Ruth Chalks Up His 15th Homer and Establishes New Major League Record

King of Swats Scores 118th Home Run of Career

Former Record of 117 Circuit Clouts Held by Cravath-Yankees Lose to Senators, 5 to 12.

Washington, May 31. - "Babe' Ruth made his 15th home run today, sending the ball over the right field wall with two on base in the ninth inning, but New York lost to Washington, 12 to 5. It was Ruth's 118th home run of his major league career, and set a new major league record. The former record of 117 home runs was held by C. C. Cravath, formerly of the Philadelphia Nationals. The locals made eight consecutive hits off Hoyt in the second inning. Zachary got a double and three singles in four times at bat.
