

Annual Meet of Endeavor Society Opens in Omaha

Convention of Second Nebraska District Assembles—Wienie Roast at Elmwood Park This Afternoon.

The 11th annual convention of the Second district of the Nebraska Christian Endeavor society opened Friday night in the North Presbyterian church.

The Rev. C. A. Burkholder led in devotional exercises and R. C. Clinchard introduced the speakers. The Rev. C. D. Dadds, state president of Aurora spoke on "Seek Ye First the Kingdom."

Yesterday Rev. W. N. Halsey led the devotional service. Mrs. H. L. Himes of Fremont discussed the intermediate conference; Mrs. R. R. Herbert, missions, and M. D. Higbee, state field secretary, state and district.

D. G. Walker of Chicago gave the principal talk, followed by a business meeting and an address on "Dedication of Time and Talent" by the Rev. H. H. Harman of Lincoln. Dinner was served in the lower auditorium of the church at noon.

Leads Service. A. D. Barre led the devotional service in the afternoon, after which Mrs. G. H. Beith of Winnebago, state junior superintendent, gave a junior address and Miss Robina Fulton discussed the Tenth legion.

The quiet hour was led by Mrs. A. H. Johns of Blair and M. D. Higbee talked on the Nebraska Christian Endeavor. F. D. G. Walker of Chicago spoke on "Making It Possible."

Late in the afternoon a wienie roast in Elmwood park was augmented by an automobile ride for the delegates.

Phil Sheild of the Omaha Presbyterian ministry led the devotional services in the evening, and Rev. R. L. Patton of Nebraska City will speak on "Dedication of Means."

Dr. Herman Ollswanger, president of the Omaha alumni, spoke on the alumni. Rev. R. I. Wheeler discussed "Christian Citizenship."

Sunday Program. Sunday morning F. D. G. Walker will be in charge of the quiet hour at 9, which will be followed by Sunday school and morning worship.

Sunday afternoon the Rev. C. A. Burkholder will conduct the devotional services, followed by a junior demonstration led by Miss Robina Fulton and Mrs. G. A. Beith.

An intermediate demonstration will be led by Mrs. A. H. Ellsberry and F. D. G. Walker.

Earl C. Reynolds, president of the Omaha Christian Endeavor union, will lead the regular Christian Endeavor meeting, Sunday evening, followed by a song service and installation of officers.

District Officers. The Rev. H. J. Howard will speak on "Dedication for Service."

The general committee in charge of the convention includes R. C. Clinchard, Earl C. Reynolds, Elmer Greeting and Ida Wooley, Mrs. E. C. Reynolds, Mrs. E. C. Wigg and Marie Kocher.

District officers are R. C. Clinchard of Omaha, president; Miss Gladys Maple of Schuyler, vice president; Miss Ida Wooley of Omaha, treasurer; Mrs. A. H. Johns of Blair, quiet hour superintendent; Mrs. L. H. Ellsberry of Omaha, intermediate superintendent; Robina Fulton of Omaha, junior superintendent; A. D. Barre of Omaha, efficiency superintendent, and A. A. Eklund of Waterloo, citizenship superintendent.

Weather Reports Are Sent From Omaha by Wireless. Weather reports by wireless from the Omaha air mail station will be sent out at 11:45 a. m. daily, immediately following transmission of market reports, according to M. V. Robins, head of the federal weather bureau in Omaha.

Omaha follows Kansas City in the transmission of market and weather reports, Mr. Robins said.

The reports heretofore were dispatched at 1:30 p. m. For the information of amateur wireless operators, the operator at the Omaha aerial station announces the wave length of the Omaha station has been reduced from 1,050 meters to 800.

Another Little Key Comes, Now 17 in His Key Ring. Omaha's largest family has been increased.

Alexander Key, 50, and Carrie Key, 41, 2633 Hamilton street, are rejoicing at the addition of another little key to their key ring, which already bore 16 little keys.

The latest addition to the family has been named Julia, and she came into the world Tuesday night, according to the birth certificate received yesterday by the city health department in the city hall.

And all 17 little Keys are alive and lively, 13 of them being regular attendants at Long school.

The Keys are negroes.

Viviani Sends Greetings To Pershing and Legionnaires. New York, April 23.—Rene Viviani, special French envoy who now is en route home, in a wireless message of congratulations to the American Legion, its national commander, Col. F. W. Galbraith, Jr., and General Pershing, made public today, invited the legion men to visit France and declared he never would forget the "courageous soldiers" of America.

"Among the great people who love them, they will find anew the image of the great country which they honor," the message concluded.

George H. Thomas Dies At Home in Columbus; Former District Judge

Columbus, Neb., April 23.—(Special Telegram.)—Judge George H. Thomas, 63, died at the family home here. He was born in Lexington, N. Y., and graduated from the Catskill academy. He read law a year in Catskill, and in August, 1878, moved to Schuyler, Neb., where he was admitted to the bar. His first law partnership was with Charles Phelps.

In 1907 he moved to Columbus. Prior to his coming here he served as county judge of Colfax county and one term in the legislature. He was a member of Company K, Second Nebraska regiment and was elected lieutenant of the company. In 1911, he was elected judge of district court and served continually until his retirement from the bench January 1, 1921.

In September, 1884, Judge Thomas was married to Ella C. Conant at Schuyler. Mrs. Thomas and one daughter survive him.

The funeral will be held Sunday afternoon in the Episcopal church.

Mrs. Adda Noyes Dies Of Pneumonia at 82

Mrs. Adda T. Noyes, 2312 South Thirty-second avenue, died from pneumonia at her residence at 7 o'clock Friday evening.

Mrs. Adda T. Noyes was the widow of Senator Isaac Noyes of Waterloo.

Isaac Noyes came to Nebraska in 1856 and took up a homestead three miles north of Waterloo. He died in 1903 on his farm north of Waterloo and later his wife moved to Omaha and has been making her home in Omaha for the last five or six years.

Mrs. Noyes leaves three children: Mrs. A. L. Sutton, 2316 South Thirty-second avenue; Hiland B. Noyes of Omaha and Carlton B. Noyes of Waterloo.

Mrs. Noyes was 82 last Christmas. A short service will be held on Sunday afternoon at 1:30 at 2312 South Thirty-second avenue and the funeral will take place in the Presbyterian church at Waterloo at 3 Sunday afternoon.

New Ruling on Beer Fixes Arbitrary Maximum Amount

Washington, April 23.—An arbitrary limit of four and seven-eighths gallons of beer and three gallons of wine as the maximum a physician may prescribe at any one time has been set in new prohibition regulations which await the approval of David H. Blair, "the new commissioner of internal revenue."

"We have information that Haywood was chosen for this work by Lenine after being recommended by certain radicals who had been deported from the United States," said District Attorney Clynne.

Haywood's time limit for reporting at the Leavenworth (Kan.) penitentiary, where he was scheduled to serve 20 years for obstructing war activities, expires Monday.

Farmers' Bodies Of Nebraska to Be Consolidated

Directors of All Buying and Selling Organizations Decide in Meet Here to Band Together.

All farmers' selling and buying organizations in Nebraska will join into one mammoth organization, it was decided Friday at a meeting of directors of these bodies at the Rome hotel.

Each state president of each organization becomes a member of a committee to meet in Omaha May 6 to formulate the plan of union, according to the unanimous vote of the directors Friday night.

The following organizations were represented: Farmers' union, Nebraska Farmers' Co-operative Grain and Live Stock association, Nebraska Co-operative Grain association, Farmers' Union State exchange, Farm Bureau federation and Wheat Growers' association. The Nebraska State union will also be represented in the committee.

Union of all the organizations is the only cure for the inevitable disorganization of farmers through too much organization, according to the opinions expressed at the meetings by J. W. Shortill, manager of the Co-operative Grain and Live Stock association; John McArdle, Carl Slat; of Edgar; John Haverkrost of Hooper; E. L. Shoemaker, J. R. Morrison, B. L. Peters of Albion, J. W. Norton of Polk, State Representative L. Lauritsen of West Point and Charles Graff of Bancroft.

Chicago, April 23.—Federal officials today said they had received information that "Big Bill" Haywood, former I. W. W. chief, who is believed to be in Russia, had gone to that country to become head of the propaganda bureau of the soviet government.

Haywood to Be Reds' Chief Propagandist

"We have information that Haywood was chosen for this work by Lenine after being recommended by certain radicals who had been deported from the United States," said District Attorney Clynne.

Haywood's time limit for reporting at the Leavenworth (Kan.) penitentiary, where he was scheduled to serve 20 years for obstructing war activities, expires Monday.

Teeth, the Great Builder and Preserver of Health

By DR. M'KENNEY

Do you feel worn out, fagged and "all in" at the end of your day's work?

The cause of this physical weakness, in all probability, is in the condition of your teeth. Hidden abscesses at the roots of the teeth pouring a stream of poison pus into the blood cause rheumatism, stomach and kidney troubles, heart and nerve affections and other fatal ailments.

Come in and have us make a thorough examination of your teeth. We will advise only the work you should have done and will tell you the exact cost.

This preliminary service is free and without obligation.
