Hamburg, 12; Malvern, 3.

Hamburg, Ia., June 1.—(Special.)— Humburg's base ball team won from the Malvern club on the local diamond here by the score of 12 to 3. The crowd which witnessed the game was rather small on account of unfavorable weather.

The game started off rather fast, but was a slow, draggy game before it ended.
Hamburg scored one in the first inning, two in the second, four in the fourth, two in the fifth, one in the sixth and two in the eighth; while Malvern scored two in the second inning and one in the third, and although they made few hits during the rest of the game, they ware unable to score. H. Barkus, who pitched the first part of the game for Malvern, was taken out the last half of the sixth inning, being relieved by McCord, who played first base. Scupa, who pitched for Hamburg, looked just a little unfavorable at first, but after he really got warmed up, he pitched real base ball.
