

Council Bluffs Society

Mrs. Stewart Entertains. One of the most attractive of the spring luncheons was given last Thursday by Mrs. Charles Test Stewart, at her home on South Seventh street.

Pink roses and snapdragons were used on the table at which places were marked for 10.

Patronesses for the Creighton Glee club concert, which will be given in this city, Monday evening, April 18, include Mesdames Donald Macrae, Carleton Woodward, W. S. Stillman, Robert Wallace, Grant Augustine, Fred Banmeister, Earl Belinger, Will Rigdon, Emmet Tinley, M. A. Tinley, W. E. Ash, Perry Badollet, E. A. Wickham, Glenn Reed, Fred Hurd, F. T. Seybert, W. J. Heiser, Thomas Green, Elmer Shugart, Robert Sprague, J. F. McCarger, J. A. Clark, Dan Sheehan, E. Wallace, T. J. Leary, Karl Kehrer, John Galvin, W. A. Cutler, Howard Butler, Walter Jenkins, J. R. Gerke, Robert Moth, Clarence Hafer, A. V. Hennessy, Scott Covalt, Lucius Pryor, J. C. Pryor, Frank Wright, M. D. Hughes, Robert Perogoy, H. W. Clark, George Klein, Fremont Benjamin, E. J. Paul, M. E. O'Keefe, Peter Jensen, W. P. Hombach, Frank Garrett, C. S. Andrews, William Pfaff, James Mulqueen and Caroline Theinhardt, Misses Shirley Moore, Elizabeth Quinn, Lorene Hammel, Marguerite Moorhouse, Adelle Keeline, Beatrice Tinley and Dr. Mary Tinley.

For Massachusetts Guest. Mrs. Leonard Everett entertained at luncheon on Wednesday, complimentary to the Misses Faith Carleton and Wilhelmina Bray, of Rowley, Mass., who visited during the last week with Miss Caroline Dodge of this city and Miss Dodge's sister, Mrs. Edgar Scott, of Omaha.

LaSalle Club. Twenty-two Omaha and Council Bluffs maids and matrons who formerly attended LaSalle college, are now meeting at regular intervals, to combine charity with sociability. The early part of the afternoon is devoted to sewing for worthy ones in need, after which the hostess serves tea.

Council Bluffs members include Mesdames George Mayne, Howard Butler, Frank Haas, George Germer, A. C. Brown and Miss May Tuller. The club met last Tuesday at the home of Mrs. Mayne, who was assisted by Mrs. Haas.

Luncheon. Mrs. Frank Wright entertained a few friends informally at luncheon on Wednesday. Jougills were used as a table piece.

Here From Chicago. Miss Vera Cady, formerly of Council Bluffs, but now of Chicago, arrived Saturday morning to spend the weekend with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. M. Cady. She came at this time so as to also visit with her sister, Mrs. Hervey Jackes of Regina, Canada, who has been in the city for the past two weeks.

Miss Cady has a natural talent for art and that combined with several years of study has established her among the leading decorative illustrators of Chicago, where there is a constantly increasing demand for her work. She has just completed the illustrations for a book which is now in the hands of the publishers, and will soon be on the market. Miss Cady does not, however, confine herself to this particular line, but has done some very clever book-plates, and her artistic poster-work has brought forth most favorable comments from the leading critics of the country.

Ideal Club. A very enjoyable meeting of the Ideal club was held last Tuesday at the home of Mrs. W. S. Keeline, with Mesdames Keeline, M. F. Rohrer, Robert Moth, Grant Augustine and Clara Bonham as hostesses.

Mrs. Moth gave a sketch of Carmen, followed by several musical numbers from this popular opera. The next meeting of the club, which is to be the last of the season, will be with Mrs. James Hunter on Glen avenue.

For Visitors. In honor of Mrs. J. F. Farrell of Des Moines, Ia., and Mrs. Jack Edgington of Chicago, house guests of Mrs. Elmer Shugart, three informal home luncheons were given during the last week by Mesdames C. E. Woodbury, Lyman Shugart and H. A. Quinn.

Recital. Miss Maude Graham Bell presented her pupil, Miss Winifred Tinley, in a delightful piano recital, last Friday evening. This young miss gave six groups, all of which were played from memory. She was assisted on the program by Miss Eleanor Williamson, in a clever reading and Miss Betty Smith who contributed with a vocal number.

Personals. John I. Lutz has been confined to his home by illness.

William Lewis of Harlan, Ia., was in Council Bluffs last week.

Frank Garrett is making a business trip through Nebraska.

Miss Ruth Wickham left Thursday to visit friends in Lincoln, Neb.

Mrs. Jack Edgington of Chicago, is visiting at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Shugart.

Dr. C. E. Woodbury is in Rochester, Minn., taking a post-graduate course with the Drs. Mayo.

Mrs. Clarence Highland and Miss Ruth Wachter of Lincoln were in the city dining, in the past week.

Mrs. Richard Bennett leaves Wednesday for Lincoln, after a visit of two weeks with her mother, Mrs. Lyman Shugart.

A daughter was born Friday to Mr. and Mrs. Robert Turner. Mrs. Turner was formerly Miss Helen Pearce of Omaha.

Foster Farrell, who has been visiting his aunt, Mrs. Elmer Shugart, returned Wednesday to resume his studies at the University of Nebraska.

Mr. and Mrs. Paul Burke left Wednesday morning for their home in Dubuque, Ia., after a short visit at the W. S. Keeline home. They made the trip overland, stopping at Des Moines and Waterloo en route.

At the recent election in Andover, Mass., out of 1,700 women who were properly registered as voters, only 100 cast votes in the town election.

Home for Summer Months

Miss Frances Earenficht, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. R. H. Earenficht of Council Bluffs, arrived home Wednesday from Des Moines, where she spent a short time en route from New York. Mrs. Earenficht, who had been in the east, also returned at the same time. This talented dancer will be in Council Bluffs until the first of September, and in the very near future will open a studio for advanced pupils.

She has been engaged again by Pavley and Oukrainisky as a solo dancer, and at the close of the Chicago Grand Opera season next year, will go to London, Paris, and very likely Rome, as Mary Garden is making plans to visit the Italian city.

Miss Earenficht commenced her work several years ago with a former Council Bluffs girl, Miss Mary Cooper, who has since moved Jurors in London.

London is apparently getting blasé on the subject of women jurors. The following quotation from a London paper so indicates: "Miss Marie Lloyd, otherwise Mrs. Matilda Dillon, the name under which she was summoned, was one of the five ladies sworn on a special jury in the probate court, yesterday, to hear a suit which came before Justice Horridge.

"Referring to a remark regarding the ladies on the jury, Justice Horridge said the time was past for that kind of comment and he hoped that the counsel would not make speeches about ladies on the jury. The jury was composed according to law and that was an end to it.

"During the subsequent hearing Miss Marie Lloyd was allowed to leave the jury on account of her not feeling well, counsel consenting to 11 jurors hearing the case.

During the fiscal year of 1919-20 nearly 50,000 child labor permits were issued in Wisconsin.

From London to Kansas.

Away off in London they are talking about the Kansas legislature. The London Times recently said: "Mrs. Minnie J. Grinstead, one of Kansas' two women representatives, has introduced a novel bill into the house of representatives. She is representative of Seward county, and by her bill husbands would be placed in the status of employers, with their wives as employees in their homes.

They would also be permitted to recover damages for injuries received while performing household duties, says a Reuter cable yesterday.

A. C. A. Notes

The general meeting of the Association of the Collegiate Alumnae will be held Saturday, 1:30 p. m., in Jacob's hall, Seventeenth and Dodge streets. During the business hour Mrs. W. R. Coates will give a report of the national A. C. A. convention held in Washington, D. C., two weeks ago.

At 2:30 p. m., Oscar Wilder Craik will present, "The Mollusc," a theatrical play by Herbert Davies. Tea will be served at the close of the program.

The drama section of the A. C. A. will meet Wednesday, 4 p. m., at the Prettiest Mite club. Mrs. C. C. Vaught, will be the hostess assisted by Mrs. H. B. Patrick and the Misses Edith Fisher, Clara Ely, Loretta Burns and Bernice McLeod.

The play, "Augustus Does His Bit," will be presented under direction of Mrs. Ann Raymond. The parts will be taken by Mesdames J. T. Maxwell, Philip Horan and Evans Hornberger.

In the best grade of cotton yarn there may be found about 588,000 yards of single thread in one pound.

ADVERTISEMENTS.

Mitzi's Beautiful Complexion

That marvelous actress, Mitzi, now appearing in "Hedger Heels," is famous for her beautiful complexion. She attributes her wonderful skin to the daily use of a simple home made combination of oatmeal and derwillo. There is nothing like it for a poor complexion or to keep a good complexion at its best all the time. It takes the place of face powder, stays on better, as perspiration does not affect it, and it instantly beautifies any complexion. One application proves it. If you want a nice lily-white skin with rosy cheeks get a bottle of derwillo today; you will be delighted. Derwillo is sold at all up-to-date toilet counters.

Norfolk Is Now Ready to Affiliate.

Norfolk, Neb., has had for a number of years an unaffiliated Y. W. C. A., which has now reached a stage where it feels the need of a broader basis, such as can be secured by affiliation that will provide for it trained leadership and a more varied program of work for the young women of the community. Miss Rhoda Foster, county secretary for the field, is in Norfolk working with the association on its reorganization plans. The present membership is about 900 and it is planned to increase this materially. As soon as a trained general secretary can be secured she will be installed.—"The Field Glass."

Mrs. C. L. Hyman of New York City, recently paid $12,000 for a Flemish woolen tapestry with interwoven silk threads, dating back from the second half of the 16th century.

Miss McHugh Will Not Be Speaker Monday

Word has been received from Miss Kate McHugh, who has been visiting in Wyoming, that she has been unavoidably detained owing to the serious illness of her sister. Miss McHugh will not give a reading on Deburau Monday at the annual meeting of the Drama league because of this fact. The meeting will be held at 3:30 at the Fontenelle. The annual reports will be read and the election of officers will be held.
