Girl Saved From

Jail Sentence by

Juvenile Jurist Exacts Retrac tion of Imprecations Hurled

Against Court; Geneva

Sentence Pronounced.

Willis G. Sears, juvenile judge threatened to have pretty Miss Eva

Brown, University Place, Neb. thrown into the county jail unless she made an instant apology for imprecations she had hurled at the court, during yesterday's session. Miss Brown came to Omaha yesterday to defend her sister, Dorothy Brown, 16, of 524 North Seven-teenth street, who was charged with associating with vicious and immoral people. She was accompanied by her elderly father, W. T. Brown.

Judge Sears sentenced Dorothy to the Geneva home for girls.

Apology to Court

Boycott Aimed At C. of C. by Labor Unions

Circulars to Be Sent 15,000 Families by Union; Co-Operative Bank Included in Plan.

"The Chamber of Commerce is the bunch we are after," declared Secretary John Gibb of the Building Trades council yestreday just after a committee of labor heads had authorized mailing of a circular to 15,000 Omaha families friendly to union labor, calling on them to boycott stores "unfriendly" to unionism.

"The Chamber of Commerce," declared Mr. Gibb, "has done all it can to make Omaha an 'open shop' city and to abolish unions. It has even advised members who own stores to demand cash from all laboring men who are now holding out against the 20 per cent wage reduction which the contractors demand be put into effect.

Credit Withdrawn.

"Already we are forced to buy many things outside of the city be cause of the withdrawal of credit. There will be no hardship in confin-ing our trade in groceries, hardware, furniture, etc., to two certain stores, because we get 25 to 40 per cent discount on such things at those stores." Mr. Gibb said the various unions have $600,000 on deposit in Omaha banks. This is to be withdrawn, he said. The boycott will continue, he declared, until the "big interests" recognize the demands of union labor and prevent the lowering of wages in building trades.

J. David Larson, commissioner of the Chamber of Commerce, denied that the chamber had taken any ac-tion in the way alleged by Mr. Gibb.

Plan Co-Operative Bank.

"The Chamber of Commerce has carefully kept clear of any contro-versy with union men regarding wages or making Omaha an 'open shop' city," he said.

Labor unions of Omaha Friday night took first steps looking to possible establishment of a co-operative bank as part of their contemplated action to boycott all local banks. This is a development of the present differences between the building trades unions and the building contractors on the wage question.

The meeting of Central Labor union also voted to boycott all local grocery and dry goods stores with the exception of two, Bradley, Merriam & Smith and the Farmers Union State exchange which recently opened a retail department.

15,000 Affected.

Union men say this endorsement of the boycott resolution by Central Labor union means that between 10,000 and 15,000 men are under immediate obligations to cease buying at the boycotted stores.

Regarding the proposed bank Secretary Gibb of the Building Trades council, said that farm bodies, particularly the Nonpartisan league, will co-operate in establishment of such an institut

Farmer Declines Citation; Fears Epithet "Stool Pigeon'

William H. Franssen of St. Libory Neb., appeared in the federal prohibit tion officer at Omaha yesterday to "let the world know" that he was not one of those "jiggers they call a stool pigeon.

Mr. Franssen had been cited in a report to Washington for meritorious work accorded federal prohibition officers in assisting them to round up alleged moonshiners.

"I helped them, but I didn't squeal on any one," the healthy farmer declared

Mr. Franssen also denied that he was the person who purchased liquor from two bellboys at the Hotel Paxton.

Mr. Franssen also resents the report that he was a member of the "flying squadron" of federal sleuths that operated in Omaha two months ago.

Condemn Censorship Veto The Elkhorn Valley association, composed of ministers and delegates representing 30 Congregational churches, condemned Governor Mc-Kelvie for vetoing the moving pic ture censorship bill.

"He uses the same line of logic in defending his action as was used in defending the saloon," say the resolutions. "and says in effect that i men don't want their wives, sisters and children insulted they should keep them away from places where men of careless conscience roam un-restricted."
