

Wife Watches At Bedside of Dying Bandit

Girl Bride of Toledo Fugitive Says She "Will Stand by Him Through Thick And Thin."

Frank Seward is dying. His condition was reported very low at the St. Joseph hospital late yesterday afternoon. Late in the afternoon he had lapses of unconsciousness and fainting spells.

"Let me die here in the hospital like a white man. Don't send me back to Toledo. That means the electric chair."

Savage Is Silent. Harry Savage, alias R. N. Stack, held as an alleged partner of Seward, maintained his stolid silence at the Central police station yesterday.

"Bobby" James, pretty girl arrested with Savage, spent most of her time yesterday trying to console the Seward woman.

Officers from Toledo are on their way to Omaha to look over the quartet, according to a telegram received by the chief of detectives this morning, as well as officers from Dallas, Tex.

Seward and Savage are wanted in Texas for a mail robbery for which Seward was arrested and broke jail at El Paso, according to a telegram from the chief of El Paso police.

Pleads With Officers. "Please, oh, please let me go to him," pleaded the girl-wife to Chief Van Deusen.

"Send a guard with me, or anything. But please let me be with him, at least until he dies."

"I'll stand by him. He was a good fellow to me and I still love him in spite of all this trouble."

But it was a different story that came from the lips of the bandit who hospital attendants said was mortally wounded.

"Well, how are you feeling today," Detectives Danbaum and Palmtag, asked Seward as they stood beside his bed yesterday.

Wants to Die. "Oh, just let me die," was the bandit's answer.

"That's the only way I'll get out of this jam."

"I'd rather die here in the hospital like a white man than go back to the electric chair in Toledo," hospital authorities said he could not survive his wounds.

All through his conversation with the officers he cursed Arthur Foley, former Omaha man, convicted of complicity in the Toledo robbery, for turning state's evidence.

He strongly denied shooting either of the officers killed in the holdup.

He pleaded to officers to let his girl-wife visit him.

She is his second wife, he told officers Sunday. His first wife is in Detroit with their boy, he said.

She says her parents are Mr. and Mrs. R. Grant of Jacksonville, Fla. Savage served a year and a day in Leavenworth, records here show, following his conviction in 1917 in federal court for box car thefts.

When informed by a nurse that he had but 24 hours to live, Seward told Detective Palmtag and a Bee reporter that he wanted Detroit police to free three men now serving sentences in prisons for jobs he committed.

"It was me and three pals who held up three Atlantic Pacific Tea company stores last year in Detroit," he said. "They have the wrong boys. Please wire Detroit and see that those innocent boys are free."

Reward Is $2,000. Seward also stated that there was a $2,000 reward out for him on the Toledo robbery. He stated that he was glad that Omaha detectives were to share in the reward because of the kindness shown him since he was captured.

Seward also admitted participating in numerous holdups of the Piggy Wigly stores in Chicago. The largest haul he made in 11 years was in Pittsburgh, when he and three pals got $22,000, he said.

"But traveling, staying at good hotels and leading a fast life has kept me broke," said Seward.

Dying Toledo Fugitive, His Wife and Two Pals

"Bobby" James - Irene Stewart

Frank Seward. Harry Savage.

New Reparation Offer Is Made by Germany

(Continued from Page One.) Publication would not be made public, unless it had already been published by Germany or by one of the allies, to whom a copy or summary may have been sent.

War Council Meets

Paris, April 25.—(By The Associated Press.)—The French supreme war council, comprising Marshal Foch, Joffre and Petain and Generals Buat, Weygand and De Goutte, will meet this afternoon in the Elysee palace under the chairmanship of President Millerand.

Council Will Meet

Lympne, April 25.—(By The Associated Press.)—Final arrangements for the meetings of the supreme allied council to be held next Saturday were made by Premiers Lloyd George and Briand before they separated this morning, following their conference relative to German reparations. It was indicated the meeting would be held in London.

Britain to Aid France

London, April 25.—(By The Associated Press.)—Premier Lloyd George stated in the House of Commons this afternoon that if the new German reparations proposals, which had not yet been received, proved unsatisfactory, Great Britain would support France at next Saturday's allied conference in her proposals for the occupation of the Westphalian coal fields.

New York Society Leader To Enter Movies Is Word

New York, April 25.—Mrs. Lydig Hoyt, one of the most beautiful women in New York society, it was announced today, will enter the movies.

Alleged Slayer of Irish Cadet Is Hanged in Prison

Dublin, April 25.—Thomas Traynor was executed at Mountjoy prison this morning for the murder of Cadet Parrell, who was killed when ambushed here on March 14. Traynor's wife and 10 children stood in the crowd outside the prison and their cries were heartrending.

Tax Laws of State To Undergo Revision

(Continued from Page One.) and others whose tax-dodging proclivities are common knowledge are fighting it," Representative Rodman said.

Bread Prices Drop

Chicago, April 25.—The price of bread in Chicago will be reduced tomorrow, it was announced tonight. Wholesalers will charge 8 1/2 cents for the pound loaf and 12 1/2 cents for the pound and a half loaf. This is a cut of 1 1/2 cents on the small and 2 cents on the large loaf.

Lobbyists Active

The lobbyists centered their fight in the house. Night after night corporation attorneys and lobbyists bore down on the house committee on revenue and taxation. Finally, that committee weakened to the extent that it cut out the proposed tax on intangibles and average capital, but left the tax levying centralization feature in the bill.

Vote on Measure

For the bill: Anderson (Knox), Armstrong, Axtell, Beckman, Byrum, Davis, Douglas, Epperson, Franklin, Frantz, Frazier, Frost, Gilmore, Good, Goodrich, Gould, Green, Griswold, Jacobs, Jeary, Kendall, Lettwith, Lundy, McFarland, McKee, McLellan, McLeod, Mellor, Mickey, Miner, Morison, Mosley, Murphy, Nutznag, Perkins, Reed, Reneker, Rodman, Ruddy, Sandquist, Smith, Snow, Sommerlad, Sprick, Strong, Sturdevant, Ullstrom, Vance, Wallace, Westerhoff, Williams, Anderson (Speaker).

Two Men Found Shot Dead Beneath Overturned Car

Los Angeles, Cal., April 25.—Two men, believed from cards in their pockets to be Dr. Joseph M. Durand and Myron G. MacCauley, were found today shot to death in an overturned automobile in an outlying district of the city.

Race Horse Kills Girl

Picher, Okl., April 25.—A 5-year-old girl was killed and five persons were injured when a race horse dashed through the track fence into a crowd of spectators.

State Will Ask Death Penalty For 16 Villistas

Men Charged With Murder During Raid on Columbus, N. M., in 1918. Go on Trial Today.

Deming, N. M., April 25.—The death penalty will be asked for the 16 alleged Villista raiders whose trial opens in the district court here today on charges of murder, growing out of the raid of March 9, 1918, on the border town of Columbus, N. M., by a detachment of Francisco Villa's rebel troops, it was announced.

The announcement was made by District Attorney Forrest Fielder, who will direct the prosecution of the alleged members of Villa's band which killed 9 American civilians, including 1 woman, and 8 United States soldiers during the Columbus raid.

"I will ask the court to instruct for a verdict of first degree murder with the death penalty, or for an acquittal," Mr. Fielder said.

Unless the Mexican government comes to their aid by tomorrow morning, the 16 Villistas will go to trial represented by a public defender. The Mexican prisoners are facing their second charge of murder in connection with the raid, having been sentenced in 1916, pardoned by former Governor O. A. Larrazolo last November, and since that time re-arrested on new indictments returned before the pardon had become effective.

Vincent Visconte, Mexican consul at Columbus, is in El Paso in conference with the Mexican consul general in regard to possible steps the Oregon government may take in the defense of the Villistas, according to a statement here tonight by R. F. Hamilton, mayor of Deming, who has been appointed by the district court of Luna county to defend the prisoners.

Furious Attack Launched Against Greeks by Turks

Athens, April 25.—Furious attacks against Greek forces holding positions along the Meander river, in western Anatolia, have been launched by the Turkish nationalists, but have been repulsed everywhere, says an unofficial statement published here. The Greeks have been successful farther north in holding their positions against Turkish assault.

British Industry Paralyzed, Due to Coal Mine Strike

Many Firms Closed Down Or Running on Part Time Because of Fuel Shortage.

By AMBROSE LAMBERT. Chicago Tribune Cable, Copyright, 1921. Sheffield, England, April 25.—"No more than one or two firms are running at full time and it is doubtful whether they will continue long, owing to the coal situation. The remainder are running part time or else are closed down. The number of plants ceasing operations is increasing daily," said Albert Law, secretary of the Sheffield Chamber of Commerce, to a correspondent for the Chicago Tribune today.

"The city was enduring the biggest slump in its history prior to the coal strike," he continued, "and now conditions are worse. The latest figures show that 35,000 men, 6,000 women, 2,000 boys and 1,500 girls are out of work or are employed only a part of the time. The unemployed have increased 13,000 since the coal strike. Firms which a few months ago had two years of increasing daily," said Albert Law, secretary of the Sheffield Chamber of Commerce, to a correspondent for the Chicago Tribune today.

"The city was enduring the biggest slump in its history prior to the coal strike," he continued, "and now conditions are worse. The latest figures show that 35,000 men, 6,000 women, 2,000 boys and 1,500 girls are out of work or are employed only a part of the time. The unemployed have increased 13,000 since the coal strike. Firms which a few months ago had two years of increasing daily," said Albert Law, secretary of the Sheffield Chamber of Commerce, to a correspondent for the Chicago Tribune today.

"The city was enduring the biggest slump in its history prior to the coal strike," he continued, "and now conditions are worse. The latest figures show that 35,000 men, 6,000 women, 2,000 boys and 1,500 girls are out of work or are employed only a part of the time. The unemployed have increased 13,000 since the coal strike. Firms which a few months ago had two years of increasing daily," said Albert Law, secretary of the Sheffield Chamber of Commerce, to a correspondent for the Chicago Tribune today.

"The city was enduring the biggest slump in its history prior to the coal strike," he continued, "and now conditions are worse. The latest figures show that 35,000 men, 6,000 women, 2,000 boys and 1,500 girls are out of work or are employed only a part of the time. The unemployed have increased 13,000 since the coal strike. Firms which a few months ago had two years of increasing daily," said Albert Law, secretary of the Sheffield Chamber of Commerce, to a correspondent for the Chicago Tribune today.

"The city was enduring the biggest slump in its history prior to the coal strike," he continued, "and now conditions are worse. The latest figures show that 35,000 men, 6,000 women, 2,000 boys and 1,500 girls are out of work or are employed only a part of the time. The unemployed have increased 13,000 since the coal strike. Firms which a few months ago had two years of increasing daily," said Albert Law, secretary of the Sheffield Chamber of Commerce, to a correspondent for the Chicago Tribune today.

"The city was enduring the biggest slump in its history prior to the coal strike," he continued, "and now conditions are worse. The latest figures show that 35,000 men, 6,000 women, 2,000 boys and 1,500 girls are out of work or are employed only a part of the time. The unemployed have increased 13,000 since the coal strike. Firms which a few months ago had two years of increasing daily," said Albert Law, secretary of the Sheffield Chamber of Commerce, to a correspondent for the Chicago Tribune today.

"The city was enduring the biggest slump in its history prior to the coal strike," he continued, "and now conditions are worse. The latest figures show that 35,000 men, 6,000 women, 2,000 boys and 1,500 girls are out of work or are employed only a part of the time. The unemployed have increased 13,000 since the coal strike. Firms which a few months ago had two years of increasing daily," said Albert Law, secretary of the Sheffield Chamber of Commerce, to a correspondent for the Chicago Tribune today.

"The city was enduring the biggest slump in its history prior to the coal strike," he continued, "and now conditions are worse. The latest figures show that 35,000 men, 6,000 women, 2,000 boys and 1,500 girls are out of work or are employed only a part of the time. The unemployed have increased 13,000 since the coal strike. Firms which a few months ago had two years of increasing daily," said Albert Law, secretary of the Sheffield Chamber of Commerce, to a correspondent for the Chicago Tribune today.

"The city was enduring the biggest slump in its history prior to the coal strike," he continued, "and now conditions are worse. The latest figures show that 35,000 men, 6,000 women, 2,000 boys and 1,500 girls are out of work or are employed only a part of the time. The unemployed have increased 13,000 since the coal strike. Firms which a few months ago had two years of increasing daily," said Albert Law, secretary of the Sheffield Chamber of Commerce, to a correspondent for the Chicago Tribune today.

"The city was enduring the biggest slump in its history prior to the coal strike," he continued, "and now conditions are worse. The latest figures show that 35,000 men, 6,000 women, 2,000 boys and 1,500 girls are out of work or are employed only a part of the time. The unemployed have increased 13,000 since the coal strike. Firms which a few months ago had two years of increasing daily," said Albert Law, secretary of the Sheffield Chamber of Commerce, to a correspondent for the Chicago Tribune today.

"The city was enduring the biggest slump in its history prior to the coal strike," he continued, "and now conditions are worse. The latest figures show that 35,000 men, 6,000 women, 2,000 boys and 1,500 girls are out of work or are employed only a part of the time. The unemployed have increased 13,000 since the coal strike. Firms which a few months ago had two years of increasing daily," said Albert Law, secretary of the Sheffield Chamber of Commerce, to a correspondent for the Chicago Tribune today.

"The city was enduring the biggest slump in its history prior to the coal strike," he continued, "and now conditions are worse. The latest figures show that 35,000 men, 6,000 women, 2,000 boys and 1,500 girls are out of work or are employed only a part of the time. The unemployed have increased 13,000 since the coal strike. Firms which a few months ago had two years of increasing daily," said Albert Law, secretary of the Sheffield Chamber of Commerce, to a correspondent for the Chicago Tribune today.

"The city was enduring the biggest slump in its history prior to the coal strike," he continued, "and now conditions are worse. The latest figures show that 35,000 men, 6,000 women, 2,000 boys and 1,500 girls are out of work or are employed only a part of the time. The unemployed have increased 13,000 since the coal strike. Firms which a few months ago had two years of increasing daily," said Albert Law, secretary of the Sheffield Chamber of Commerce, to a correspondent for the Chicago Tribune today.

"The city was enduring the biggest slump in its history prior to the coal strike," he continued, "and now conditions are worse. The latest figures show that 35,000 men, 6,000 women, 2,000 boys and 1,500 girls are out of work or are employed only a part of the time. The unemployed have increased 13,000 since the coal strike. Firms which a few months ago had two years of increasing daily," said Albert Law, secretary of the Sheffield Chamber of Commerce, to a correspondent for the Chicago Tribune today.

"The city was enduring the biggest slump in its history prior to the coal strike," he continued, "and now conditions are worse. The latest figures show that 35,000 men, 6,000 women, 2,000 boys and 1,500 girls are out of work or are employed only a part of the time. The unemployed have increased 13,000 since the coal strike. Firms which a few months ago had two years of increasing daily," said Albert Law, secretary of the Sheffield Chamber of Commerce, to a correspondent for the Chicago Tribune today.

"The city was enduring the biggest slump in its history prior to the coal strike," he continued, "and now conditions are worse. The latest figures show that 35,000 men, 6,000 women, 2,000 boys and 1,500 girls are out of work or are employed only a part of the time. The unemployed have increased 13,000 since the coal strike. Firms which a few months ago had two years of increasing daily," said Albert Law, secretary of the Sheffield Chamber of Commerce, to a correspondent for the Chicago Tribune today.

"The city was enduring the biggest slump in its history prior to the coal strike," he continued, "and now conditions are worse. The latest figures show that 35,000 men, 6,000 women, 2,000 boys and 1,500 girls are out of work or are employed only a part of the time. The unemployed have increased 13,000 since the coal strike. Firms which a few months ago had two years of increasing daily," said Albert Law, secretary of the Sheffield Chamber of Commerce, to a correspondent for the Chicago Tribune today.

"The city was enduring the biggest slump in its history prior to the coal strike," he continued, "and now conditions are worse. The latest figures show that 35,000 men, 6,000 women, 2,000 boys and 1,500 girls are out of work or are employed only a part of the time. The unemployed have increased 13,000 since the coal strike. Firms which a few months ago had two years of increasing daily," said Albert Law, secretary of the Sheffield Chamber of Commerce, to a correspondent for the Chicago Tribune today.

Story of Hidden Gold Of Stage Robbers Is Told by Man in Jail

Billings, Mont., April 25.—Arrested here today on a larceny warrant issued in Missouri more than five years ago, M. F. Anderson told Chief of Police Talgo he was the victim of a "frame up" arranged by a partner who desired to get him out of the way so he could not share a buried treasure amounting to $83,000 which was hidden near the Wyoming-Montana boundary 40 years ago by a band of stage robbers.

The treasure has not been uncovered, but Anderson said he and his partner had just ascertained its hiding place after several years of search, guided by descriptions given them by the last member of the robber gang, who died five years ago in St. Louis. He tears now that when he is taken back to Missouri to answer the old charge, the partner will dig up the gold.

British Industry Paralyzed, Due to Coal Mine Strike

Many Firms Closed Down Or Running on Part Time Because of Fuel Shortage.

By AMBROSE LAMBERT. Chicago Tribune Cable, Copyright, 1921. Sheffield, England, April 25.—"No more than one or two firms are running at full time and it is doubtful whether they will continue long, owing to the coal situation. The remainder are running part time or else are closed down. The number of plants ceasing operations is increasing daily," said Albert Law, secretary of the Sheffield Chamber of Commerce, to a correspondent for the Chicago Tribune today.

"The city was enduring the biggest slump in its history prior to the coal strike," he continued, "and now conditions are worse. The latest figures show that 35,000 men, 6,000 women, 2,000 boys and 1,500 girls are out of work or are employed only a part of the time. The unemployed have increased 13,000 since the coal strike. Firms which a few months ago had two years of increasing daily," said Albert Law, secretary of the Sheffield Chamber of Commerce, to a correspondent for the Chicago Tribune today.

"The city was enduring the biggest slump in its history prior to the coal strike," he continued, "and now conditions are worse. The latest figures show that 35,000 men, 6,000 women, 2,000 boys and 1,500 girls are out of work or are employed only a part of the time. The unemployed have increased 13,000 since the coal strike. Firms which a few months ago had two years of increasing daily," said Albert Law, secretary of the Sheffield Chamber of Commerce, to a correspondent for the Chicago Tribune today.

"The city was enduring the biggest slump in its history prior to the coal strike," he continued, "and now conditions are worse. The latest figures show that 35,000 men, 6,000 women, 2,000 boys and 1,500 girls are out of work or are employed only a part of the time. The unemployed have increased 13,000 since the coal strike. Firms which a few months ago had two years of increasing daily," said Albert Law, secretary of the Sheffield Chamber of Commerce, to a correspondent for the Chicago Tribune today.

"The city was enduring the biggest slump in its history prior to the coal strike," he continued, "and now conditions are worse. The latest figures show that 35,000 men, 6,000 women, 2,000 boys and 1,500 girls are out of work or are employed only a part of the time. The unemployed have increased 13,000 since the coal strike. Firms which a few months ago had two years of increasing daily," said Albert Law, secretary of the Sheffield Chamber of Commerce, to a correspondent for the Chicago Tribune today.

"The city was enduring the biggest slump in its history prior to the coal strike," he continued, "and now conditions are worse. The latest figures show that 35,000 men, 6,000 women, 2,000 boys and 1,500 girls are out of work or are employed only a part of the time. The unemployed have increased 13,000 since the coal strike. Firms which a few months ago had two years of increasing daily," said Albert Law, secretary of the Sheffield Chamber of Commerce, to a correspondent for the Chicago Tribune today.

"The city was enduring the biggest slump in its history prior to the coal strike," he continued, "and now conditions are worse. The latest figures show that 35,000 men, 6,000 women, 2,000 boys and 1,500 girls are out of work or are employed only a part of the time. The unemployed have increased 13,000 since the coal strike. Firms which a few months ago had two years of increasing daily," said Albert Law, secretary of the Sheffield Chamber of Commerce, to a correspondent for the Chicago Tribune today.

"The city was enduring the biggest slump in its history prior to the coal strike," he continued, "and now conditions are worse. The latest figures show that 35,000 men, 6,000 women, 2,000 boys and 1,500 girls are out of work or are employed only a part of the time. The unemployed have increased 13,000 since the coal strike. Firms which a few months ago had two years of increasing daily," said Albert Law, secretary of the Sheffield Chamber of Commerce, to a correspondent for the Chicago Tribune today.

"The city was enduring the biggest slump in its history prior to the coal strike," he continued, "and now conditions are worse. The latest figures show that 35,000 men, 6,000 women, 2,000 boys and 1,500 girls are out of work or are employed only a part of the time. The unemployed have increased 13,000 since the coal strike. Firms which a few months ago had two years of increasing daily," said Albert Law, secretary of the Sheffield Chamber of Commerce, to a correspondent for the Chicago Tribune today.

"The city was enduring the biggest slump in its history prior to the coal strike," he continued, "and now conditions are worse. The latest figures show that 35,000 men, 6,000 women, 2,000 boys and 1,500 girls are out of work or are employed only a part of the time. The unemployed have increased 13,000 since the coal strike. Firms which a few months ago had two years of increasing daily," said Albert Law, secretary of the Sheffield Chamber of Commerce, to a correspondent for the Chicago Tribune today.

"The city was enduring the biggest slump in its history prior to the coal strike," he continued, "and now conditions are worse. The latest figures show that 35,000 men, 6,000 women, 2,000 boys and 1,500 girls are out of work or are employed only a part of the time. The unemployed have increased 13,000 since the coal strike. Firms which a few months ago had two years of increasing daily," said Albert Law, secretary of the Sheffield Chamber of Commerce, to a correspondent for the Chicago Tribune today.

"The city was enduring the biggest slump in its history prior to the coal strike," he continued, "and now conditions are worse. The latest figures show that 35,000 men, 6,000 women, 2,000 boys and 1,500 girls are out of work or are employed only a part of the time. The unemployed have increased 13,000 since the coal strike. Firms which a few months ago had two years of increasing daily," said Albert Law, secretary of the Sheffield Chamber of Commerce, to a correspondent for the Chicago Tribune today.

"The city was enduring the biggest slump in its history prior to the coal strike," he continued, "and now conditions are worse. The latest figures show that 35,000 men, 6,000 women, 2,000 boys and 1,500 girls are out of work or are employed only a part of the time. The unemployed have increased 13,000 since the coal strike. Firms which a few months ago had two years of increasing daily," said Albert Law, secretary of the Sheffield Chamber of Commerce, to a correspondent for the Chicago Tribune today.

"The city was enduring the biggest slump in its history prior to the coal strike," he continued, "and now conditions are worse. The latest figures show that 35,000 men, 6,000 women, 2,000 boys and 1,500 girls are out of work or are employed only a part of the time. The unemployed have increased 13,000 since the coal strike. Firms which a few months ago had two years of increasing daily," said Albert Law, secretary of the Sheffield Chamber of Commerce, to a correspondent for the Chicago Tribune today.

"The city was enduring the biggest slump in its history prior to the coal strike," he continued, "and now conditions are worse. The latest figures show that 35,000 men, 6,000 women, 2,000 boys and 1,500 girls are out of work or are employed only a part of the time. The unemployed have increased 13,000 since the coal strike. Firms which a few months ago had two years of increasing daily," said Albert Law, secretary of the Sheffield Chamber of Commerce, to a correspondent for the Chicago Tribune today.

"The city was enduring the biggest slump in its history prior to the coal strike," he continued, "and now conditions are worse. The latest figures show that 35,000 men, 6,000 women, 2,000 boys and 1,500 girls are out of work or are employed only a part of the time. The unemployed have increased 13,000 since the coal strike. Firms which a few months ago had two years of increasing daily," said Albert Law, secretary of the Sheffield Chamber of Commerce, to a correspondent for the Chicago Tribune today.

"The city was enduring the biggest slump in its history prior to the coal strike," he continued, "and now conditions are worse. The latest figures show that 35,000 men, 6,000 women, 2,000 boys and 1,500 girls are out of work or are employed only a part of the time. The unemployed have increased 13,000 since the coal strike. Firms which a few months ago had two years of increasing daily," said Albert Law, secretary of the Sheffield Chamber of Commerce, to a correspondent for the Chicago Tribune today.

"The city was enduring the biggest slump in its history prior to the coal strike," he continued, "and now conditions are worse. The latest figures show that 35,000 men, 6,000 women, 2,000 boys and 1,500 girls are out of work or are employed only a part of the time. The unemployed have increased 13,000 since the coal strike. Firms which a few months ago had two years of increasing daily," said Albert Law, secretary of the Sheffield Chamber of Commerce, to a correspondent for the Chicago Tribune today.

"The city was enduring the biggest slump in its history prior to the coal strike," he continued, "and now conditions are worse. The latest figures show that 35,000 men, 6,000 women, 2,000 boys and 1,500 girls are out of work or are employed only a part of the time. The unemployed have increased 13,000 since the coal strike. Firms which a few months ago had two years of increasing daily," said Albert Law, secretary of the Sheffield Chamber of Commerce, to a correspondent for the Chicago Tribune today.

"The city was enduring the biggest slump in its history prior to the coal strike," he continued, "and now conditions are worse. The latest figures show that 35,000 men, 6,000 women, 2,000 boys and 1,500 girls are out of work or are employed only a part of the time. The unemployed have increased 13,000 since the coal strike. Firms which a few months ago had two years of increasing daily," said Albert Law, secretary of the Sheffield Chamber of Commerce, to a correspondent for the Chicago Tribune today.

"The city was enduring the biggest slump in its history prior to the coal strike," he continued, "and now conditions are worse. The latest figures show that 35,000 men, 6,000 women, 2,000 boys and 1,500 girls are out of work or are employed only a part of the time. The unemployed have increased 13,000 since the coal strike. Firms which a few months ago had two years of increasing daily," said Albert Law, secretary of the Sheffield Chamber of Commerce, to a correspondent for the Chicago Tribune today.

"The city was enduring the biggest slump in its history prior to the coal strike," he continued, "and now conditions are worse. The latest figures show that 35,000 men, 6,000 women, 2,000 boys and 1,500 girls are out of work or are employed only a part of the time. The unemployed have increased 13,000 since the coal strike. Firms which a few months ago had two years of increasing daily," said Albert Law, secretary of the Sheffield Chamber of Commerce, to a correspondent for the Chicago Tribune today.

"The city was enduring the biggest slump in its history prior to the coal strike," he continued, "and now conditions are worse. The latest figures show that 35,000 men, 6,000 women, 2,000 boys and 1,500 girls are out of work or are employed only a part of the time. The unemployed have increased 13,000 since the coal strike. Firms which a few months ago had two years of increasing daily," said Albert Law, secretary of the Sheffield Chamber of Commerce, to a correspondent for the Chicago Tribune today.

"The city was enduring the biggest slump in its history prior to the coal strike," he continued, "and now conditions are worse. The latest figures show that 35,000 men, 6,000 women, 2,000 boys and 1,500 girls are out of work or are employed only a part of the time. The unemployed have increased 13,000 since the coal strike. Firms which a few months ago had two years of increasing daily," said Albert Law, secretary of the Sheffield Chamber of Commerce, to a correspondent for the Chicago Tribune today.

"The city was enduring the biggest slump in its history prior to the coal strike," he continued, "and now conditions are worse. The latest figures show that 35,000 men, 6,000 women, 2,000 boys and 1,500 girls are out of work or are employed only a part of the time. The unemployed have increased 13,000 since the coal strike. Firms which a few months ago had two years of increasing daily," said Albert Law, secretary of the Sheffield Chamber of Commerce, to a correspondent for the Chicago Tribune today.

Marine Engineers Call Strike for May 1

New York, April 25.—The Marine Engineers' Beneficial association today issued a strike proclamation to take effect on May 1. This announcement was made after their representatives broke off negotiations with the American Steamship Owners' association who have been holding conferences regarding a new working agreement.

The union leaders asserted that 100,000 firemen, oilers and water tenders would support the move and predicted that the strike might develop into international proportions, as the British engineers had deferred negotiations with their employers until April 29, in order to await the outcome of the American situation.

Currency Revaluation May Be Cut From Tariff

Washington, April 25.—Currency revaluation provision of the house emergency tariff bill may be struck out by the senate finance committee which held a brief executive session today.

It was admitted that a clash with the house would follow.

Marine Engineers Call Strike for May 1

New York, April 25.—The Marine Engineers' Beneficial association today issued a strike proclamation to take effect on May 1. This announcement was made after their representatives broke off negotiations with the American Steamship Owners' association who have been holding conferences regarding a new working agreement.

The union leaders asserted that 100,000 firemen, oilers and water tenders would support the move and predicted that the strike might develop into international proportions, as the British engineers had deferred negotiations with their employers until April 29, in order to await the outcome of the American situation.