Alliance, Neb., May 31.—(Special Telegram.)—G. L. Griggs, since December, 1917, superintendent of the Alliance division of the Burlington railroad, with headquarters here, will leave June 15, to take the superintendency of the Beardstown (I!!.) division, with headquarters at Beardstown. The new position is considered as a distinct promotion. The Beardstown division is one of the heaviest on the entire Burlington system, due to the heavy coal tonnage handled.

Before coming to Alliance, Mr. Griggs held division superintendencies at Omaha, Wymore, Sheridan, Wyo., and Sterling, Colo. He has been a leader in municipal affairs and was recently elected president of the Alliance Rotary club. His successor has not been announced.
