Save Dollars

Care used in saving and caring for all fat obtained from cooking meat in the home will save many a dollar which otherwise would have to be spent for butter, lard or other cooking fats. Fats derived from the cooking of bacon, ham, chicken, beef and other meats should be kept, each in its own receptacle, to be used for different purposes.

Household specialists in the United States Department of Agriculture say an old-fashioned method of clarifying fat from the soup kettle or from cooked meats so that it may be used in the kitchen is to add the cold fat to a liberal quantity of cold water, then heat slowly and let cook for an hour or more. When cold the cake of fat is removed and the lower portion, which will conshould be scraped away and the white, clean fat saved. If the flavor or color, or both, are not satisfactory the process may be repeated several times. Another method often recommended is to cook a number of slices of raw potato in the boiling fat.

When an ice chest is used fat in small quantities may easily be kept sweet for cooking purposes. If lard is rendered at home in quantity sufficient for a long time it should be kept covered in tins or earthen jars in a cool, dry place, as in a cellar or storeroom.

Russian Fluff.

Cooked rice, any cold leftover meal. Put through chopped toma toes. Salt and pepper.

Put a layer of cooked rice in baking dish, next a layer of meat, then rice again, and repeat. Have top layer of rice. Four over all about one and one-half cupfuls of tomatoes. Bake in oven about three-quarters of an hour. If I have any gravy I add it to layer of meat.

You must say Puritan

Just try this bacon once and you'll find it is to your advantage to say Puritan each time you buy. In fact you must say Puritan if you expect Puritan quality.

Puritan Bacon is the first selection of tender, finely grained, young meat which has been smoked uniformly over smoldering hickory embers, imparting that flavory taste.

Say Puritan next time you order bacon-or ham. Puritan is truly extra delicious.
