pool halls, dance halls and other commercial amusements outside city and town limits with power to grant and revoke licenses. The bill was passed out of committee of the whole by a vote of 45 to 41.

Science Bill Passed. Kill 8-Hour Bill

Lincoln, April 7.—(Special.)—The senate today killed a bill fixing 8-hour days for women workers. The get-together medium—Bee Want Ads.

Woman Is Secretary of Kearney Commercial Club

Mrs. Esther Stock Kroger, secretary of the chamber of commerce at Kearney, is the only woman in Nebraska holding down a job as secretary of a chamber of commerce and is one of the very few in the United States. She has been secretary of the Kearney club for the past two years and has made the club known in business circles in all parts of the state. She is attending the conference of Nebraska Organization Secretaries being held at the Omaha chamber of commerce. Mrs. Kroger admits she would rather be up to her elbows in intricate business matter than have those same dimpled cheeks spotted with cake dough or covered with flour for a new batch of bread. "The women at home often ask me if I don't feel out of place among so many business men and if I don't feel just a trifle unnecessary when I attend conventions and conferences where I am the only woman. They often ask if business problems do not perplex me and if I wouldn't rather stay at home and do house work. I tell them that I like to be in the business world and mingle with hard-headed business men. There is always something to be accomplished for the good of the Chamber of Commerce and the business world of Kearney. A woman can do this just as efficiently as a man. I don't care for house work as a rule. I have always been in business and solved business problems. But whenever I feel the feminine urge, to bake a cake or a batch of bread, coming upon me, I go to my home and give vent to that urge. My husband declares my cake and bread are every bit as good as those his. I am the only woman in the secretaries' conference yesterday. J. David Larson, secretary of the Omaha Chamber of Commerce, gave a talk on "The Best System of Club Financing." George M. Carey, secretary of the

Esther S. Kroger

Alliance Chamber of Commerce, addressed the secretaries on "What Railway Traffic Service Can Do for a Small Town." The conference closed at 2 yesterday afternoon.

Taxation Bill Is Amended By Committee Vote

Corporations Not Taxed on Capital in Other States Exempted to Prevent Double Assessment.

Lincoln, April 7.—(Special Telegram.)—The joint committee on revenue and taxation weakened last night on Senate File 65 by accepting an amendment which forbids taxation on corporations outside of Nebraska where tax assessments in other states show that these corporations are not taxed on their capital. The purpose is to prevent taxation of the same assets by two states. Arguments of Glenn C. Wharton and Guy Kidd of Omaha, representing Omaha jobbers and manufacturing interests, failed to make any impression on the committee for the time being, and it stood inflexible, with one exception, until other amendments affecting not only Omaha jobbers, but best sugar interests of western Nebraska were considered at an executive session. "There will be no action taken on other amendments at this time," George A. Williams of Fillmore, chairman of the joint committee, said. Wharton, in his speech last night, offered apologies for the lateness of his amendment, technical and beyond understanding of the committee without study, and said that they were offered late in the session because it was hoped the committee would take cognizance of them earlier.

Dean Charles Fordyce Quits University

Lincoln, April 7.—(Special.)—Dean Charles Fordyce of the teachers' college of the University of Nebraska gave his resignation to Chancellor Samuel Avery to take effect August 1. Dean Fordyce has been head of the teachers' college for 17 years. He is retiring to devote his entire time to research work in connection with the bureau of research and measurements and it is understood that he will retain his connection with the state university in this capacity.

Marine Desister Gives Up; Kearney Police Puzzled

Kearney, Neb., April 7.—(Special.)—J. M. Hiteshaas, 23, Pert, Ind., walked into the police station here and surrendered as a deserter from the marine corps. The department is at a loss as to what to do with the young man. Even though a reward is posted for his apprehension, as in the case of all deserters, the government apparently is not anxious to get the man back. At least such has been the experience of the Kearney police department in five cases within the past month. In each instance deserters held for several days were released, army officers waiving all claims to them. "It costs less to enlist new men than to bring back deserters," is the way one officer summed up the case when he ordered two army deserters released.

Woman Sues Police Chief To Recover Stolen Bonds

Riverside, Cal., April 7.—Mrs. Ruth C. Anderson of Chicago today sued E. D. Deiss, chief of police of Riverside, to recover $104,000 of the $161,000 in bonds taken Saturday from her husband, Edwin Anderson, when he was arrested as an alleged embezzler.

Drummond; school board, M. M. Akin and L. Brown.

Grosshans; engineer, E. J. Griess; councilmen, P. P. Gress and Carl Hold; Board of Education, J. P. Easley, Henry Heinz, Sr., and L. P. Sorenson.

Sunday base ball lost by a vote of 197 to 156.

NORTH BEND. North Bend, Neb., April 7.—(Special.)—At the city election all members of the party in power were ousted. Burlingame Walker was elected mayor and J. J. Farrell and Rudolph Dunker were elected councilmen by overwhelming majorities. This marks the breaking up in North Bend of a powerful political party, which has held the reins of the city for years. The same party, which had formerly been in control of the school, were included in the landslide. R. B. Sloss and Charles Auten were elected on the same ticket with Farrell and Dunker for school board.

LYONS. Lyons, Neb., April 7.—(Special.)—There was little excitement in the village election here. G. W. Little and M. L. Shumway were chosen as village trustees of a vote of 2 to 1. E. Newmeyer were named members of the board.

MADISON. Madison, Neb., April 7.—(Special.)—The citizens' ticket elected without opposition. C. E. Plass, mayor; Fred J. Dankers, clerk; C. K. Kortman, treasurer; re-elected, J. R. Kinder and George F. Kozlow, councilmen. Charles Duncan and Preston B. Palmer were chosen as members of the board of education.

SIDNEY. Sidney, Neb., April 7.—(Special.)—The vote was very tight in the city election, the only contest being in the Third ward, where A. J. Jorgenson defeated J. W. Harper for councilman by a vote of 2 to 1. E. Grabbill was elected mayor; Frank G. Schroeder, treasurer; Fred Stephens, clerk; J. T. M. Pearson, engineer; R. H. Rogers, Jack Maloney and A. J. Jorgenson, councilmen, and M. W. Dimery and A. S. Hardy, members of the board of education.

WAUNETA. Wauneta, Neb., April 7.—(Special.)—Sunday base ball was defeated in Wauneta, 150 to 80. Dorsey Resler and Dr. B. G. Carey were re-elected to the village board, and H. E. Athey and R. E. Cocklin as members of the school board.

LODGEPOLE. Lodgepole, Neb., April 7.—(Special.)—The election here proved a more spirited contest than was at first expected. Two tickets were in the field, but the old board members were re-elected.

HEBRON. Hebron, Neb., April 7.—(Special.)—H. L. Boyes was elected mayor by a majority of 95. R. A. Young, clerk, and W. F. Powell, treasurer, had no opposition. Pool halls won; bowling alleys and Sunday base ball lost, the latter proving extremely unpopular. The mayoral contest was the hottest for many years. E. E. Carrell, editor of the Hebron Journal, was the defeated candidate.

CENTRAL CITY. Central City, Neb., April 7.—(Special.)—The conservative party registered a clean sweep in the city election. The following men will steer city affairs for the coming year: Mayor, J. R. Ratcliff; councilmen, J. J. Molar, William Miller, James Pease; treasurer, Eric Wright; school board, John B. Skiff, Dr. A. Luff.

TABLE ROCK. Table Rock, Neb., April 7.—(Special.)—After serving 40 consecutive years as a member of the school board, W. H. Marble was re-elected here, leading the ticket. Dan Andrews was also elected to the board. Village trustees elected were A. F. Wopata and W. M. Linn.

M'COOK. McCook, Neb., April 7.—(Special Telegram.)—Frank Real was chosen mayor at the city election. George Moss, clerk, and Frank Hassler, treasurer. All other officers were re-elected without opposition.

BURWELL. Burwell, Neb., April 7.—(Special.)—At the village election here a mixed ticket was elected. F. A. Johnson and G. B. Flag, republicans, were elected on the village board, and C. F. Grunkemeyer, republican, and F. N. Smith and F. W. Waggoner, democrats, on the school board. Pool halls were voted in and bowling alleys and Sunday base ball were voted out.

AURORA. Aurora, Neb., April 7.—(Special.)—In the city election Walter Willis defeated R. Chapman and C. D. Whitney defeated C. R. Scoville for the council. These were the only contests in the election, as there was but one ticket. It is said that Willis and Whitney, whose names were written, have been elected by the element of the city, which desires Sunday base ball and Sunday movies.

ELWOOD. Elwood, Neb., April 7.—(Special.)—At the election here T. J. Hartman and Floyd Beau were elected to serve on the board.

In conversation with the Associated Press yesterday, the premier expressed the opinion that Charles was "probably duped by a colossal hoax—the work of foreigners—for the purpose of promoting some design not understood here."

"This regrettable incident, which is now over," he continued, "at least proved the stability of the Hungarian state."

Not The Morning or The Evening Bee - - But Both

DO YOU remember when you used to read the same news in The Evening Bee that you had read at the breakfast table in The Morning Bee? Or maybe it was the other way around, and you read in The Morning Bee what you had read the day before in The Evening Bee?
You won't find that in The Bee—Morning and Evening—TODAY.

The Bee is not a "warmed-over" newspaper nowadays. The Bee doesn't have that "warmed-over" taste. The news you find in The Evening Bee is distinct and different from that you read in The Morning Bee—and vice versa.

The Policies Are Different

The Morning Bee specializes in state and national news, in market and financial reports, comment and gossip—carried by Associated Press, Chicago Tribune-Omaha Bee leased wires and special telegraph and cable from every part of the world.
The Evening Bee specializes in local news and in entertaining features. The best features and the most important news are in both.
But the emphasis is different.
Not only the most important local news is in The Evening Bee, but the humor, women's affairs, human interest of daily happenings in and about Omaha are there.
The Morning Bee carries important local news—but places emphasis on the big news from everywhere—politics, trade, conventions, agriculture and the like.

The Two Are Not the Same

The difference is so marked that there is enjoyment in reading both.
Many Omaha men and women read The Bee—Both Morning and Evening—and like it. WHY NOT YOU?
