Organization Meets to Outline Campaign to Be Conducted in U. S. to Secure Moral Support.

Chicago, April 18.—Irish Americans from all sections of the country gathered today for the opening of he first national convention of the American association for the recognition of the Irish republic. Leaders in the movement to gain American recognition of Ireland were on the program for the two day assembly. The session opened with the invocation by a representative of Archbishop Mundelein of Chicago. Mayor Thompson welcomed the delegates. Other speakers presented today included Harry J. Boland, assistant to Eammon De Valera; Frank P. Walsh, counsel for the association, and Donal O'Callaghan, lord mayor of Cork, Miss Mary MacSwiney, sister of the late lord mayor of Cork. Miss Mary Mac-Swiney, sister of the ate lord mayor of Cork, who died in Brixton prison, was on tonight's program. "We seek for Ireland," Mr. Boland said, "the application of those noble principles for which you fought the war. We seek your support so that the age-long struggle may be consummated in the recognition of Ireland by the United States. The struggle has resolved itself into a question of money. We will come to you again for a new loan for the republic. This convention must resolve today so to organize so that when the call comes you will be prepared to supply $100,000,000 should Ireland ask it in the name of liberty.
