City Would Be Haunt Of Criminals Under Old Gang, Says Sutton

"Omaha will become a dumping ground for the criminal element if the old gang is elected. Big cities all over the country are cleaning house. It is my opinion that criminals will come here to rest and distribute their plunder in safety," declared Judge A. L. Sutton, speaking at the University of Omaha Thursday.

"The biggest attack that has ever been made on a man since I came to Omaha has been made on J. Dean Ringer. Every law violator in the city is opposed to him. I entered this fight for J. Dean Ringer. Omaha's salvation depends upon his election."

Confidence

The people have confidence in— HARRY B. ZIMMAN

And confidence is the greatest asset of a public official. In order to be efficient, a public official must have the respect and trust of the people.

When the street car employes threatened to strike Mr. Zimman was chosen as mediator by both factions. He negotiated a settlement and averted a strike.

He has acted as mediator in settling many labor controversies.

Both Employer and Worker Have Confidence in Him.

His civic record is a history of battles for the interests of the people.

Safeguarding the People's Pocketbook

has been W. G. Ure's job throughout his public service as a county commissioner, city and county treasurer and city commissioner.

As County Commissioner

he enforced economy, restricted graft and fought for a dollar's worth of service or material for every dollar spent.

As Treasurer

he collected back taxes from tax shirkers, arranged for the retirement of bonds and payment of warrants wherever possible and set new standards of efficiency in the office.

As City Commissioner

he practiced economy as well as preached it, enforced the separation of bond accounts from current expense funds, paid off maturing bonds.

For twenty years W. G. Ure has been an outstanding figure in every campaign for clean, honest and efficient city government in Omaha.
