PERSONAL.

Taken from the Cleveland Press.

"THREE KILLED, ONE INJURED."

"A Ford touring car delven by a man named Williams ran into an ice wagon at Euclid and Dodge streets, throwing the driver through the front shield, striking his head against the wagon, killing him instantly. Mrs. Worden, wife of Evangelist G. H. Worden, her daughter, Ruth, and her sister, Mrs. Williams, who were occupying the rear seat, were thrown to the pavement, Mrs. Williams, receiving a broken arm and Mrs. Worden and her daughter receiving fractured skulls, from which they died on their way to the hospital. The only clue to the accident was given by Mrs. Williams, who said that he was driving too fast in the first place and then seemed to have lest centrol of the car of the brakes would not work. Mrs. Worden and daughter were visiting her sister and all were out for a joy ride when the segident took place."

Drawn for The Bee by McManus Rail Securities Owners Request Joint Meeting

Ask Harding to Call Conference of Executives and Employes to Unsnarl Wage Tangle.

Washington, April 8.—The Na-tional Association of Owners of Rail-road Securities joined with five rail-road labor unions in proposing that President Harding call a conference of representatives of both owners and employes to discuss the railroad problem, particularly as it affects wages and working conditions now in dispute before the railroad labor board S. Davies Warfield, president of the association, and Darwin P. Kingsley, president of the New York ife Insurance company, conferred or an hour with the president on the general transportation situation and suggested the conference as one of the means for adjusting the difficulties the roads face. The request from the unions was in the form of a telegram from B. M. Jewell, head of the railway employes' department of the American Federation of La-

Cummins to Ask Probe.

Coincident with the conference at the White House and the receipt of the telegram, Chairman Cummins of the senate interstate commerce committee said he had drafted a resolution for introduction next week, authorizing an exhaustive investiga-tion of railroad affairs. He plans to begin the inquiry about April 15. Means for bringing about a reduction in rates, operating costs and the

After suggesting that "properly called meetings between the men and those representing the railroads be held under the auspices of existing governmental agencies—the labor board and the Interstate Commerce commission-the menrorandum said Want Just Settlement. "We are on record that wage adjustment is only part of the problem" and expressed the view that this "should be attained under circumstances carrying assurances to railway workers that whatever may be brought about is reasonable and ittst. The securities owners, it was added, felt assured that in cases in which an agreement cannot be reached with an individual railroad management. the employes would enter into immediate discussion of their duties by regional boards equally divided, formed by each of the four groups of railways as now urged by the

-Practically the same number of acres of sugar have been contracted for in this vicinity that were raised last year, although greater attention was paid by the company to condi-tion of ground before contracts were made. The fieldman for the Great Western Sugar company states that more careful cultivation of the ground before planting is evidenced this year. About 40 per cent of the crop will be planted by the end of this week, being from two to three weeks earlier than last year. German-raised seed will be used in every
