Buttaloes Usher in Western League Season by Trouncing Oklahoma City

Mayor Smith Pitches First

Ball to Gamble

Everett Buckingham Swings at His Honor's Offering, But Hits Nothing But The Wind.

Dick Breen's Westerners received an unexpected setback yesterday afternoon at the Omaha league park. when Barney Burch's formidable Buffaloes trounced the Oldahoma City entry in the flag chase by the score of 9 to 5.

Amid the cheers of one of the largest crowds that has ever attended an opening contest here, the Buffaloes and Sooners got off to a fast start soon after Mayor Ed P. Smith donned an Omaha cap and heaved the first ball. The city's chief executive was in rare form as the sphere went directly over the plate. Everett Buckingham, president of the Board of Governors of the Ak-Sar-Ben, made a wicked swing at the mayor's offering, but he hit nothing but the wind. All of which pleased the grandstand as well as his honor.

John W. Gamble of the Chamber of Commerce turned out to be the "masked marvel" behind the bat. He tried to stop the mayor's delivery, but the horsehide traveled at such a ter-rific rate of speed that the Chamber of Commerce executive decided to step to one side and permit the sphere to continue on its course. Previous to Mayor Smith's appear ance on the field, members of both teams, led by Gladys Peters, queen of Ak-Sar-Ben, John W. Gamble and Everett Buckingham, marched around the park, pulling behind them a float on which was a giant rooster. Barney Burch, president of the Omaha Buffaloes, was perched atop the rooster and seemed content to let his teammates and opponents pull him around the diamond, Fastened to the dome of the giant roster was a pennant which read: "The Top Perch is Ours," meaning, of course, that the Omaha club will be nesting at the head of the percentage column at the close of the season. The score
