Wide Variety of Extension Work Done in Nebraska

Report on 1920 Activities of College of Agriculture Shows Many Specialists Employed.

The work which the college of agriculture is doing out in the state promore more profitable farming set forth in a recent annual report of the college's extension service. During 1920, county agricultural agents, county home agents, and specialists sent out by the college assisted farmers, farmers' wives and families, and farmers' organizations in 76 counties of the state. A large amount of work was done to promote better methods of marketing, improved crops, better live stock, modern farm homes, conveniences for farm women, boys and girls clubs, rural women's clubs, county and community fairs, community organizations and other interests organizations and other interests of Riley will be delighted with the which make for more productive and fidelity to detail in this latest Ray more profitable farming and more satisfying rural life.

There are now 44 county agriculeconomics who go out from the col- a chorus girl. lege to assist the county agents in ieir problems.

The extension specialists last year confined to organized counties, for love with Norbert, a poet. only 44 counties have farm bureaus. In other counties assistance was given farmers' union locals, boys clubs, breeders' associations, the publie schools, and various other organizations interested in the welfare of agriculture.

For several years the college has been distributing quaitities of improved grains among farmers, hoping to eventually materially increase the total yields of the state. This where men meet their souls face to last few years and last fall more than 60 carloads of wheat was seed- with ruthless, destructive hands. ed. In order to provide sources of pure seed of these various improved grains, the college established an inspection and certification service whereby farmers may know where to buy and what they are buying

The college's extension work in the interest of improved live stock last year consisted largely in its campaign for the use of purebred sires. Working in co-operation with the United States department of agriculture, the college has encouraged will attend the State Association of several hundred Nebraska farmers o replace their sires with purebreds, and the movement for better stock is rapidly obtaining a firm foothold been prompted and 20 counties have either erected them or are planning to do so. County breeders' organi-

The prosperity of Nebraska farmers in the last few years have resulted in the construction of many modern homes. The college has given material assistance in this work, providing a large number of blueprint plans and holding demonstrations in many counties to show the possibilities of remodeling old houses and otherwise improving living conditions. Forty-nine water systems and 21 sewage disposals system were installed at demonstrations last year. Twenty-four demonstrations were given in the planning of farm-steads and buildings. Sixty-three drainage systems and a number of irrigation systems have been planned and installed through assistance given by the college's extension spec-A large amount of work has been done to demonstrate the control of insect and rodent pests. With the assistance of the United States department of agriculture, surveys were made of areas infested with pocket gophers and prairie dogs and definite steps taken to organize farmers for the extermination of these pests. Nearly 2,000 farmers in 23 counties co-operated in this work. An infestion of San Jose scale among he orchards of Howard county last year was surveyed and controlled by the extension service.

Road Engineers of Third

District Submit Reports York, Neb., May 1.—(Special.)— Delegates from the Third district, department of public works, met in this city to hear reports of the engineers, Wright and Porter, for the year's maintenance work. The counties in this district are York. Polk, Burler, Hamilton, Merrick, Colfax, Hall, Adams, Clay, Fillmore, Web-ster, Nuckolls, Thayer and Jefferson. The plan as outlined by the engineers is to have all road work uniform throughout the district, all road grades are to have a width of 24-foot crown. All of the 13 counties were represented.

Buys Controlling Interest

In Bank at Endicott, Neb. Endicot, Neb., May 1.—(Special.)
-A controlling interest in the Endicott bank has been bought by C. W. Slaughter, formerly of this place, but now a resident of Fairbury. Mr. Slaughter was postmaster in Endicot years ago, also ran a general store here and later farmed a tract of land near town. He has purchased the new home of Mr. Hodges, who has retired from the bank here and will probably go to Kansas City.

Chicago Builders Stop Work To Force Reduction in Wages

Chicago Tribune-Omaha Bee Leased Wire. Chicago, May 1.—May day sees building in Chicago practically at a standstill. When the noon whistles olew Saturday the lockout announced by the two associations of builders who do 85 per cent of the work, went into effect. Work was sus-pened on structures worth more than $35,000,000 which are either in process of erection or for which contracts have been let. About 10,000 building craftsmen joined the army unemployed-the activities closed down by the lockout gave employment to about 20 per cent of the 48,000 or 50,000 men in the building trades in Chicago.

Neither side in the wage controversy budged during the day, nor were there signs of changed attitude. The builders repeated that work would not be resumed until a reduction in wages to $1 an hour for skilled men and 70 cents for un-skilled labor is accepted.

Youth of U. S. Dancing to Hell, Declares K. C. Judge

Kansas City, May 1.—The youth of America is "dancing its way to hell" through the public dance halls and movies, according to Judge E. E. Porterfield of Kansas City. Severely arraigning the public dance hall and moving picture house as one of the greatest evils leading to vice among children yet in their teens, Judge Porterfield turned from the usual "curtain lecture" of the youthful delinquents who had been arraigned before him in the juvenile court, and scored the parents of America who permit their children, particularly girls, to attend the movies or public dances unescorted. "The courts nor the schools can make good children out of bad, nor keep children good so long as this practice is continued."

SPEED Get 100,000 Extra Votes This Week In the OMAHA BEE'S $25,000 "Help Yourself Club"

100,000 extra votes will be given to every club member who turns in $25.00 in subscriptions to the Omaha Bee before Saturday night, May 14th, at 10 p. m. Each dollar over the $25.00 you send in will earn 4,000 additional votes. The more you send in the more votes you get, and the closer you are to winning the beautiful home in Minne Lusa.

Send in your subscriptions as fast as you get them. Don't wait until the end of additional votes credited to you.

ENTER TODAY—TAKE ADVANTAGE OF THE EXTRA VOTE OFFER But two weeks remain of the biggest and best extra vote offer. That means opportunity for everyone who wants to win one of the 27 awards to be given by The Omaha Bec.

FUTURE SUBSCRIPTIONS In some cases club members will find friends who will be glad to help, but are now paid in advance for some other paper, and do not want two papers at one and the same time. In order that the club members may secure these subscriptions, we have arranged to accept and issue vote certificates to cover such subscriptions and will hold the subscriber's credit on our books and not start the paper until the subscriber wishes. In sending in such subscriptions, be sure and mark on the remittance sheet the date the paper is to be started to the subscriber. WHERE TO WORK We again emphasize the fact that a club member residing in one district is not restricted in eny way as to the locality in which he may secure subscription payments and free vote coupons.

The object in dividing the territory into the eight districts was to assure each candidate that a certain number of prizes would be awarded in their immediate vicinity. Club members should not allow their supplies to run out before requesting more. If you need more receipt books, remittance sheets, count slips or any other supplies, anticipate your wants so that the H. Y. S. Department may send them to you at once,

NAMES BEING REMOVED

Many names are being removed from the list daily. These are people who are not going to take an active part. Their places are being taken by live, active workers, people who appreciate that these awards are worth the effort of anyone. There still remain many localities that are either not represented, or the club member is not active. If your community is represented poorly, send in your name and make the effort.

The club member who enters today has eight weeks in which to work. The person entering the Help Yourself Club today and winning the capital award, the $7,800.00 home, would be recompensed for his efforts at the rate of $985.00 per week. Figure it out for yourself on the
