How to Keep Well

By DR. W. A. EVANS

Questions concerning hygiene, sanitation and prevention of disease, submitted to Dr. Evans by readers of The Bee, will be answered personally...

1921 HEALTHY THUS FAR.

At the time this is written the month of March is about at an end and the phenomenal low death rate of the first two months of the year has not been greatly exceeded.

Has Raynaud's Disease.

F. V. writes: "For some time I have been temporarily incapacitated by the blood leaving my fingers and toes."

Ask Health Department.

W. C. V. writes: "I would like to know where to get the soy bean flour..."

For Seven Year Itch.

Appreciative Reader writes: "I. Much has been said about winter itch, but nothing about the so-called seven year itch."

THE SPICE OF LIFE.

A widower ordered a headstone for his wife's grave. The inscription concluded with: "Lord, she was thine."

High School Frats.

Omaha, April 10.—To the Editor of The Bee: I would fain take one last parting shot at C. D. H. and then let him ramble around in utter darkness...

Send Stamps for Pamphlet.

E. L. M. writes: "When a woman is approaching the critical period of her life do her menses stop all at once?"

Appreciative Reader writes.

"I. Much has been said about winter itch, but nothing about the so-called seven year itch."

Economic Pressure.

Omaha, April 10.—To the Editor of The Bee: The employer who wants to run a non-union shop, but who cannot obtain the necessary labor without purchasing it from the union men...

It is hard for a fair employer.

It is hard for a fair employer to treat his employees right, if his competitor refuses to treat his employees right, because the economic pressure sure gives the latter an advantage...

Problems and Solutions.

Omaha, April 10.—To the Editor of The Bee: Mr. Harding has occupied the presidential chair for 40 days and his first message to the new congress will be flashing across the continent Tuesday or Wednesday.

Skeptical.

Personally we are probably as credulous as the average, but when he says that Home Cooking, we don't believe it.—Galveston News.

Gethsemane.

There are degrees of sorrow, Light sorrow like an April cloud— Dispelled upon the morning's breeze— And deeper sorrow known and shared— Thus strongest ties are oft prepared. And none escape, for all must know Some touch of sorrow as they go.

But O, that sorrow deep that clings.

And though the very soul it wrings. No easing tears will flow: 'Twas known upon Gethsemane— Deep, lonely sorrow's last degree— That mortals seldom know.
