Beebe Holds Omaha While Witches Win, 6-0

Lanky Wichita Hurler Allows Buffaloes Seven Scattered Hits-Visitors Hit Burch Hard.

By RALPH WAGNER. ANK ISBELL'S

Witches from Wichita, Kan., took advantage of Barney Burch's offerings during the first five in-nings of yesterday's game and scored six runs, enough to shut taloes by the score of 6 to 0. The Witches started jumping Manager Burch at the very first of the contest, which by the way, was the first of a three-series in this burg. A walg, sacrifice and single resulted in the first tally, and in the second two errors and the same number of singles registered a marker, while a double, sacrifice and an Omaha bobble was the cause of Wichita's third tally. A double, hit batsman, error, passed ball and ingle allowed the visitors to chalk up three scores in the fifth.

After the visitors had stirred up his fuss. Manager Burch sidetracked himself in favor of Bert Glasier. The latter hurled good all during the remainder of the game, allowing the league leaders only one bingle, that being an infield swat.

Beebe Hurles for Witches.

Manager Berger of the Witches enjoyed better luck. He used only one hurler, Beebe by name. This lanky pitcher from Jayhawker land held the Buffaloes helpless during the nine frames. He allowed seven hits, of which two were doubles, by Lelivelt and Ryan. Two Buf-taloes hit the wind for strikeouts. His control was good throughout as he failed to permit a single member of the local herd to advance to first without first giving his teammates a chance to handle the sphere.

"Dad" Beebe kept the Buffalo hits scattered, and when the locals Reisigl, p landed on the ball the Wichita hurler would tighten up, with the re-

In the fourth inning Ryan singled and managed to get around to third, but Lelivelt grounded out and the Buffalo third-sacker was left at his own position. Lelivelt was first up in the seventh, and when he clouted the ball to the right field boards for a double, things started to pick up for the Buffaloes, but the next three players popped out and the chances of scoring a tally faded away.
