Day We Celebrate

Mother's day, someone has said, everywhere so he made mothers." allegor, written for the children, for the grown folks: Once upon a time to earth to spend the day in the cities and the gardens. En- vided a beautiful rose and it was the most beautiful thing in the world that." Then beyond the valley and it said, "That is I will take that." Then beyond the valley I saw a Mother's Love blossom of heartsease and pain and weakness of the heart is even more beautiful. I will avenward, it stopped just outside its treasures. It found that the smile had faded away, but it was as fresh and as fragrant as the earth. As the gates of heaven opened, it marched down the path along its precious prize and it trooped after it, it was the one thing I found in all the way from earth to
