Griswold, Ia., June 7.—(Special.)— riswold defeated Villisca in a fast game n the local grounds by the score of to 1, this being the eighth consecutive in for the local team. Villisca scored he first earned run off Smith in his last ive starts. Only three scores have been ade against the local in the last six anes.

Thurman, 8; Schoening, 7.

The Schoenings Hardwares of Council Bluffs lost to Thurman, Ia., in a pitcher's battle between Ford of the Schoenings and Connors for Thurman by the score of 8 to 7. Both men pitched fine bail and were touched for 11 hits each. Connors had the margin on Ford on strike outs, getting nine to Ford's eight. However, Connors was teuched for two three-base hits by MacDowell and two-baggers by Hansen, Smith and Ford, while Ford was only nicked for two two-base hits by Cupp and Cox. Connors was extremely wild at times, hitting two men by wild pitched balls and walked six, while Ford was more steady, only walking three.

Both pitchers had ragged support at critical times. Henderson of the Schoenings was considerably off, making three errors, while Prather of Thurman followed with two.

Legion Team Wins.

Norta Piatte, Neb., June 7.—(Special.)—
On the Overton grounds, the North Piatte American Legion team defeated the Overton team in a snappy game by a 6 to 0 score. Todenhof pitched a wonderful game for North Piatte, allowing but one bit and striking out 18 men. Beal of North Platte was the heavy slugger making two doubles. Batteries; North Platte, Tedenhof and Sandall; Overton, Ingram and Pingerton. Errors; North Platte, 0; Overton; 3.

Platte Center Loses.

Platte Center, Neb., June 7.—(Special.)

The Humphrey Tri-County league team stationed themselves one side stronger by taking the Platte Center into camp by a core of 7 to 6. Humphrey was unable to connect with the offerings of Bogus until the sixth inning and then pounded him out of the box with five runs. He was then relieved by Campbell, who allowed but two more scores to be made. Humphrey also used two pitchers.

Batteries: Humphrey, Baumgart, Follott and Baursgart; Platte Center, Bogus, Campbell and Badura.

Humphrey plays Leigh next Sunday.

Pifteen-Inning Game,
Wilcox, Neb., June 7.—(Special.), Wilcox lost a 15-inning ball game to Bertrand by score of 6 to 5. Wilcox scored two runs in the seventh when Needham hit a home run with one man on, tieing the score after Bertrand had taken a two-run lead. Neither team scored after the seventh until the 15th Inning, when Sunblad hit a home run with one man on base. Sunblad was called out for not touching third base.

Maaske, pitching for Bertrand, struck but 25 batamen, while Kelso struck out 20.

Orchid King Sold

Nelson B. Updike added another galloper to his stable this morning when he purchased Orchid King, 6year-old chestnut gelding, by Cunard -Arline, from the Irwin stable, for a handsome price. Orchid King has been one of the big money makers for the Irwin establishment. He won the six furlongs at Tiajuana, April 14, from a field of eight starters. On Sunday, March 27, at Tiajuana, the Irwin entry flashed under the wire first in the five and one-half furlongs race. He placed first in a six furlongs race at Tiajuana on March 22, winning by a head from Miss Manage.

Updike has three thoroughbreds in his stable at Ak-Sar-Ben in Phrone Ward, Lady in Black and Orchid King. These three gallopers will be coupled at the Updike entry in the fifth race tomorrow afternoon.

Pat McGill to Meet Silent Olsen

According to Dame Rumor, "Pat" McGill of Wisner, Nebraska's latest entry in the light heavyweight rank of the wrestling game, and "Silent" Olsen, Kentucky grappler, have been matched for a finish tussle to be held at the Buffaloes' Western league ball park early in July. The Kentucky wrestler, who deaf and dumb, has been in Omaha for several months waiting for a chance to get a crack at the popular McGill, who has caused considerable stir in the wrestling ranks by his victories over several of the state's best "bone crushers."

Olsen has met and defeated every good man of his weight. He won over the younger Zbyszko in a handicap affair and has a victory
