

Club Opening Parade of Fashions

A gala event was the opening of the Country club Saturday evening. The Country club set was well represented at the first dinner-dance of the season as were the dainties for Dame Fashion for the summer. Democracy in dress is the keynote nowadays and the most delectable evening gowns unblushingly rub shoulders with sports costumes.

A rainbow of color were our "buds" and their older sisters and their mothers. Of course, some always cling to the more somber shades, but their drabness was relieved by the daring colors of the others. Short skirts, long skirts, tight bodices, long-waisted blouses, anything, everything, in the matter of dress was to be seen.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Hamilton, Jr., and Miss Marion Hamilton entertained a party at dinner. Their guests were Messrs. and Mesdames Milo Gates, Lewis Burgess, Victor Caldwell, Jr., Miss Reginald Connell, Emily Keller, Helen Smith, Captain McFarland, James Moody, George Metcalfe and Malcolm Baldrige.

Mr. and Mrs. C. W. Hamilton, Sr., had as their guests Mr. and Mrs. C. N. Dietz, Mr. and Mrs. M. W. Wall, Mrs. Frank Hamilton, Mrs. Warren Rogers, Earl Gannett and Frank Burkley.

Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Sprague entertained at dinner for Mr. and Mrs. John A. McShane of Coronado Beach, Cal. Included in the party were Mr. and Mrs. David Baum, Mr. and Mrs. W. R. McKee, Mr. and Mrs. H. H. Baldrige and Mr. and Mrs. Victor Caldwell with as her guests Messrs. and Mesdames C. M. Wilhelm, A. J. Love, Edward L. Burke, M. T. Jarlow, Mrs. Charles Offutt, Mrs. George Lunt of Pasadena, and J. F. Stout.

Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Young entertained in their parlor. Mrs. Young, Henry Doory, Mr. and Mrs. Harley Moorhead, Mr. and Mrs. S. S. Caldwell, Mrs. Mary Merrow and Dr. W. O. Bridges.

Omaha Girl Wins Scholarship

Abba Bowen.

An honor has been conferred upon an Omaha girl, Miss Abba Bowen, instructor in French at Smith college, who has received a fellowship for study abroad.

Twelve fellowships in the United States were offered by a Belgian educational foundation fund, one of which went to Smith college, and through that institution, to Miss Bowen. She will report in Belgium, October 1, at the university of her choice in that country.

She will sail in August for Europe but in the meantime will visit in Omaha, returning here at the close of her year's work in the east.

The fellowship is a very desirable one, offering not only the student privileges, but extensive opportunities for travel, including theaters and musical advantages. Miss Bowen has previously studied in Germany.

She is a graduate of Central High school and had charge of the modern language department at Peru before going east.

Miss Bowen is a daughter of Mrs. William R. Bowen of this city and a sister of Miss Lila Bowen.

Poppy Day.

Mesdames Donald Macrae, M. A. Tintley, Grant Augustine, E. E. Spelman and Clara Bonham have been chosen as captains for the sale of poppies on the streets of Council Bluffs, Saturday, May 28.

With these capable ladies to direct the work, and about 150 willing young girls to aid in the sale of the flowers, no one, next Saturday should be without a poppy, which they will be expected to wear on the following Monday, Decoration day.

This undertaking is being sponsored by the American Legion, which has adopted the poppy as a National Memorial flower, and with the co-operation of the auxiliary, and all public-spirited individuals, a large amount of money will undoubtedly be realized for the fund to aid ex-service men temporarily or permanently confined in hospitals, whether or not they are members of the American Legion.

Some cities have chosen other means for the disposition of their poppy-day fund, but in Council Bluffs this money will be used to purchase flowers, candy, tobacco, chocolate, magazines and other treats, for any and all world-war soldiers who have the misfortune to be physically disabled.

Furnishing The Home

Many young house furnishers face the problem of seeking artistic furniture at moderate prices. In one four-piece suite the chairs are of the barrel type, roomy and comfortable. One is a rocking chair, the other is a large arm chair. The settee is likewise of the barrel type.

The table is round, about 36 inches in diameter. It is large enough to hold tea fixings or a lamp or one's favorite magazines. The furniture comes in a choice of finishings. A very attractive finish is black enamel. Walls painted in plain neutral gray. With woodwork of either white or gray and hangings of black and white cretonne would form an appropriate background for the black and orange suite.

For dining room furniture there are painted woods. A large sized drop-leaf table with four chairs finished in soft gray with artistic touches of orange form one set. The chairs are the old Dutch type ladder back chairs and the table ends are carved to a curve harmonizing with the quaint curve of the "rungs" in the ladder of the chairs.

For the dark room of the house there is a charming breakfast set of canary yellow with a stencilled or wicker-looking little dragon of silver and blue. This suite consists of a table, with its drop leaves raised, could easily accommodate eight. Besides the table, there are four chairs and the best most exact replica of the old Dutch sideboard, with its plate rail, that I have seen outside of the exclusive antique shops.

Neat, well-made, white enameled iron beds, single size, are ideal as well as inexpensive. For the bedroom a red chair well made, in a baronial design, roomy, restful yet small enough to fit into the tiny apartment bedroom, may be had with gay cretonne on the seat and back cushion.

The Association of Collegiate Alumnae entertained a party of 70 at luncheon Saturday and the Nebraska chapter of Founders and Patriots of America had 30 guests for luncheon.

Mr. and Mrs. William Burton had as their guests for the dinner-dance at Happy Hollow club Saturday evening Mr. and Mrs. William Bryden and Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Potter.

Among others who entertained at the dinner-dance were: George B. Darr, who had 10 guests; Morton Wakeley, seven; B. F. Marshall, six, and W. R. Ransey, six.

New Hair Growth After BALDNESS

On legal affidavit, John Hart Britain, business man, certified to this: "My baldness at the top and back was absolutely bald. An expert said that he thought the hair roots were extinct, and there was no hope of my ever having a new hair growth."

"Yet now, at an age over 66, I have a luxuriant growth of soft, strong, lustrous hair! No trace of baldness. The pictures shown here are from my photographs."

INDIANS' SECRET OF HAIR GROWTH

Mr. Britain certified further: "At a time when I had become discouraged at trying to grow my hair again, I came across, in my travels, a Cherokee Indian 'medicine man' who had an elixir that he asserted would grow my hair. Although I had but little faith I gave it a trial. To my amazement a light fuzz soon appeared. It developed, day by day, into a healthy growth, and ere long my hair was as profuse as in my youthful days."

True Hair Grower at Last

"That I was astonished and happy in expressing my state of mind when I held, widely. Obviously, the hair roots had not been dead, but were dormant. My hair was simply awaiting the fertilizing potency of the then mysterious pomade. I negotiated for and came into possession of the principle for preparing this, now called KOTALKO, and later had the recipe put into practical form by a chemist. That my own hair growth was permanent has been amply proved."
