

Message of Hope For Democrats Given by Bryan

Five Mediums Outlined by Which He Says Control Can Be Wrested From Republican Party.

Columbus, O., May 24.—William J. Bryan brought a message of hope and cheer to members of the Jefferson club at their picnic Monday. "If any one can reach the gospel of hope, it is the man who has been resurrected so many times that death seems commonplace," he said, in reference to his appearance. Leading up to his subject, "Democracy's Opportunity," Mr. Bryan mentioned five mediums through which the democratic party might rise to success. He named them as a national bulletin for the dissemination of unbiased political news and party opinions, prohibition, reduction of taxes, proper alignment of monopolies and disarmament as a feature of world peace. "The most crying need is the maintenance of unpolitized channels of information so that the public may know what is going on at Washington," he said. Mr. Bryan suggested a tentative plan for his proposed national bulletin and added: "We want a daily paper to be issued by the government whose news columns shall be nonpartisan, but whose editorials shall be bipartisan." On the issue of prohibition Mr. Bryan said: "The democratic party can not avoid the part it has had in bringing prohibition. I am proud of its part. But I am not proud of the part it has played in Ohio." Discussing monopolies, he said that where there was any excuse for the existence of one, it should be taken over by the government. Plutocracy, he said, was the breeding place for revolution. Mr. Bryan's chief hopes for the future of the democratic party lie in the matter of taxation, he said. "And it is true, he said, that he expected to see a new party leader arise."

Wife Loves Another, Is Husband's Reply To Divorce Petition

Mrs. Lela Farnberg.

His wife loves Otto Nilsson, Omaha realtor, John A. Farnberg of the O'Donnell Grain company, charges in an answer he filed yesterday to his wife's recent divorce petition. His wife told him so, Farnberg asserts. The grain man also charges his wife with reckless extravagance. She spent $40,000 since their marriage in 1916, principally for wardrobe, he states. Mrs. Farnberg, who was Lela Lavance before their marriage, accused her husband of cruelty and a violent temper and said he passed worthless checks which she was forced to call upon his parents to make good. Farnberg denies he ever asked his wife for money from her private income or ever pawned her diamond rings. He seeks furnishings of their home at 2228 Emmet street and to restrain her from receiving alimony.

Station Operator Accused of Series Of Mail Robberies

Pleads Intoxication When Caught With Pouch at Falls City—Federal Indictment Sought.

Falls City, Neb., May 24.—(Special.)—Held in the Richardson county jail under a 20-day sentence for intoxication is Joseph E. Ouellet, alias H. J. Rochet. Ouellet claimed intoxication as the excuse for his being caught in the basement of the Burlington railroad station here May 19 with a pouch of United States mail. But when the federal grand jury meets at Lincoln Thursday, federal officers will seek Ouellet's indictment for alleged mail thefts, claiming that he is responsible for a series of robberies which have puzzled authorities in Nebraska and neighboring states for three years. Ouellet is an expert telegraph operator. He held the key at the local station August 3, 4 and 5, 1918. On August 5, a mail pouch was stolen, with over $3,000 in currency. Ouellet left shortly afterwards and returned only a few days before the robbery with which he is charged. He was charged with carrying with him a pouch of liquor and was fined $100, which he paid. He claimed that he was intoxicated when he took the mail pouch and was then charged with that offense in order to permit his being held until the grand jury meets.

Girl Artist Visits Here On Cross Continent Hike

To satisfy curiosity somewhat, like the small boy who broke open his new watch to see what made it tick, Miss Eleonora Rouden, New York City, is making a hike from New York to San Francisco to see what makes the country "go," to learn the origin of its many products. She arrived in Omaha yesterday and left on her hike westward in the afternoon. She wore the regulation khaki breeches, o. d. shirt, walking shoes and her curly hair bobbed. In all the large cities she stops and visits factories and industrial plants, and at one place descended into a coal mine to satisfy her craving for knowledge. The trip to her is purely educational and being an artist and member of the Art Students' league of New York, she makes sketches along the way which she returns to New York. She also helps out with a camera. So far Miss Rouden has hiked 1,600 miles, except for a hike occasioned in automobiles, and since April 2 when she started, she has spent less than $50. People she meets are so hospitable "they just won't take pay for lodging and meals," she declares.

Davis Slain and Thrown in River, Is New Theory

Wife Confident Husband Murdered—Broken Glass Found on Bank of Elk Horn Link in Case.

Grand Island, Neb., May 24.—After two hours' interview between Sheriff McCutchan and County Attorney Suhr and Mrs. Aaron "Wingie" Davis, whose car was driven into a country lane and left there Sunday morning, no doubt remained in the minds of either that Davis had been murdered and his body disposed of somewhere between here and Omaha. Mrs. Davis was positive in her statement here, though it conflicts with statements made in Omaha papers, that the motive was to get Davis out of the way for "knowing too much." She says she had one car confiscated for alleged framed-up dope-delivering escapade, naming a former showman, Anderson, and an unnamed negro government official as the men who induced him to get the drug for Anderson. She said Davis' trial was postponed from Saturday to today. She positively identified the car as her husband's and was very anxious to regain possession of it, but the sheriff emphatically declined the proposal. On the way out, per automobile, Mrs. Davis and party said, they noticed some broken glass at this end of the bridge over the Elkhorn. Parts of the broken windshield glass were taken along to compare as to thickness with the glass at the bridge. It is a possible theory that it was there that Davis' murderers slew him and threw the body in the river. County Attorney Suhr is quite convinced that all has not as yet been told and that the motive was not robbery. Intimate acquaintances of "Wingie" Davis told Omaha detectives today they believe "Wingie" is still alive. Detectives Danbaum and Pranzowski, who have been working on the case, maintain the opinion "Wingie" has been killed by someone who was a victim of a "double-cross."

Laborer Confesses To Arson in Firing Building at Wymore

Lincoln, May 24.—Thomas Henderson, day laborer of Wymore, Neb., signed a written confession last night that he was guilty of arson, according to Deputy State Fire Warden Hauser, who was present when the confession was made, together with Deputy United States Marshal Carroll and State Sheriff Hyers. Henderson in his confession says he set fire to a business building at Wymore Sunday night. Deputy Warden Hauser filed a charge against him. Henderson, who roomed upstairs in the Dockel building on Main street, was arrested for drunkenness early Sunday morning. The room was found to be saturated with kerosene which had been ignited. He was taken to Beatrice for further investigation as to where he obtained his liquor and the starting of the fire which is said to be his second attempt within a month.

Ab Waggoner, Former Live Stock Man, Dies

After an illness of three weeks following an operation, Ab Waggoner, 78, former live stock commissioner, resident of Omaha, died Monday afternoon in the Methodist hospital. He is survived by his wife and a granddaughter, Mrs. Arthur B. Dunbar. He was a charter member of the Chicago Live Stock exchange and aided in the organization of the South Omaha Live Stock exchange, coming to Omaha in 1886. He was a Mason. Funeral services probably will be held Wednesday afternoon at 2. Burial will be at Osceola, Ia.

Omaha Youth Hit By Train, Killed

Lad on Way to Chicago in Search of Work Comes To Death.

Arthur Brightwell, 17, son of Mr. and Mrs. S. O. Brightwell, 2579 Hartman avenue, was instantly killed when he was struck by Burlington fast mail train No. 8 near Mendota, Ill., yesterday. Arthur left home last Thursday, his mother said yesterday just after she received a message of his death. "He couldn't get work here and he was on his way to Chicago to work on one of the Lake Michigan boats," she said. "I received a card from him just this morning, written at Sheridan, Ia. It said: 'Dear mother: I am on my way to Chicago to get a job on a lake boat like I did last summer. I will write you again when I get the job. I am all right and hope you and the rest are the same. With lots of love, your son, Arthur.' It is a railway mail clerk. They have two daughters younger than Arthur. Arthur was their only son. The body will be brought back to Omaha for burial."

Accident Fails to Stop Rickenbacker

Los Angeles, May 24.—After announcing once he would abandon plans to fly across the United States, because of damage to his airplane in making a landing here Monday, Capt. Eddie Rickenbacker, former American ace, changed his mind today and decided to continue his flight tomorrow. He found it possible to repair his plane with parts of another plane. He said he would start at noon tomorrow for San Francisco. He planned to leave that city at dawn Wednesday night, stop at Omaha Wednesday night, leave there early Thursday morning and arrive at Washington Thursday night. In Washington he plans to attend a banquet commemorating the sailing of the Baltic, May 28, 1917, with the first of the American expeditionary forces for participation in the world war, including himself and General Pershing. Capt. Rickenbacker smashed the propeller of the machine in making a landing here. Mud on the landing field caused damage to the machine. Captain Rickenbacker was not injured. A single implement that can be placed at any convenient place on an automobile serves as a primer, de-carbonizer or auxiliary air inlet.

Blue Law Base Ball Case Up For Trial

Jury Will Pass on Guilt of Dakota League Official.

Redfield, S. D., May 24.—Arraignment of Jacob Koerner, secretary of the local base ball club of the Dakota league, who was arrested yesterday on a charge of violating the "blue laws" by charging admission to Sunday's game, was set for this afternoon in the court of Justice Gillett. It is understood a request for a trial by jury will be made. Mr. Koerner was arrested yesterday on a complaint signed by the Rev. Koonay of Tulare, where the Redfield and Wapeton-Breckenridge games were played Sunday. He was charged specifically with violation of that section of the "blue laws" which forbids playing of base ball Sunday when admission is charged. It is the contention of President Michael Cantillon of Minneapolis, president of the league, who is here for the case, that no admission was charged to Sunday's game. Fans who desired to see the game free were permitted to do so, he said, but those who parked their automobiles or sat in the grandstand were charged for the privilege.

Omaha Heads Synod

Dr. C. F. Sandahl of Omaha was elected president and Rev. F. J. Elm of Bertrand secretary of the Augustana synod of the Nebraska Lutheran church conference held at Swedehome, Neb., Monday.

HELP YOURSELF CLUB

A Remarkably Queer Thing

That is our candid opinion of it. Why is it that so many of the present members are not getting down to "brass tacks" and making a running that will give them an opportunity to secure one of the big awards? One would think that with the offer of a high grade motor car for a couple of weeks' endeavor, they would be flooding the office with subscriptions and loading up with votes. That $1,625.00 Overland Sedan will pay its owner at the rate of $500.00 a week. Many of the other awards at a larger rate. Has anybody offered you a better job? Just three weeks of work and a classy little boat of your own. Well, some folks don't know a good thing when they see it. A whole lot of opportunity is going to waste out through those sections of the states of Nebraska and Iowa covered by The Bee. Many have been the instances where the residents have wanted The Bee, but have never been solicited for their subscriptions. And most of these are in sections where there is no active member of the Help Yourself Club. The folks had rather have The Bee than any other paper, but have had the idea that The Bee did not reach them.

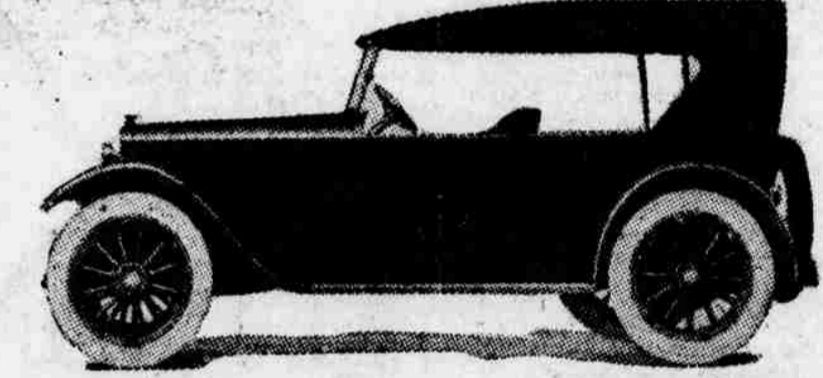

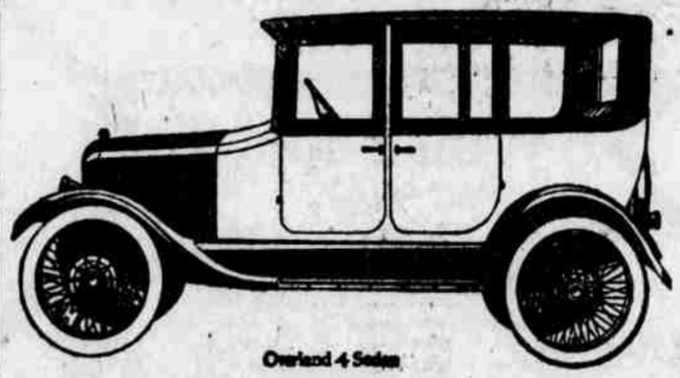

Somebody could get to work in those territories and swing an awfully big vote. Who can't get subscriptions to The Bee? One young lady doubted it. She knew the awards were worth going after, so she decided to try it. A very little time gave her several. She is now an enthusiastic member of the Help Yourself Club. Don't you suppose that other folks know as well as you the improvement made in The Bee in the past year. They know as well as you that The Bee is the best paper in Nebraska. What if a person is taking another paper? Get them to give you a subscription to the best paper, The Bee, to start when their present subscription to the other paper ends. Just mark such a subscription on your remittance sheet, "Paper to begin delivery on (Date). Look at the value of the list of awards. This is no "piker" or cheap affair. It is the opportunity of "live ones." The money value of these awards is the largest offered in this community. 1921 will reward fighters.

SPECIAL ADDITIONAL AWARDS

These Two Automobiles Will Be Awarded to the Members Sending in the Greatest Amount of Cash Subscriptions From Now to June 4, 1921

$1,625.00 Overland 5-Passenger Sedan, purchased from Van Brunt Automobile Co. Five wire wheels. Body, Overland blue; fenders, wheels, hood and top, black.

$1,350.00 5-Passenger Gardner purchased from the Western Motor Car Co. Special equipment of side wings, extra tire and tire covers and motor-meter.

NOTES FOR MEMBERS AND NON-MEMBERS

Subscriptions count three ways right now—regular votes, extra votes and cash value toward the special additional awards of the Overland and Gardner cars. As an example, we will take a $25.00 subscription. First, it is worth 250,000 votes under the regular vote schedule; then you get 76,500 extra votes under the offer of 75,000 additional votes for each $25.00 in subscriptions; also you receive a credit for $25.50 to apply on your effort to secure the special award of the Overland and Gardner cars. Remember the remittance sheets and receipts. Don't run out. It appears the population of District 4 had been materially decreased since the last census—elaw why the small corporal's guard represented in the list of members. We can't see how many members over there can fail to secure awards. Highest published vote today is less than 200,000. The campaign manager says: "Oh, you folks out in the state. If you knew what I know of your opportunities and if you would only let me tell you personally what I know. Some wonderful starts and finishes can be made through the state right now."

There is a Burroughs Adding Machine in the Help Yourself Office, which was installed to tabulate the votes. It has not been busy enough to hurt it any. 75,000 extra votes for each $25.00 in subscriptions and 3,000 extra votes for each and every dollar over the $25.00. The extra vote offer expires June 4th. Make hay while the sun is hot and subscriptions count most. Do you cut these notes out and save them? Sometimes there are selling helps in them. A $7,800.00 Home, and it looks as though only a few people wanted it. If you don't want it, you can sell it. Have you a copy of the Help Yourself Club booklet? There are plenty to go around. Call or write for yours. The Help Yourself Club office is at 312 Peters Trust building (Bee building). The mail address is H. Y. S., Omaha Bee, Omaha, Neb. Many of your neighbors want to subscribe for The Bee. The list of votes published on page 9 contains votes received and counted up to 3:00 p. m. Saturday last.

Big Extra Vote Offer

Take advantage of this extra vote offer, which expires at 10:00 p. m. June 4th. For $25.00 in subscriptions you will receive 75,000 extra votes and for each dollar in excess of $25.00 you will receive 3,000 extra votes. These are in addition to the regular votes as given in the schedule. There is no limit to the extra votes you may gain in this offer; $30.00 will give you 90,000 extra votes.

The $28,000 List of Awards:

- 1--$7,800.00 Home, First Capital Award
1--$4,440.00 Cadillac, Automobile
1--$1,500.00 Conservative B. & L. Deposit
8--$1,115.00 Maxwell Automobiles
8--$200.00 Building & Loan Deposits
8--$100.00 Building and Loan Deposits
1--$1,625.00 Overland Sedan
1--$1,350 Gardner 5-Passenger Automobile
Total Number of Awards - - - - - 29
Ten per cent cash commission to all non-winners if they turn in $50.00 or more.

Man Held as Train Robbery Suspect Is Unknown Here

Scranton, Pa., May 24.—Frank J. O'Boyle, for five years chief of police of Carbonale, is in the Lackawanna county jail on suspicion of being the man who held up a train near Omaha in 1908 and afterward escaped from the federal prison at Leavenworth while serving a life sentence. The prisoner declares he will be able to furnish an alibi. His measurements and finger prints have been forwarded to Leavenworth.

Grand Island Man Seeks Bright Lights, Loses Cash

Herbert Scott came down to the city from Grand Island Monday to see the bright lights and have a good time. He went to watch the wild west movies at a lower Douglas street theater and when he came out he fled to the police. Some pickpocket had gone through him for $20 cash and his annual pass on the Union Pacific railroad.

Harrisburg Pastor Named Clerk by Presbyterians

Winona Lake, May 24.—The Rev. Louis Seymour Judge of Harrisburg, Pa., was elected clerk of the Presbyterian church in the United States at the 133d general assembly here today. He will take office April 1, 1922. There were three other candidates but Mr. Judge received 727 of the 882 votes cast.
