in a slam-bang frolic at the Western league park yesterday afterwoon, the Oklahoma City Sooners crept up another notch in the circuit standings when they hit two Buffalo hurlers hard during the early part of the game and trounced the Omahans by the score of 9 to 1.

The southerners concentrated most of their attack during the second, third and fourth innings when Om-aha errors, coupled with Sooner hits resulted in a total of eight runs for Oklahoma.

Dick Breen's proteges found Harry Baumgartner, first Omaha twirler, soft pickin's in the second inning. scoring four runs on a double, two singles and two errors. Glasier was sent in to relieve his teammate in the second and succeeded in weathering the storm. He allowed the Sooners eight safe swats at the horsehide, one of these being a

The Sooners gave their hurler good support throughout the contest. The fielding of the entire team was clever. Shanley, at shortstop, together with Heatley and Graham at second and first, respectively, formed combination that caused the Buffalos no small amount of trouble.

Harper led the Sooners to victory in the second when he doubled to Heatley sent another swat sailing through shortstop and Har-per skipped down to third. Graham landed on first when a Buffalo made a bobble and Harper scampered across the pan. Wright strolled to the plate and placed a nice bunt between home and the box. Pitcher Baumgartner heaved the sphere to Haney in an attempt to nab Graham at second, but the Sooner was resting on the bag and Haney then whipped the ball to Lelivelt to catch Wright at first.

first, but Lelivelt was nowhere to be found, and during the mixup Heatley and Graham came home with the third ally. Parker knocked the ball against the rightfield boards for a double and gave right a taxi home.

The real test of a police force is its success in checking crime. That is what it is for.

City Commissioner Ringer's administration is a success by that test

Despite claims to the contrary by biased politicians, Ringer has enforced the law.

The Policeman's News (published in New York

"The loss of property by crime in Omaha during the year 1920 decreased 37 per cent over the year 1919. "The county attorney in 1920 secured convictions in 311 criminal cases. Of this number 285 pleaded guilty. The police department had secured such complete evidence in these 285 cases that the criminals simply laid down in their battles for freedom and took their medicine rather than go to trial."

This magazine has no interest in Omaha city elections. Its word as to conditions in Omaha is unbiased and impartial.
