and UP in the accounting line are constantly open to those qualified to fill them. Fortified by our special Training and the assistance rendered by our large staff of certified public accountants, you will be surprised how quickly you can qualify for one of these high-salaried positions. It is simply a matter of determination and application, coupled with a few hours study at home each week during your spare time under the direct supervision of our staff of experts—the largest staff of certified public accountants connected with any educational fistitution in the country. No previous knowledge of accounting is necessary. We not only give you the training, but are constantly hearing of desirable positions and co-operate and assist you in obtaining a position as soon as you are competent. With such facilities and training as we have for helping you there is no excuse whatever for you remaining in a position where the salary is limited and where there is no chance for advancement. We have helped hundreds of others out of the RUT and into good paving positions and we can also help you. INDECISION AND DELAY ARE THE WORST ENEMIES TO SUCCESS. Where Necessary Under

Terms of Measure Introduced in Senate. Washington, June 2 .- A proposal to confer on the federal government power to determine and enforce, even as against states, treaty rights which aliens in the United States may be given, was introduced by Senator judiciary committee of the American Bar association. Senator Kellogg said that the measure was put forward to raise the issue and not apply necessarilyl to any specific situation. Under the bill, the president would be authorized, where in his judgment any statute or a state or territory contravened treaty rights of aliento instruct the attorney general to take up the defense of civil or criminal prosecutions brought by state officials before state courts and to secure their removal to federal courts

Kellogg, republican, Minnesota, in the form of a bill framed by the

The federal courts would take jurisdiction when any acts had been committed against aliens which would constitute crimes under state laws and penalies similar to those provided in the state statutes would be imposed in case of acts against American citizens. United States marshals, and, if necessary, army or navy forces, would be available to enforce decisions. Under present conditions there is no law authorizing intervention by the federal government for the protection of aliens in state proceedings, Senator Kellogg said. The bill, he added, was intended to make clear the rights and duties of the federal government.

The bill was referred to the foreign relations committee, of which Senator Kellogg is a member. Senator Kellogg did not care to comment on the possibility that the measure would apply to the Japan-ese question on the Pacific coast. though the terms of the bill would give the federal government power to intervene in anti-alien land pro-
