OCIETY editors are seriously considering sending out an S. O. S. when they view the multiplicity of affairs scheduled for the months of May and June. Not only are there to be numerous prenuptial parties, d many, many weddings, but the outdoor clubs will again open their gates and society will throng into them to dance and dine (but not to was presented with a Newcomb pot-

Directors of Happy Hollow club are more than wise, for they have thosen a night for their formal opening when that club will have undivided attention. Their first dinner dance, which will really be an informal affair is to be held on Saturday evening, May 14. During the season dinner dances will be given every Tuesday and Saturday evening. The weekly luncheons for women will be on Thursday, and the thildren's matinee dances will be held on Thursday afternoons.

Country club and Field club must share honors on their opening nights, for both of them have chosen Saturday evening, May 21. It is quite probable that the members of these will motor from one to another furing the evening, in order to participate in the gayeties of both openings. At County club the regular dinner dance will be held on Wednesday and Saturday evenings, as they will also be at Field club. At the latter,

The Chance for Happiness.

Dear Miss Pairfax: About a year ago, through business, I met a man 15 years my senior who is separated from his wife and working for a divorce. I know quite a few people who know him and speak very highly of him. For my opinion, he is my ideal man. Now, Miss Fairfax, he has shown his love for me as plainly as a man in his position should. Shall I wait for him or try to forget him? "UNDECIDED."

Miss Vernelle Head will lead the "Flirtation Song," an attractive feature number of the Omaha Junior League Revue, to be held at the Gayety theater the afternoon and evening of May 7. The chorus of pretty girls who will assist her include: Misses Eleanor Burkley, "ADVERTISEMENT"

He flushed a brick-red, and evidently casting about wildly for some action to show her his recognition of her rank, and his apology for the annoy-ance to which she had been subjected, he put his hand to his cap in a military salute.

"I Thought I Told You-"

I looked quickly at the three men who were spectators of the little scene. On the faces of Jones, the chauffeur, and Ted, the son of the owner, there was mirrored intense interest, a great deal of amusement, but no particular surprise. I decided that while they could not have known the particular nature of the discomfiture which Lillian had intended to administer to the man who Ted I say had aggrieved her, yet they had anticipated from her manner something surprising and humiliating.

Says His Prescription Has Powerful Influence Over Rheumatism

Mr. James H. Allen suffered for years with rheumatism. Many times this terrible disease left him helpless and unable to work.

He finally decided, after years of ceaseless study, that no one can be free from rheumatism until the accumulated impurities, commonly called uric acid deposits, were dissolved in the joints and muscles and expelled from the body.

With this idea in mind he consulted physicians, made experiments and

With this idea in mind he consulted physicians, made experiments and finally compounded a prescription that quickly and completely banished every sign and symptom of rheumatism from his system.

He freely gave his discovery to others who took it, with what might be called marvelous success. After years of urging he decided to let sufferers everywhere know about his discovery through the newspapers.
