Forfeits Ball Game.

Schuyler, Neb., June 6.—(Special.)—In a game replete with sensational plays between Schuyler Puritans and the David City team with a tied score, 2 to 2, and two men on bases with none out in the ninth, David City balked at a decision of the umpire at the home plate and left the field, forfeiting the game. Schuyler and David City have always been rivals on the field and this year have two fast organizations. The game was won by Schuyler fairly and the fans were disappointed at the result. All future games between these two teams have been canceled. The Woodmen of the World team of Omaha will meet the Puritans at Schuyler next Sunday.

Ellsworth, 9; Bingham, 6.
