A MONG the virtues of "39 East." which is the attraction offered by the Princess Players at the Brandels theater during the current week, not the least is the completeness and elaborateness of the stage settings. Perhaps the most noteworthy of the three settings is that of the second act which reproduces a cove of Central Park which the young lovers come for their little meeting away from the prying eyes at the boarding house. The coloring, the flowers, the lighting—all help to create the atmosphere of "woodsiness" which greets the audience at the rise of the curtain. Such settings are worthy of any production—that a stock company is able in one short week to produce so complete and artistic a show is indeed noteworthy. The credit for such splendid work falls to William J. Mack, the director of the company. This is the first time that "39 East," Constance Binney's success of last season, has been seen in Omaha.

of last season, has been seen in Omaha,

A musical fantasy entitled "Fickle Froites" comes as the sicilar act of the new show opening at the Empress today. It is to be presented by a cast of five pretty girls and two comedians who are to offer a mixture of songs, dances and clean humor together with a dazzling assortment of gowns and seenle surroundings. In an offering called "Snappy Songs and Sayings." Wild and Sedalia are to present an act of class, ability and versatility. Will and Gladys Aheara will appear in a rope spinning, chatter and dancing offering which promises much in the way of entertainment. Completing the vaudeville program are Hill and Crest who will be seen in a comedy playlet called "Naturalization," which is said to be one of the most laughable of the year.
