Martial Law Has > O Been Declared In West Virginia

Troops Take Command of Tug River District Along West I Virginia-Kentucky Border.

By ARTHUR M. EVANS. hiengo Tribune-Omaha Bee Leased Wire. Williamson, W. Va., May 21.-Martial law was declared in Mingo county last night by Gov. E. F. Morgan. The proclamation was brought here by Maj. Thomas B. Davis, acting adjutant general of West Virginia. He is commanded to take charge of the military occupation of the Tug river coal region fighting grounds. The proclamation declares a "state of war, insurrection, and riot" exists in Mingo county. It says further that "large bodies of armed men have assembled in the mountains" and fired into public and other buildings and shot up passenger trains, whereby many lives and much property have been destroyed. It proclaims that "riot and bloodshed is still rampant and pending" and that the county officials have declared their inability to control the situation and quell the insurrection. So the county is put under martial law until the necessity ceases to exist. The civil court, however, are not to be affected; habeas corpus is not to be set aside as it was in some other states in similar stretss. Union leaders declared they would remain on the ground. Another strike call was issued, calling out the mine workers, in an effort to close down production. W. Farnam Smith & Co., Union Men to Plan Own

Bank at Mass Meeting

Actual preliminary arrangements for a big labor union bank in Omaha will be made at a mass meeting of union men in the Labor temple Sunday afternoon at 3. This was decided at the session of the Central Labor union last night when enthusiastic speeches in favor of such an institution were made by lead-ers in all crafts.

"There will be a bank owned by labor in Omaha. That muchasis sure," declared Anthony Donahoe, Representatives from Council Bluffs, Lincoln and other cities, and from farming communities will also attend the Sunday meeting. Refer-ence was made last night to the bank owned by the Brotherhood of Locomotive Engineers in Cleveland and its phenomnal success. Static

Oregon Apple Petrified

By Moonshine Whisky

Sutherlin, Ore., May 21.-Ten years ago W. E. St. John, president of the Oregon Growers' Co-opera-tive association, placed a Spitzenberg apple in a jar and covered it with a liquid mixture intended to preserve it for exhibition purposes Recently he removed the apple and found it to be stone-petrified, even to a portion of the stem. St. John does not recall the formula used in preserving the fruit, but is inclined to believe the mbc ture was very similar to that now being used by bootleggers in the man-REAL ESTATE-IMPROVED Miscellaneous. Dodge Street, $1,000 Cash.
