

Conference On Appointments May Be Delayed

Gosper County Man Flips Derby Into Race for United States Marshal—Visit At Quantic.

By E. C. SNYDER. Washington Correspondent Omaha Bee. Washington, May 21.—(Special Telegram)—The meeting of the Nebraska delegation to consider recommendations for federal appointments scheduled for Saturday may be postponed. The funeral of Chief Justice White and the fact that a new candidate for United States marshal has appeared are reasons given for the proposed postponement.

R. L. Bragg of Elwood, Neb., chairman of the republican county committee of Gosper county, is the new applicant. A letter from Mr. Bragg to Congressman Andrews informed him that endorsements are on the way.

Give All a Chance. Mr. Andrews said that he believed in giving every republican who desired to be a candidate for public office a chance to be heard and in view of the yeoman services Mr. Bragg and his committee did for the congressman last year he was particularly anxious to have the meeting of the delegation scheduled for tomorrow go over until Mr. Bragg could get his recommendations before the delegation.

Due to the organization built up by Mr. Bragg, Gosper county, which is normally democratic by from 200 to 300 majority, gave but one majority for Mr. Andrews' opponent in November.

Mr. Andrews is also moving to get an additional mail car placed on the McCook-Imperial line of the Burlington to supplement the one car now in service.

Entertain "Alfalfa Queen." Judge Kinlaid, in honor of Mrs. J. M. Bacon, the "alfalfa queen" of Gothenburg, Neb., his constituent, gave a dinner at the Congress Hall hotel. L. M. Brown, secretary to Governor Davis of Idaho and a former Sixth district resident, was among the guests.

Congressmen Take Trip. Congressmen Jeffers, McLaughlin, Evans and Andrews were among the 240 members of the house who went on a pilgrimage to Quantico, Va., as guests of Secretary Denby of the navy, who had placed the president's yacht, the Mayflower, at the service of the party. The visit was educational to a degree. Mr. Jeffers met a number of boys from Omaha who are training at Quantico.

Iowa Treasurer Flees; Accounts Are Short. Osceola, Ia., May 21.—An alleged discrepancy of $11,000 has been discovered in the accounts of County Treasurer C. W. Judkins, who left here yesterday by automobile, leaving no word as to his destination. Attorney General Ben J. Gibson arrived today to direct the investigation of the county treasurer's office.

Judge Homer Fuller of the district court issued an order removing Judkins from office pending investigation. He also ordered the granary to be reconveyed immediately to the lender charges against Judkins. The shortage is said to have been originally discovered by state examiners, when they examined Judkins' books on March 9.

Judkins, who is 30, was serving a third term as county treasurer. State Insurance Officer Takes Over Health Company. State Insurance Commissioner W. B. Young and Assistant Attorney General T. J. McGuire took charge of the Nebraska State Health and Accident Insurance company yesterday.

Mr. Young, assisted by Insurance Examiner Fred A. Bailey, were given the keys of the office at 116 South Fourteenth street and began going over the books. J. E. Von Dorn, an attorney and president of the company, declared today he doesn't know just where he is "at." The director of the company just quit, he said. He declared the company is solvent. It has about 700 policyholders, most of them negroes.

Huge Barn Near Tabor Is Burned by Incendiaries. Tabor, Ia., May 21.—The huge barn on the Will Goy farm, near here, was burned in what is believed to be an incendiary fire. Two large cribs containing 4,000 bushels of corn also were burned. Some pigs and cattle, 10 horses and mules were burned. About $2,000 insurance was carried by Mr. Goy, which is about one-fifth of the actual loss.

Mrs. McFayden, Formerly Of Omaha, Dies in Norfolk. The body of Mrs. Grant McFayden, formerly of Omaha, is being brought to Omaha and will lie in state at the home of her uncle, E. H. Barrett, 315 South Thirty-seventh street, until Monday when it will be taken to Dunlap, Ia., for burial. Mrs. McFayden died in Norfolk Friday. She was married two and a half years ago.

Mme. Curie Dedicates Mines' Laboratory

Washington, May 21.—Madame Marie Curie, the Polish scientist who received a gram of radium yesterday from President Harding, set in motion today the machinery of the new low temperature laboratory of the Bureau of Mines. A distinguished gathering of government officials and prominent scientists from all parts of the country was present to welcome Mme. Curie and to witness the dedication ceremonies.

Due to fatigue, which made it impossible for her to remain at the laboratory more than a few minutes, Mme. Curie was unable to deliver a dedicatory address. The ceremonies were curtailed, Mme. Curie replying briefly to addresses of welcome by Dr. H. Foster Bain, director of the bureau, and Dr. R. B. Moore, chief chemist of the bureau.

36 Business Men All Set for Big Omaha Trade Tour

Special to Leave Union Station Monday Morning With Jazz Band Aboard to Preach Optimism.

Eighty-six business men representing as many firms are ready to hop off on the first lap of the annual Omaha trade extension tour which is scheduled to start Monday morning. The special train which will carry the party will leave the Union station early Monday morning. Everything on board has been arranged for the comfort of the travelers, who will make the train their home during the trip. They will eat and sleep on the train.

Band Along. Dan DesDunes band of 25 "jazz hounds" will accompany the tourists and play lilted, toe-tapping music at every station. The unaphone, used so successfully at the Ak-Sar-Ben Den, has been installed in the baggage car and will be played by Roy Armstrong, one-armed player, who handles a mean lead with his right hand and a wicked base with the artificial one. For noise there is a siren whistle on the engine to announce the arrival and departure of the special. All the tourists will be supplied with bells and sundry other noise making contraptions.

Falls City First Stop. Falls City will be the first all-night stop. W. A. Ellis, assistant commissioner of the Chamber of Commerce received word Saturday morning from there that there would be a big party for the tourists Monday night at the Elks home.

Cliff Brookes of Fairbury has also notified Mr. Ellis that when the tourists arrive there they will be given a regular welcome with a specially prepared program of "stunts" thrown in. At each all-night stop the travelers will be entertained, according to reports, in regal style.

"We go out to preach the gospel of better business and to make acquaintances in our trade territory," Mr. Ellis said. "We know business has been bad in some ways, but by preaching optimism we hope to make business better."

"Everybody Happy" After Conferences On Seamen's Strike

Washington, May 21.—After another day of conferences between Secretary Davis and representatives of the Marine Engineers Beneficial association and one conference between the secretary and Chairman Benson of the shipping board, in an effort to reach a settlement of the marine wage controversy, Secretary Davis announced tonight that "everybody was feeling happy."

The results which have been obtained in keeping in operation practically a normal number of ships, the statement added, "demonstrates that a great percentage of the men appreciate the fairness of the position of the shipping board in agreeing to only such wage reductions and other changes as are absolutely imperative under the new economic conditions."

Chairman Benson issued a statement in which he said that "the compromise wage scale now in effect is the maximum scale at which the shipping board can operate ships and any talk of a further compromise is idle."

An Uncorseted Feeling

Is the Result of Wearing a Correctly Fitted Bien Jolie Corset

This is not at the sacrifice of a trim appearance either, for the days of the heavily boned, stiff material corset is past. The leading "modistes" of the country do not desire the elimination of corsets entirely, but a natural, gracefully curved figure outline is essential. One season during which the corset does not play an important part will result in spreading of the figure until it is impossible to wear the clothes of the day. Soft Grecian treco with pliable whalon boning make up the BIEN JOLIE CORSETS.
