THE BEE: OMAHA, FRIDAY, MAY 13, 1921.

Little Activity Displayed Toward Hurrying Action to End War With Germony By Resolution.

Washington, May 12,-Notwithstanding Germany's acceptance of the allied reparations demand, little ectivity was displayed by house leaders toward hurrying the Knox resolution ending the war with the entral powers.

Representative Porter of Pennsylcania, chairman of the house foreign viairs committee, said he had no plans for calling his committee toacther to consider the peace resolu-

Although the reichstag's declara- | dent." tion to bow to the allied ultimatum ad cased the situation somewhat, he said, he still saw no necessity for haste on the peace resolution. He declared there would certainly be no meeting of the committee this week and he was uncertain about what would happen next week.

Guarding American Rights.

Mr. Porter held a conference with homas Miller, alien property custodian, to go over features of the resolution relating to the disposition of the German property now held by the United States. He said he wanted to make sure that all American rights were thoroughly protected in this respect. He also is giving close study to the question of protecting the rights of American shipowners who are fearful of discrimination egainst them abroad unless the privileges they were to receive under the Versailles pact are fully reserved.

Lively and extended discussion of the whole international sitution. with particular reference to President Harding's recent declaration to resume participation in European councils, is expected to break out in the senate tomorrow or the next day in connection with consideration of the naval bill.

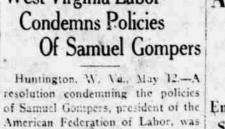

Various measures dealing with disarmament will be brought before the senate and these probably will lead to general debate for foreign attairs.

British Labor Leader Gets Hostile Greeting

New York, May 12.-J. H. Thomas, general secretary of the National Union of Railway Men of Great Britain, encountered a hos-tile demonstration on his arrival on the Olympic.

Men and women who styled themselves as representatives of the Irish-American labor league, assembled at the pier bearing banners criticising Thomas for his action in the settlement of the threatened strike of the triple alliance in England last month, when he urged the miners to accept a resumption of negotiations with Premier Lloyd George.

"They are entitled to thei inion," Thomas said. He said he their
