Cattle—With a very moderate run of cattle Tuesday, about 4,300 head, the market recovered from Monday's depression and trade was fairly active, with prices strong to 25c higher all around, the improvement being most noticeable on the light and handy weight steers. Best of these sold around $8.75, with fair to good kinds largely at $7.50$.00. Cows and heifers also showed quite a little improvement, but there was little doing in stockers and feeders, with prices generally about steady.

Former Kaiser Will Not Attend Wife's Funeral

Exiled Emperor Will Accompany Body to Frontier, Then Return to Home In Doorn.

By GEORGE SELDES.

(Chleago Tribune Cable, Copyright, 1921.) Berlin, April 12.—The former kaiser Wilhelm Hohenzollera will not enter Germany on the occasion of his wife's burial next Saturday at Potsdam. Dispatches from his residence at Doorn in Holland seem definitely to show this is the final decision of the exiled emperor.

Only a few weeks ago, when the death of the kaiserin momentarily was expected, the former kaiser, it said, planned to accompany her body to the imperial tombs near Berlin. The monarchists were prepar-ing a great demonstration to exploit the mourning of the people for the return of the throne. The return of King Constantine to Greece gave them their main assurance.

Since that time, however, the former emperor Charles has been driven out of Hungary under the determin-ed pressure of the people and of the entente while Constantine himself is none too sure of his place. Moreover the Dutch government has hetified the former kaiser that, if he leaves Holland, he will not be permitted to return.

Under the present arrangements, ne body of the former kaiserin will be placed tomorrow in a special built automobile which has been at Doorn for considerable time. This automobile will take the coffin to the railway station three miles distant There it will be put on a special train, which by agreement between will be permitted to proceed without delay to Potsdam. The former kaiser will ride with the body to the train and will remain on the train until the first stop, which will be at the frontier. From there, it is said, he will return to Doorn.

The members of the royal family and suite will proceed with the body to Potsdam where the burial will take place on Saturday.

German government has not received any request from the former kaiser to accompany the body.

Expenditures for Aircraft Placed Too High By Army Critics

New York, April 12.—Expenditures of the United States for the army air service during the war, often placed by critics at more than one billion dollars, actually amounted to a net outlay of $598,090,781, it is shown in a letter from Maj. H. M. Hickam, chief of the information group in the air service, to the aviation and air craft journal.

From July 1, 1917, to March 31, 1919, the period of war contracts, it adds, there was delivered to the army 13,894 complete airplanes with spare parts and 41,953 aeronautical engines and spare parts.

Charges on Call Money Reduced; Conditions Easier

Loans Cut to 4 1-2 and 4 Per Cent-Brokers Reported To Have "Barrels of Money.

By HOLLAND
A few weeks ago James S. Alexander, who is president of the National Bank of Commerce, ventured to predict that the rates charged and as Mr. Alexprediction for contingual money was accepted as pears to have been in some error when making this forecast. For of a sudden the charges for the use of money lent upon call were reduced to 4½ and even 4 per cent. This may be a temporary fluctuation, but the was one of the unexpected of

One report quotes a broker whose business it is to find a market for call money as having said "there are barrels of money in the banks and yet there seems to be no demand for it." Customarily a reduction in money rates would tempt to speculation and it is a fact that a certain form of speculation legitimate and nonorable might be of avail at this time in bringing about an appreciation in the quotation for securities. Brokers say however, that many of them have been carrying on and are now carrying on a "Woolworth" business. That is to say their principal dealings are in five and 10 shares lots. For that reason probably, no demand that was noticeable bly no demand that was noticeable providing for acquisition of stock was made for any part of these bar-

One Striking Effect.

There was, however, one effect presumably due in part to those low charges for the use of money and it was an effect that was observed in the bond barket. For a little while late in February there came a falling off in the marketing of bonds, as compared with the sales asgregating several hundred millions which were made early in the year. Now, however, there are abundant evidences that bonds are to be marketed upon a large scale. This does not reflect a speculative purpose, but instead investment. The principal bond houses of New York would not be astonished if a very great marketing of bonds took place in the remaining months of the spring.

But there is a deadlock. This foreign trade is upon a dead center and it is almost without precedent that a nation which has ample supplies of raw material and is anxious to exchange them for American products finds it impossible to make this exchange. been said that the potential production of Russia is an asset which is of vital importance to the commercial world and especially to Europe. For Europe, cannot secure economic stability until Russia's productivity is restored.

And yet, Secretary of Commerce Hoover has recently stated that the real blockade against trade has been the failure of Russia to produce anything excepting gold and platinum as a basis for trade, Russia now possesses in gold, platinum and jewelry not less than $60,000,000 and probably as much as $200,000,000 and probably as much as $200,000,000. The United States Steel corporation's announcement of a general reduc-tion in its prices make the cut from the level hitherto consistently maintained by the company since March of 1919, range as high as $5 Cat. Hogs. Sheep! H-M per ton on various important products and on some of them it apparently brings the prices back to By people familiar with the sit uation, this action has been regarded as an economic certainty for many weeks. No doubt it will be regarded in some quarters, as a culminating evidence of the industrial

But, with the steel trade's present position what it is, the reduction can hardly make trade or profits any worse, and the moral effect of reduction of prices in that industry, when they had long been out of line with other markets, has, in the long run, almost invariably been Leneficial. Announcement Surprise

Announcement Surprise.

The day's stock market had, as a whole, indicated no anticipation of the announcement, though the steel company shares were rather conspicuously points of weakness. Eisewhere the familiar frregularity of movement centinued, some stocks advancing while other declined.

The president's message was discussed, but Mr. Harding's declarations of policy were neither unexpected nor startling to Wall Street; most of them had been clearly foreshadowed beforehand from from Washington and none of them throw ary great amount of light on what precise legislative or diplomatic measures are to follow. The controversy over foreign policies has long since been given up in despair by the financial community as a source of enlightenment.

Foreign exchange moved little; the advance of the preceding day was checked. The federal reserve board's report on the country's gold imports up to the close of March gives the rather striking information that our importations during last month alone, were no less than $100.272,000, a monthly total never exceeded, except in two months of 1916, two of 1317 and last October.

April 12, 1921. Cash wheat prices broke sharply again today, the market being off about 6 to 7 cents from the few sales made yesterday and about 10 cents from Saturday's market. Most of yesterday's offerings which were substantial were carried over on today's market. Receipts of wheat to-day were light, only 33 cars being reported in. Corn arrivals were only 12 cars and no oats.

Bonds. Chicago, April 12.-Lower prices were the order for all grains, with limited buying support of an invest-ment character and with a lack of confidence among holders and with stop orders bringing out liquidation in large volume. The decline was stopped by short covering, showing the advantage of having that interest in a market at times. A fair reaction from the inside came at the last and closing trades were at net losses of 1 1-2c on May wheat, while July was 1-4c higher. Corn lost 3-4@ last and closing trades were at net losses of 1 1-2c on May wheat, while July was 1-4c higher. Corn lost 3-4@ 9.32 1 1-8c; oats 1-4@3-8c; rye 1-2@ 5.25 3 1-2c, the latter on May, while cash rye is selling at 2@3c higher per bushel than wheat for the second time on record.

Provisions, although depressed early, reacted and closed with net losses of 27 1-2c on pork, 10@15c on lard and 2 1-2@5c higher on short ribs.

New York, April 12.—A demand from Wall Street and Liverpool interests absorbed offerings from the south early and in the face of poor cables. The New York cotton market opened at a decline of 5 points to an advance of 5 points. Later it was strengthened on buying by spot houses about 10 points above the initial levels and 4 points over last night's close on July.
