AT THE THEATERS

STOP! LOOK! LISTEN! Not least among the interests which the Bohm Ballet presents is the delightful dancing of Ruth Page. This winsome little American ballerina is the leading classic dancer with Botm's inimitable ensemble of dancers. She halls from the Hoosier State and first studied dancing in her home city of Ipdianapolis. When last year Adolph Bolm was retained by the Chicago Opera company to produce the John Alden Carpenter Ballet, "The Birthday of the Infanta." he chose Ruth Page to create the little part of the little Spanish Infanta so quaintly painted by the Great Spanish master. Velasquez. Hers is an art with ideals and she finds its best expression in such a company as that which the great choreographic master. Adolph Bolm, has welded in his spiendid Ballet Intime which is allied to "the famous little symphony founded by George Barrere. The double attraction will be seen and heard at the Brandels tonight for a single performance.

At the Orpneum last evening the fash-

At the Orpneum last evening the fash At the Orpheum last evening the fashionable audience for society night greatly relished the performance of the singing comedienne. Trixie Friganza. Her offering this time is called "My Little Bag o Trix." The monologue part of her offering is hilarlously funny. Another offering extremely popular this week is the heart-appeal stage story and comedy.
"Bide-a-Wee Home." This is presented by Claud and Fannie Usher. The American stage has no actress more effective in the portrayal of little girl roles than Miss Usher. Pathos and humor are about evenly balanced in the character she is now interpreting. Six other acts make up the current bill, and two of these offerings are featured acts.

The comedy of May Field featured fun-

The comedy of Max Field, featured funny man of L. H. Herk's "Jingle Jingle," is a continuation of knock-about comedy jolts across the footlights. He elevates his art to the highest pitch in the big multiple scene burlesque which is seen at the Gayety theater this week. The various changes of costume which the prima donnas, stella and "Dimple" Dolly Morrissey, make during the action of the show are the wonderment of everybody. Ladies' matinee at 2:15 daily.

A one act munical absurdity entitled "The Three of Us," is the stellar act at the Empress the first half of this week. It is presented by Charles Harrison, Sylvia Dakin and Billy Hogue. Theirs is an original conglomeration of musical numbers of the catchy variety interspersed with clean comedy patter, graceful dancing and real harmony singing. The costuming and seenic embellishment are discussions. tuming and scenic embellishment are dis-tinctive and elaborate.

"Nothing succeeds like success," eapecially in the theater. This is proved by "Irene," the musical comedy sensation to be presented at the Brandels theater for a limited engagement of six nights with Wednesday and Saturday matines, beginning Monday, April 18, by the special comedy organized by the Vanderbilt Producing company for the grand franscontinental tour planned purposely to give western playgoers the opportunity to see the most popular members of the New Tork and Chicago "Irene" companies. This phenomenally successful piece, with book by James Montgomery, music by Harry Tirrney and lyrics by Joseph McCarthy, has made new popularity records wherever it has been running continuously since the memorable first night, November 18, 1919. Seats for "Irene" are now on sale at the box office. Present mail-order demands indicate heavy patrons:

Drawn for The Bee by McManus Nationalism is Harding Policy Message Shows

Address to Congress Today Will Complete Reversal of Wilson' Pursuit of Internationalism.

By ARTHUR SEARS HENNING Chicago Tribune-Omaha Bee Leased Wire Washington, April 11.-Appearing before congress at 1 p. m. tomorrow President Harding will outline his views upon the great domestic and foreign problems with which the legislative and executive branches of the government are called upon to deal. The major portion of the message final revision of which Mr. Harding completed tonight, is devoted to tax and tariff revision, labor, soldiers' relief, government reorganization and conomy, railroads, merchant marine, foreign trade and other domestic questions. Sounding a reversal of policy from the pursuit of internationalism, which characterized the Wilson administration, to the development of a vigorous, self-reliant nationalism, the president in concentrating attention upon domestic problems, will accentuate his view that the most pressing need of the hour is reconstruction of the foundations of national prosperity dislocated by the Program for Peace. The president's program for effecting peace with Germany and for participation of the United States in the stablization of world peace is founded on the principle of nonentanglement in the political affairs Those ancient Roman customs of Europe. The message will make

They view such action as the only one in keeping with the promise of Mr. Harding in his acceptance speech that he would make peace with Germany as as the republican congress could "pass its declaration for a republican executive to sign." Delay Knox Resolution. The president, however, has stated in the last few days that he is opposed to any precipitate adoption of the Knox resolution. He wishes to have a free hand in the next few weeks in developing a peace policy which may be materially affected by the progress of international negotiations of great moment which Secretary of State Hughes is con-ducting. Whether any features of the Versailles peace treaty can be accepted by the United States and in what manner the United States can carry out the declared purpose to "stand with the allies," in holding Germany to accountability for the war are questions on which these exchanges will have a bearing. If the allies, for example, should recognize the rights for which we are contending in connection with Yap and the other confiscated German territories, the way would be opened for a peace program embodying close co-operation by the United States with its late cobeligerents. Church to Be Dedicated
