New York Takes First and Loses Second to Braves

Kelly's Hitting Is Factor in Giants' Victory-Nixon Injured in Attempt to Nab Burns' Homer.

Boston, May 26 .- New York won the first game, 5 to 3, and Boston took the second, 4 to 3, in today's double-header. Poor fielding by Boston and Kelly's hitting were responsible for the Giants' victory. Nixon crashed into the left field wall in the first contest, trying to get Burn's drive, which eventually went for a home run. Nixon was carried off the field with several minor sprains which will keep him out of the game several days.

Tom was a student at St. Thomas college in St. Paul, presided over by Father John Dumphy, an athlete of no mean ability. Father John had a system of his own in dealing out punishment to youngsters who fractured the school rules. Let Tom tell about it,
"I busted a regulation one afternoon and was caught in the act. Father John gravely informed me that he wished to see me in the gym after class. When I got there he was putting on a pair of gloves. He handed another pair to me. I put them on wonderingly and was still considerably puzzled when 'he squared away, and, after inviting me to "tear in" planted a light but stinging jab on my nose,

"'That,' he grinned, 'is part of your punishment.' 'And that'-he jabbed again-'is a little more. And more is coming. Put up your hands and come in at me. I want to punish you for what you did today.

Last American Golfer Eliminated In British Meet

Boston Athlete Eliminated in Sixth Round of Play by Bernard Darwin by One Hole.

Hoylake, May 26.-In the semi-finals Hunter defeated Darwin, 3 up and 2 to play.

Darwin had led Hunter in the early part of the match, being 1 up on his opponent at the turn. The Tubbs-Graham match was all square at the 13th hole.

Hoylake, May 26.—(By The Associated Press.)—Frederick J. Wright of Boston, last of the American entrants for the British amateur golf championship was eliminated in the sixth round of play today, losing to Bernard Darwin of Woking, by I

I knocked him out in the third, got S5 for the job—and right away I square at the 18th, necessitating an abandoned thoughts of becoming a extra hole, which Darwin won. They halved the first two holes of their

At the third Darwin topped his De Palma Qualifies drive, the ball touching the top of the bunker and falling 50 yards short of Wright's. His third was in the rough beyond the green and Wright At Indianapolis won in five to six, becoming one up.

At the fourth Darwin's 10-yard putt rested a foot from the hole and he squared the match in 3 to 4.

Wins Fifth Hole.

Wright won the fifth, where Darwin's second shot, on coming to earth broke away to the left, 4 to 5 Darwin appeared unstrung, and from the sixth tee he hooked his ball to a lay from which he was obliged to play out at right angles. He took four to reach the green, Wright won five to six and became 2 up. Darwin drove out of bounds and Wright won the seventh, 3 to 4. Wright, however, got under the railing at the eighth and lost in 7 to 5, but he won the ninth in 4 to 5 and stood three up at the turn. Darwin then began to improve, while Wright fell away on his game, especially on the greens, Darwin re-gaining and then forging ahead until he became dormie at the 17th. By superb golf, Wright won the 18th hole, although Darwin missed a three-yard putt for a half and the game, which was all square at the 18th, went to the 19th.

Pulls His Tee Shot.

On the extra hole Wright pulle l his tee shot, but Darwin's drive was good one, and he got down in 5 Wright's putting was weak and he took 6, thus becoming eliminated from the championship after a thrill-

H. S. Tubbs of Sunnindale, defeated J. B. Beddard of Penn in the sixth round of the English amateur golf championship here this morn ing 3 up and 2 to play. Allan Graham, Royal Liverpool, beat F. C Harrison of Formby, 2 up and 1 to play, and W. I. Hunter of Walmer and Kingsdown, defeated E. W. E. Holderness, 4 up and 3 to play. Tubbs and Graham will meet in the semi-finals to be played this afternoon and Hunter will meet Darwin.
