Member of Chamber Says . America Has Right to Impose Conditions in Execution of Treaty.

By The Associated Press.

Paris, May 26 .- An appeal to America to step in and find a solution to the European situation was voiced by M. Noblemaire in the chamber of deputies today during discussion of the government's foreign policy. "The coming hour is the hour of America," he said. "She has not signed the treaty, but she has her word to say. Why should not America impose precise conditions. for the execution of certain clauses of the treaty; for instance, reparations? We look to America for the return of normal conditions in Europe. Premier Briand, again replying to criticism, said:

"Kissing Blonde" In

Murder Case Found Chicago, May 26.-The "kissing blonde," the young woman with whom Herbert P. Ziegler was seen dancing in a North Side cabaret just a few hours before he was killed by Mrs. Cora Isabelle Orthwein, was located today. She is Miss Beatrice Brenner, according to a statement by Assistant State's Attorney Lloyd Heath, who is to prosecute the murder charge against Mrs. Orthwein. The trial was continued until next Tuesday. Ever since the morning of March when Ziegler, district manager for a tire company, was slain in the apartment of Mrs. Orthwein, the search for the "kissing blonde" has gone on relentlessly. It is believed she will be able to reveal the secret motive which led Mrs. Orthwein to shoot Ziegler after a wild drinking party and a lovers' quarrel earlier in

Anglo-American Press

Conference Is Planned London, May 26.—(By The Associated Press.)—Lord Burnham, in behalf of the Empire Press union, of which he is president, today invited American newspapers to send delegates to an Anglo-American press conference here within the next year to further the good relationship between the two peoples.

British branch of the Sulgrave in-Lord Burnham declared such a press conference would do much to purify the atmosphere and cement the ties of friendship between England and the United States.
